Facing The World Orthodox Christian Essays On Global Concerns:

Facing the World Anastasios (Archbishop of Tirana and all Albania), 2003 The process of globalization evokes either euphoria or alarm Some view it as an unmistakable sign of progress while others see it as a threat Nevertheless the accelerated development of economic scientific political and social links among all the peoples of the world has turned our planet into a megalopolis replete with slums In this work Archbishop Anastasios presents his conviction that the ecumenical vision of the Orthodox Church is the best response to the growing global condition In the Orthodox tradition everything is understood within a universal context from the creation of the world to the vision of the new heaven and new earth Human enterprise as a whole and the salvation of the entire world are seen as the basic themes of Holy Scripture In this work Archbishop Anastasios discusses Orthodox perspectives on human rights the dialogue with Islam and the relationship between culture and the gospel and provides an analysis of world religions His words invite us to broaden our field of vision to encompass the whole earth Rezension: Anastasios Yannoulatos, Facing the World. Orthodox Christian Essays on Global Concerns Daniel Munteanu, 2010 Orthodox Christians and Islam in the Postmodern Age Andrew Sharp, 2012-06-27 This book is the first comprehensive attempt to assess an Orthodox Christian position on Islam It demonstrates how a growing number of ordained and lay leaders have reframed the discussion within the Orthodox Church while participating in dialogue with Muslims Global Eastern Orthodoxy Giuseppe Giordan, Siniša Zrinščak, 2020-02-19 This volume highlights three intertwined aspects of the global context of Orthodox Christianity religion politics and human rights The chapters in Part I address the challenges of modern human rights discourse to Orthodox Christianity and examine conditions for active presence of Orthodox churches in the public sphere of plural societies It suggests theoretical and empirical considerations about the relationship between politics and Orthodoxy by exploring topics such as globalization participatory democracy and the linkage of religious and political discourses in Russia Greece Belarus Romania and Cyprus Part II looks at the issues of diaspora and identity in global Orthodoxy presenting cases from Switzerland America Italy and Germany In doing so the book ties in with the growing interest resulting from the novelty of socio political economic and cultural changes which have forced religious groups and organizations to revise and redesign their own institutional structures practices and agendas The World's Religions Peter B. Clarke, Peter Beyer, 2009-05-07 This comprehensive volume focuses on the world's religions and the changes they have undergone as they become more global and diverse in form It explores the religions of the world not only in the regions with which they have been historically associated but also looks at the new cultural and religious contexts in which they are developing It considers the role of migration in the spread of religions by examining the issues raised for modern societies by the increasing interaction of different religions The volume also addresses such central questions as the dynamics of religious innovation which is evidenced in the rise and impact of new religious and new spirituality movements in every continent The Theology of Amos Yong and the New Face of Pentecostal Scholarship

Wolfgang Vondey, Martin Mittelstadt, 2013-06-15 In The Theology of Amos Yong and the New Face of Pentecostal Scholarship Wolfgang Vondey and Martin William Mittelstadt gather a table of experts on one of the most influential voices in current Pentecostal theology. The authors provide an introduction and critical assessment of Yong's biblical foundations, hermeneutics, epistemology, philosophical presuppositions, trinitarian theology, theology of religions, ecumenical and interfaith relations, theology of disability, engagement with contemporary culture, and participation in the theology and science conversation. These diverse topics are pursued through the complementary perspectives that together shape Yong's methodology, pneumatology, pentecostalism, and the possibility of renewal. The contributors invite a more thorough reading of Yong's work and propose a more substantial engagement with the new face of Pentecostal scholarship. Contributors include Andrew Carver, Jacob D. Dodson, Jeff Hittenberger, Mark Mann, Martin William Mittelstadt, L. William Oliverio Jr., David A. Reed, Tony Richie, Christopher A. Stephenson, Steven M. Studebaker, Paraskev, Eve Tibbs, and Wolfgang Vondey. Religion and Social Problems

Titus Hjelm, 2011-01-21 Although students and scholars of social problems have often acknowledged the role of religion, no thorough examinations of the relation between the two have emerged. This book fills this gap by providing a definitive work on the impact of religion on social problems, religion as a solution to social problems, and religion as a social problem in itself. "The First and Most Sacred Right" Patrick Lally Michelson, 2007 The Journal of Ecclesiastical History

Eastern Christians in Anthropological Perspective C. M. Hann, Hermann Goltz, 2010 This collection of essays is a welcome and refreshing gift in a virtual desert. There has been very little comparative anthropological research on the Eastern churches, and this volume will fill that gap. Michael Herzfeld, author of Evicted from Eternity: The Restructuring of Modern Rome. At long last, there is a book on the anthropology of Christianity that devotes direct and sustained attention to the diverse Eastern Christian Churches, both Orthodox and Catholic. This book should be read by anyone who thinks anthropologically about Christianity. Scales will fall from their eyes, and they will behold an entire wing of Christianity that has until now gone mostly unnoticed and practically untheorized. Douglas Rogers, author of The Old Faith and the Russian Land: A Historical Ethnography of Ethics in the Urals. The Encyclopedia of Christianity Erwin Fahlbusch, Geoffrey William Bromiley, 1999 The Encyclopedia of Christianity is the first of a five-volume English translation of the third revised edition of Evangelisches Kirchenlexikon. Its German articles have been tailored to suit an English readership, and articles of special interest to English readers have been added. The encyclopedia describes Christianity through its 2000-year history within a global context, taking into account other religions and philosophies. A special feature is the statistical information dispersed throughout the articles on the continents and over 170 countries Social and cultural coverage is given to such issues as racism genocide and armaments while historical content shows the development of biblical and apostolic traditions
