Facebook Pages Insights Guide:

Successful Social Networking in Public Libraries Walt Crawford, 2014 Most commentaries to date on library use of social networks such as Facebook and Twitter have focused on a handful of well funded public libraries with high profile employees Now Crawford's Successful Social Networking in Public Libraries fills in the rest of the picture offering for the first time an in depth look at how a large variety of public libraries are using social networks Examining nearly 6 000 libraries across the US Crawford Analyzes social network usage by libraries of many different sizes and funding levels showing how many of them are active and effective in quite different ways Offers many examples that will help other libraries establish or refine their own social networking activities Lays out several key questions that libraries should ask themselves such as Who do we want to reach and What's the best way to interact with communities Gives libraries guidelines for setting social networking goals and conducting ongoing evaluation Includes illuminating comments from numerous librarians on the front lines of communication Based on broad research Crawford draws a vivid portrait that shows how a wide range of public libraries is conducting digital outreach and marketing through social networking

The Intermediate Authorpreneur Sarah Jane Butfield, The What Why Where When Who How Book Promotion Series Find out how to get your writing business started in easy to follow simple steps which breaks down the fears and myths of social media and networking for aspiring and new authors It's not rocket science and anyone can do it Get started today and feel free to network with the author for additional support on your book marketing and promotional journey The series so far in the words of reviewers Book 1 The Accidental Author Permafree It's like we are having a valuable conversation with a friend who knows what she's talking about rather than being instructed from on high I think Ms Butfield can add mentor inspirational speaker cheerleader and eternal optimist to her lists of credentials As I devoured the words of this book I felt a kinship to the author on a personal and professional level With a kind and open heart she shares the gold nuggets of her wisdom and experience Book 2 The Amateur Authorpreneur In this guide to the What Why When Where Who and How of self publishing Sarah Jane Butfield really gets down to the nitty gritty She begins with a general and very useful outline of the needs of a new writer trying to promote their book and then she goes on to the first few items on her list and examines each of them in detail especially Twitter Facebook and blogs I have been a published writer for several years now and have read a good many books and blog posts about promoting books but none of them have covered so much ground so clearly as this one Sarah Jane is a very talented writer and I now have all the books that she has written so far This book gives you a boost and makes you think outside the box An amazing book and well worth a read Book 3 The Intermediate Authorpreneur ARC Readers said This guide is just what I needed to set my goals for the future I am awe of what an indie author has to know and do on a daily basis as a reader I applaud you all A valuable guide and essential reading for all new authors or those that need to refocus their social media presence The evidence based graphs and statistics were a nice reassuring touch Sarah definitely keeps it real Social

Media for Communication and Instruction in Academic Libraries Joe, Jennifer, Knight, Elisabeth, 2019-03-01 The subject of the use of social media has renewed interest because of the impact that it had on the last U S presidential election and the impact that social media networks will have on subsequent elections As guides in the information world it is thus important that librarians be well versed in social media This has called attention to the relevance and urgency of incorporating social media use into the academic library both as a marketing tool and as an instruction tool Social Media for Communication and Instruction in Academic Libraries is an essential reference source that offers guidance in using social media in academic libraries and in instruction with a special emphasis on assessment and evidence based practice Featuring research on topics such as digital libraries marketing and web analytics this book is ideally designed for librarians administrators educators managers information technology specialists professionals researchers and students

Adsensory Financialisation Pamela Odih, 2016-09-23 Adsensory technology presupposes a neoliberal entrepreneurial self as an integral feature of its biopolitical financialisation of healthcare regimes According to Michel Foucault neoliberalism is indebted to the endeavour of its self disciplined subjects investing human capital in a self regulated entrepreneurial pursuit of responsible healthcare and well being Primarily informed by social network analytics and virtual ethnographic observations this book identifies the biopolitical basis of adsensory technologies It argues that a paradoxical feature of adsensory technologies dissimulating that there is nothing Jean Baudrillard is the proliferation of risk This is because the dissimulation of nothing opens up the possibility that everything can be a risk in so far as the type of event it falls under can be treated according to the principles of insurance technology Francois Ewald Adsensory wearable technologies are called upon as a strategy of deterrence Jean Baudrillard to indemnify capitalism s production of signs which dissimulate their simulation In a context in which much that was certain now feigns its own existence the insurance professed by adsensory technologies provides for an unrealisable guarantee against indefinable unknowable risks Based also on case studies of European Court of Justice personal finance insurance rulings this book engages critically with the neoliberal construct of the entrepreneurial lifestyle insurance subject Social network analytics are utilised here to map bio technology onto neoliberal regimes of financialised well being and healthcare provision In so doing the book situates adsensory technologies within the marketising healthcare management programmes that are currently aligning the neoliberal reengineering of health and well being citizenship with the biopolitical healthcare financialisation of populations Paradoxically in their endeavour to actor network virtual well being health communities adsensory technologies proliferate the individuating marketised conditions of neoliberal self regulating entrepreneurialism This gives rise to aleatory materialist dialectics of financialised surveillance far exceeding the regulatory time and space modalities of Foucauldian panoptics and Mathiesen synoptics Adsensory technologies are integral to a seismic transformation in the cultural economies of time presently eliding digital advertising and insurantal technologies Axiomatic with the synchronic times of the adsensory technologies valorised by lifestyle insurance much riskier asynchronic
