Every Time We Say Goodbye Jaye Maiman, 2019-08-01 Private Eye Robin Miller trudged down the ice slick sidewalk wondering which was worse the miserably cold New York winter the dead end case she couldn't seem to crack or the fact that her lover K T Bellflower's entire family had just descended upon them like an army of Kentucky locusts Of course that was before Robin's sultry ex-lover arrived on the scene and K T's 15 year old niece disappeared in the middle of Times Square Robin Miller Mystery Book 7 Originally published by Naiad Press 1999 Musics Lost and Found Michael Church, 2021 This is the first ever book about song collectors music's unsung heroes They include the Armenian priest who sacrificed his life to preserve the folk music which the Turks were trying to erase in the 1915 Genocide the prisoner in a Nazi concentration camp who secretly noted down the songs of doomed Jewish inmates the British singer who went veiled into Afghanistan to learn record and perform the music the Taliban wanted to silence With globalisation urbanisation and Westernisation causing an irreversible erosion of the world's musical diversity Michael Church suggests we may be seeing folk music's end of history Old forms are dying as the conditions for their survival or replacement disappear the death of villages means the death of village musical culture This ground breaking book is the sequel to the author's award winning The Other Classical Musics and it concludes with an inventory of the musics now under threat or already lost for ever

The Sheet Music Exchange, 1984 Do You Know...? Robert R. Faulkner, Howard S. Becker, 2024-05-31 Every night somewhere in the world three or four musicians will climb on stage together Whether the gig is at a jazz club a bar or a bar mitzvah the performance never begins with a note but with a question The trumpet player might turn to the bassist and ask Do you know Body and Soul and from there the subtle craft of playing the jazz repertoire is tested in front of a live audience These ordinary musicians may never have played together they may never have met so how do they smoothly put on a show without getting booed offstage In Do You Know Robert R Faulkner and Howard S Becker both jazz musicians with decades of experience performing present the view from the bandstand revealing the array of skills necessary for working musicians to do their jobs While learning songs from sheet music or by ear helps the jobbing musician's lexicon is dauntingly massive hundreds of thousands of tunes from jazz classics and pop standards to more exotic fare Since it is impossible for anyone to memorize all of these songs Faulkner and Becker show that musicians collectively negotiate and improvise their way to a successful performance Players must explore each others areas of expertise develop an ability to fake their way through unfamiliar territory and respond to the unpredictable demands of their audience whether an unexpected gang of polka fanatics or a tipsy father of the bride with an obscure favorite song Do You Know dishes out entertaining stories and sharp insights drawn from the authors own experiences and observations as well as interviews with a range of musicians Faulkner and Becker's vivid detailed portrait of the musician at work holds valuable lessons for anyone who has to think on the spot or under a spotlight Time to Say Goodbye (Sheet Music) Sarah Brightman, Andrea Bocelli, 2004-04-01 Piano Vocal This sheet
