The Education of Black Males in a 'Post-Racial' World Anthony L. Brown, Jamel K. Donnor, 2013-09-13 The Education of Black Males in a Post Racial World examines the varied structural and discursive contexts of race masculinities and class that shape the educational and social lives of Black males The contributing authors take direct aim at the current discourses that construct Black males as disengaged in schooling because of an autonomous Black male culture and explore how media social sciences school curriculum popular culture and sport can define and constrain the lives of Black males The chapters also provide alternative methodologies theories and analyses for making sense of and addressing the complex needs of Black males in schools and in society By expanding our understanding of how unequal access to productive opportunities and quality resources converge to systemically create disparate experiences and outcomes for African American males this volume powerfully illustrates that race still matters in post racial America This book was originally published as a special issue of Race Ethnicity and Education
