The Fair Haven Samuel Butler, 1938 The Fair Haven Samuel Butler, 1913 The Fair Haven Part 1 Samuel Butler, 2025-10-15 The opening part begins with the editor's introduction Butler's preface and a memoir of John Pickard Owen reflecting personal struggles with faith and doubt The early chapters of The Fair Haven then critique Christian apologetics focusing on Strauss's hallucination theory and the conversion of St Paul Butler highlights weaknesses in conventional defenses of Christianity and questions the reliability of Paul's testimony This section establishes the conflict between reason and belief as the central theme Part 1 thus lays the intellectual groundwork for the book's debates The Fair Haven Samuel Butler, 2017-11-20 The Fair Haven by Samuel Butler The Fair Haven is an ironical defense of Christianity which under the guise of orthodox zeal undermines its miraculous foundations To find the germ of The Fair Haven we should probably have to go back to the year 1858 when Butler after taking his degree at Cambridge was preparing himself for holy orders by acting as a kind of lay curate in a London parish Butler never took things for granted and he felt it to be his duty to examine independently a good many points of Christian dogma which most candidates for ordination accept as matters of course The result of his investigations was that he eventually declined to take orders at all One of the stones upon which he then stumbled was the efficacy of infant baptism and I have no doubt that another was the miraculous element of Christianity which it will be remembered was the cause of grievous searchings of heart to Ernest Pontifex in Butler's semi autobiographical novel The Way of All Flesh While Butler was in New Zealand 1859-64 he had leisure for prosecuting his Biblical studies the result of which he published in 1865 after his return to England in an anonymous pamphlet entitled The Evidence for the Resurrection of Jesus Christ as given by the Four Evangelists critically examined The Shrewsbury Edition of the Works of Samuel Butler: The fair haven [with] Memoir of the late John Pickard Owen Samuel Butler, 1923

The Fair Haven Samuel Butler, 2019-10-02 This edition of The Fair Haven by Samuel Butler is given by Golden Million Book Edition The Fair Haven Part 2 Samuel Butler, 2025-10-15 The second part addresses deeper flaws in Christian apologetics exposing disingenuous arguments and highlighting the difficulties faced by opponents Butler explores the Christ Ideal before drawing his conclusion questioning the coherence of traditional defenses The appendix critically reviews biblical resurrection narratives including the guard at the tomb appearances to Mary Magdalene the apostles and Paul's account By weaving together critique and irony Part 2 deepens the inquiry and challenges the authenticity of religious tradition The Fair Haven Samuel Butler, R.
