Economics of Innovation: The Case of Food Industry Giovanni Galizzi, Luciano Venturini, 2012-12-06 Giovanni Galizzi and Luciano Venturini The food industry has been characterized by several and profound changes in its structure and competitive environment in the last decades Although it is not a research oriented industry there is no arguing that technological change and particularly product innovations are crucial determinants of firms performance and In recent years food manufacturers have accelerated the consumers welfare development of new products by using new ingredients processing and packaging techniques Thus food markets are increasingly characterized by competitive environments where relevant flows of innovative products quality improvements and new technologies provide new consumption trends food habits market opportunities and firms strategies However the issue of product innovation in the food industries has been rather neglected by economists Few works have explicitly addressed this issue After the pioneering book of Buzzell and Nourse 1967 one can count few contributors Connor 1981 examined the empirical determinants of new food products introductions Padberg and Westgren 1979 provided crucial insights about the nature of food innovation through their notions of consumer inertia technological redundancy and incremental product innovation Some case studies provide useful empirical materials but they are generally sparse Journal of Economic Literature ,2014 CO2 Abatement and

Economic Structural Change in the European Internal Market Frank Hoster, Heinz Welsch, Christoph Böhringer, 2012-12-06 European environmental and energy policies are currently challenged by two mutually dependent issues CO2 abatement and the completion of the Internal Market for energy Both will lead to substantial structural changes in the energy supply industry and in the wider economy The purpose of this book is to analyze the interaction between CO2 abatement economic structural change and the completion of the European Internal Market This involves not only significant general equilibrium effects but also technological changes especially in the electricity supply sector The simulation results indicate that the effects of measures to reduce European CO2 emissions depend considerably on the structure of the electricity supply system Bibliographie der Staats-und Wirtschaftswissenschaften ,1996 Index of Economic

Agricultural Technical Progress and the Development of a Dual Economy Thorsten Wichmann,1997 A two sector model of a developing country consisting of agriculture and industry is presented Growth and structural change are discussed in variants with exogenous as well as endogenous technical progress algebraically and by numerical simulations Consequences from taking into account peculiarities of food production and consumption are analyzed These include technology adoption in agriculture Engel s law and a relationship between the level of nutrition and productivity

Border-Regional Economics Rongxing Guo,1996-09-13 This research work is to commemorate all Guos ancestor who guarded the border for his Majesty dutifully and who is the foremost supporter in my academic career For the past decades economists and geographers from both developed and developing countries have studied the economic issues either within individual countries regions or between countries regions Only a relatively small part of these efforts has been focused on the economic affairs of those countries regions peripheral areas and even less attention has been given to the structural analysis of economic mechanisms of the border regions with different political levels and compositions My interest in border regions more or less directly relates to some personal reasons of mine The Chinese family name Guo means a guard for an outer city wall herein it used to be a political and military border in ancient China e g the Chinese Great Wall It is more interesting that Guo is written with a different Chinese character from that used for the like sounding Guo country The Chinese writing of the latter is a square frame inside which lies a Chinese character Wang king in the centre and a point in the comer It might be simply supposed that the point was used by the inventor to necessarily represent the border guard probably because of its vital importance to the country

Ethics and Economics Giuseppe Gaburro,1997-06-19 Ethics and Economics is divided in two parts In the first one Italian and French catholic thinkers are analysed by well known scholars with basic reference to the economic view of their work In the second part the economic environment is described and proposals based on the social catholic thought for the solution of the most diffused economic problems are given The book therefore furnishes an alternative approach to the orthodox economic analysis and for this reason it may be a useful tool for researchers who wish to compare their theoretical approach with a less conventional one and for scholars who want to examine closely alternative views to the traditional economic models and paradigm
