

The background of the entire cover is a photograph of a church interior. Rows of dark wooden pews are visible on both sides, receding into the distance. In the center of the aisle, there is a large, vibrant, and ethereal light projection on the floor. The light has a soft, painterly quality with a mix of colors including deep blues, purples, pinks, and oranges, creating a sense of divine presence and hope.

Facing Decline Finding Hope New Possibilities For Faithful Churches:

Facing Decline, Finding Hope Jeffrey D. Jones, 2015-02-05 Church today isn't the same as it was fifty years ago or even ten years ago. In spite of the powerful stories of turn around churches with skyrocketing memberships the difficult reality is that most congregations are getting smaller. Jeffrey D. Jones asks brave questions for congregations facing this reality: what if membership growth isn't the primary goal for a church? How can churches remain vital even with declining attendance? Facing Decline Finding Hope is an essential resource to help congregations confront their shrinking size while looking towards the hopeful reality that God is calling them to greater faithfulness. The book draws on biblical and theological resources as well as contemporary leadership studies to help leaders both clergy and laity set aside a survival mentality and ask new questions to shape ministry more attuned to today's world. Facing Decline Finding Hope is a powerful book for leaders who want to honestly assess the size of their church and plan for faithful invigorating service regardless of whether membership numbers are up or down.

A Guide to Ministry Self-Care Richard P. Olson, Ruth Lofgren Rosell, Nathan S. Marsh, Angela Barker Jackson, 2018-09-10 Ministry has never been an easy path and the challenges of today's changing church landscape only heighten the stress and burn out of congregational leaders. A Guide to Ministry Self-Care offers a comprehensive and up to date overview of both the causes of stress and strategies for effective self care. Written for both new and long time ministers the book draws on current research and offers practical and spiritual insights into building and maintaining personal health and sustaining ministry long term. The book addresses a wide range of life situations and explores many forms of self care from physical and financial to relational and spiritual.

The Church Has Left the Building Michael Plekon, Maria Gwyn McDowell, Elizabeth Schroeder, 2016-09-30 The origin of the phrase the church has left the building lies with Elvis. In order to clear halls of his riotous fans after concerts it was announced that Elvis has left the building. Here the expression highlights intense change within the church. Not only does the church change for its own existence it also does so for the life of the world. The church cannot avoid the many past and future changes of our constantly transforming society demographic changes long in process. What you have before you is a gathering of first hand reflections stories really from a diverse group of Christians lay as well as ordained. While each has a distinctive experience of the church in our time all of them have something to say about the many changes in our society and how these are affecting our faith the parish and pastoral work. Contributors: Mary Breton, Nicholas Denysenko, Adam A. J. DeVille, John C. Frazier, David Frost, Carol Fryer, Kenneth J. Guest, Brett Hoover, Abbie Huff, Wongee Joh, Justin Mathews, Maria Gwyn McDowell, William C. Mills, Robert Corin Morris, Sarah Hinlicky Wilson, Michael Plekon.

Being Church in a Liminal Time Jeffrey D. Jones, David Fredrickson, 2023-07-10 Congregations today exist in an in between or liminal time. The customary answers about what it means to be and do church and strategies for renewal based on those answers no longer work. But there is no certainty about the new answers. It is a time of searching of letting go of the old and experimenting with the new. This means facing the reality of death which may come as institutions die or as established ways are abandoned This book addresses this reality while maintaining a constant focus on the Christian promise of resurrection It offers three images that recognize the differing contexts of congregations and help them shape their future as they seek to discern God s work in their midst Congregations shaped by each of the three images remembering letting go and resurrecting have the potential to faithfully engage in God s work in their setting For each of the three there are suggestions for helping a congregation move toward an even more faithful expression of the image The book includes Bible studies and other resources that congregations will find helpful in this process Some congregations may continue in traditional ways while others seek a new way of being church But all can join in God s work in their time and place with a new and deeper understanding of the ministry that is theirs This book helps them do that Because a different kind of leadership is needed the book offers an approach to leadership that is grounded in a spiritual process of inward reflection and outward involvement The Living Church ,1894 The Churchman ,1904
