in the development of photo printmaking techniques screen printing lent itself to a wide range of imagery and was eagerly taken up by both established and emerging artists of the time The exhibition title pays homage to Eduardo Paolozzi's suite of 12 screen prints As is When published in 1965 which has been referred to as the first masterpiece of the medium In addition to screen prints the exhibition includes etchings and lithographs and features a number of innovative prints which explored the use of new materials Included are three of the first editioned screen prints on Perspex from the Fragments series of 1965 by Bridget Riley three screen prints on Acetate from Joe Tilson's Clip O Matic series of 1967-69 and three of Richard Hamilton's vacuum formed Guggenheim relief multiples from 1970

Art and Print Alan Powers, 2008 The Curwen Press set up by the Reverend John Curwen in 1863 was initially concerned with printing sheet music Curwen's grandson Harold led a design revolution in typography and illustration in the 1920s when the Press commissioned work from artists including Edward Bawden Claud Lovat Fraser Paul Nash and Eric Ravilious contributing to their lasting reputation Advertising jobs and limited edition books received the same perfectionist attention and Curwen's colleague Oliver Simon continued the tradition of talent spotting giving early opportunities to John Piper and Graham Sutherland From the 1930s the Curwen Press encouraged artists to work directly on lithographic stones and plates helping to generate a revival of interest in the potential of lithography for mass production of original work In the 1950s the market for limited edition lithographic prints was developing in France and America and the Curwen Studio was set up in 1958 to provide a sympathetic professional environment for experiment in printmaking The artist printer from the beginning was Stanley Jones who remains involved with the Studio as it celebrates its fiftieth anniversary
