Barton Collection,1888 Cusanus Today David Albertson,2024-06 At the end of the nineteenth century German theologians and philosophers rediscovered the Renaissance cardinal Nicholas of Cusa 1401-1464 Immediately they hailed Cusanus as the first modern thinker a brilliant German rival to the French Descartes But since the founding of the Cusanus critical edition in 1927 up to its conclusion in 2005 historians have gradually learned that Nicholas was more of a medieval preacher and contemplative than a modern philosopher Yet over the same century modern German and French readers were already digging into Nicholas's many works There they encountered an exciting voice with fresh perspectives about God's immanence in the cosmos and the awesome capacities of the human mind Leading philosophers and theologians from Erich Przywara to Karl Jaspers to Hans Georg Gadamer and from Gilles Deleuze to Jacques Lacan to Michel de Certeau found their own thinking stimulated by the cardinal's innovative concepts and interdisciplinary style Even as Nicholas shifted from modern to medieval among historians he was emerging as a contemporary interlocutor for moderns and postmoderns Who
