Commonsense Methods for Children with Special Needs and Disabilities Peter Westwood, 2020-11-25 This fully revised and updated eighth edition of Peter Westwood's book offers practical advice and strategies for meeting the challenge of inclusive teaching. Based on the latest international research from the field it offers practical advice on both new and well tried evidence based approaches and strategies for teaching students with a wide range of difficulties. As well as covering special educational needs, learning difficulties and disabilities in detail, chapters also explore topics such as self management and autonomy, managing behaviour and social skills. The book offers sound pedagogical practices and strategies for adapting curriculum content, designing teaching materials, differentiating instruction for mixed ability classes and implementing inclusive assessment of learning. Key features of this new edition include: Additional information on linking all aspects of teaching to a Response to Intervention Model. A focus on the increasing importance of digital technology in supporting the learning of students with special educational needs and disabilities. Up to date resource lists for each chapter for those who wish to pursue a particular topic in greater depth. Reflecting cutting edge international research and teaching practices, this is an invaluable resource for practising and trainee teachers, teaching assistants and other educational professionals looking to support students with special educational needs and disabilities.

Making the Most of Your Research Journal Nicole Brown, 2021-10-19 Providing practical guidance based on real life examples, this book shows researchers different forms and ways of keeping a research journal and how to get the most out of journaling. Appealing to postgraduate students, new and experienced researchers, the book provides a theoretical grounding and information about knowledge and sensory systems and reflexivity. It presents a practical exploration of what a journal looks like and when and how to record entries, includes helpful end of chapter exercises and online resources. Providing valuable food for thought and examples to experiment with, the book highlights the different forms of research journals and entries so that readers can find what works for them. Giving researchers licence to do things differently, the book encourages and enables readers to develop their own sense of researcher identity and voice.
