Educating For Cosmopolitanism Lessons From Cognitive Science And Literature Palgrave Pivot:

Educating for Cosmopolitanism: Lessons from Cognitive Science and Literature M. Bracher, 2013-10-31 Drawing on developments in cognitive science Bracher formulates pedagogical strategies for teaching literature in ways that develop students cognitive capabilities for cosmopolitanism the pursuit of global equality and justice Several staple classroom texts such as Things Fall Apart provide detailed examples for teaching practices The Silent Revolution M. Bunz, 2013-10-31 Critically engaging illustrative and with numerous examples The Silent Revolution delivers a philosophically informed introduction to current debates on digital technology and calls for a more active role of humans towards technology

Decentralization and Party Politics in the Dominican Republic C. Mitchell, 2013-11-21 Recently in the Dominican Republic a pro municipal social alliance pressed for decentralization and politicians yielded seeking power in three party competition This study examines how electoral financial and administrative power has been dispersed and suggests innovative strategies to maintain decentralizing momentum Old Diplomacy Revisited: A Study in the Modern

History of Diplomatic Transformations K. Weisbrode, 2013-11-21 In historical terms the Old Diplomacy is not really that old many of its concepts and methods date to the mid nineteenth century while the practices of New Diplomacy emerged only a couple of generations later Moreover Diplomacy 2 0 and other variants of the post Cold War era do not depart significantly from their twentieth century predecessor their forms particularly in technology have changed but their substance has not In this succinct overview historian Kenneth Weisbrode reminds us that to understand diplomatic transformations and their relevance to international affairs is to see diplomacy as an entrepreneurial art and that like most arts it is adapted and re adapted with reference to earlier forms Diplomatic practice is always changing and always continuous Business

Strategies for a Messy World V. Barabba, I. Mitroff, 2013-11-22 Using current business examples and academic research Tools for Systematic Problem Solving educates managers and executives on how to systematically examine key assumptions to ensure survival and success for their organizations Politicians, Personal Image and the Construction of Political Identity C. Archetti, 2014-01-07 Is the media obsession with image leading to a degeneration of politics Are politicians more concerned with their appearances than with policy substance Through the evidence provided by over 50 interviews with politicians across the UK and Italy local councillors MPs and MEPs this book provides a very different picture of the world of politics than the one we often cynically imagine By relying on extensive excerpts from frank and colorful conversations with the interviewees the analysis develops a new multidisciplinary model to understand the mediatization of politics and the way the personal image of elected representatives is constructed in the age of interconnectedness Challenging Global Gender Violence: The Global Clothesline Project S. Rose, 2016-02-09 Challenging Global Gender Violence provides a qualitative and comparative analysis of women s experiences of violence healing and action across cultures Gender violence is the most pervasive human rights violation affecting women and children across both the developed and developing world While the specific cultural contexts and acts of violence vary the feelings that women express about their experiences of abuse are strikingly similar So are the images colors and words they use to express those feelings Hearts bruised broken and torn black and red NO and No M s are frequently found on shirts contributed to the Global Clothesline Project While providing a theoretical analysis of trauma Susan D Rose grounds the discussion in the lived experiences and stories of women across cultures Featuring women s stories artwork and voices as they speak about their experiences of violence and healing this brief volume examines the relationship between gender inequality and gender violence the health impacts of gender violence and strategies being used to reduce violence against women

Dominant Divisions of Labor: Models of Production That Have Transformed the World of Work T. Janoski,D. Lepadatu,2013-11-27 The past century of labor was definitively captured by theories like Fordism and Taylorism or scientific management but how do we make sense of global production today This short book takes a panoramic view of the candidates for the most succinct theory of the 21st century division of labor including post Fordism flexible accumulation McDonaldization Waltonism Nikeification Gatesism and Siliconism shareholder value and lean production and Toyotism Authors Thomas Janoski and Darina Lepadatu argue that lean production in a somewhat expanded version presents three variations Toyotism the strongest form Nikeification a moderate form with off shored plants lacking teamwork and Waltonism the merchandising form that presses for off shoring While all three share strong elements of just in time JIT production and supply chain management they differ in how teamwork and long term philosophies are valued This critical review of dominant established theories serves to inform subsequent research on the contemporary international division of labor

Forthcoming Books Rose Army,2004 The Teacher and the World David Hansen,2017-07-20 Winner of the 2013 American Educational Studies Association s 2013 Critics Choice Award Teachers the world over are seeking creative ways to respond to the problems and possibilities generated by globalization Many of them work with children and youth from increasingly varied backgrounds with diverse needs and capabilities Others work with homogeneous populations and yet are aware that their students will encounter many cultural changes in their lifetimes All struggle with the contemporary conditions of teaching endless top down measures to manipulate what they do rapid economic turns and inequality in supportive resources that affect their lives and those of their students a torrent of media stimuli that distract educational focus and growth as well as shifts in population In The Teacher and the World David T Hansen provides teachers with a way to reconstruct their philosophies of education in light of these conditions He describes an orientation toward education that can help them to address both the challenges and opportunities thrown their way by a globalized world Hansen builds his approach around cosmopolitanism an ancient idea with an ever present and ever beautiful meaning for educators The idea pivots around educating for what the author calls reflective openness to new people and new ideas and reflective loyalty toward local values interests and commitments The book shows how this orientation applies to teachers at all levels of the system from primary through university Hansen deploys many examples to illustrate how its core value a balance of reflective openness to the new and reflective loyalty to the known can be cultivated while teaching different subjects in different kinds of settings The author draws widely on the work of educators scholars in the humanities and social sciences novelists artists travellers and others from both the present and past as well as from around the world These diverse figures illuminate the promise in a cosmopolitan outlook on education in our time In this pioneering book Hansen has provided teachers heads of school teacher educators researchers and policy makers a generative way to respond creatively to the pressure and the promise of a globalizing world

Cosmopolitan Education and Inclusion Yusef Waghid, Chikumbutso Herbert Manthalu, Judith Terblanche, Faiq Waghid, Zayd Waghid, 2020-03-10 This book expands understanding of cosmopolitan education that has the potential to cultivate deliberative pedagogical encounters in universities The authors argue that cosmopolitan education in itself is an act of engaging with strangeness otherness difference and inclusion exclusion What follows is the engendering of inclusive human encounters in which freedom and rationality guided by co-operative co-existential and oppositional acts of resistance can be exercised The chapters centre around the enactment of universal hospitality unconditional engagement difference intercultural learning democratic justice and openness to develop a robust and reflexive defence of cosmopolitan education This book will appeal to scholars of cosmopolitan education as well as democratic and inclusive education

Cosmopolitanism and the Age of School Reform Thomas S. Popkewitz, 2007

Critical Approaches Toward a Cosmopolitan Education Sandra R. Schecter, Carl E. James, 2021-08-29 This book aims to reconceptualize teaching and learning in spaces with diverse populations of young people Chapters focus on the schooling experiences and social and cultural adaptation issues of individuals who through the meaning that they assign to their lived experiences ascribe to multiple identity qualifiers Contributors explore the impact of this cosmopolitan awareness on students educators and educational institutions presenting issues such as curricular concerns around civic engagement individual subjectivity versus social identity and the convergence of context specific policy and teaching environments on global dynamics in education reform An emphasis on this understanding promises to better equip educators and policy makers to plan instructional approaches and devise pedagogic resources that serve the needs and career aspirations of an expanding cohort of multifaceted learners

Education Without Borders Loshini Naidoo, 2010-10-01

Teaching Cosmopolitanism Through Transnational Literature in English Mirja Beutel, 2018 The book introduces a teaching approach that seeks to prepare students in multicultural EFL classrooms for their role as world citizens The study unfolds the construct cosmopolitan communicative competence to provide a tool for the empirical assessment of students' competences This tool serves to evaluate the potentials of the teaching approach

Cosmopolitan Minds Alexa Weik von Mossner, 2014-01-01 The book explores the role of empathy and emotion in the emergence of cosmopolitan imaginations through the works of a diverse set of American writers who during World War II and the early Cold War period lived in Europe Asia and Africa It draws on theories of emotion and literary imagination from cognitive psychology philosophy and cognitive literary studies to offer a new perspective on the affective and imaginative underpinnings of critical and reflexive cosmopolitanism. It argues that our emotional engagements with others real and imagined are crucially important for the development of cosmopolitan imaginations. The book concentrates on specifically American cosmopolitan imaginations in the mid twentieth century focusing on a core of transnational writers who for various reasons had highly conflicted relationships with the American nation: Kay Boyle, Pearl S. Buck, Richard Wright, William Gardner Smith and Paul Bowles. Their literary works are emotionally powerful indictments of institutionalized racism and national violence inside and outside of the United States at the same time they testify to the complex cosmopolitan identities of their authors. Reading these texts as affective cosmopolitan critiques, the book works out important and complex role played by imaginative and emotional engagements in the development of solidarities that go beyond self, family, community and nation. Reading transnational American literature from a cognitive perspective, the book adds a new dimension to recent work in American literary history that seeks to reconceptualize U.S. literary and cultural production in its global context. At the same time it also widens and deepens the array of literature available to researchers in cognitive literary studies.

Thinking Across Cultures Donald M. Topping, Doris C. Crowell, Victor N. Kobayashi, 2013-09-05. This volume compares and contrasts contemporary theories of cognition, modes of perception and learning from cross cultural perspectives. The participants were asked to consider and assess the question of whether people from different cultures think differently. Moreover they were asked to consider whether the same approaches to teaching and development of thinking will work in all cultures as well as they do in Western literate societies.

Cosmopolitanism and the Literary Imagination C. Patell, 2015-02-19. Through contemporary theories of cosmopolitanism and analyses of literary texts such as Heart of Darkness, Lilith and Moby Dick, this book explores the cosmopolitan impulses behind the literary imagination. Patell argues that cosmopolitanism regards human difference as an opportunity to be embraced rather than a problem to be solved.

Cosmopolitanism: Educational, Philosophical and Historical Perspectives Marianna Papastephanou, 2016-05-05. This volume discusses perspectives on cosmopolitanism as well as concepts and the work of key figures. For example, it examines educational, philosophical and historical perspectives, deals with such issues as citizenship, internationalism, patriotism, globalization, hegemony and many other topics. It brings together works on Alain Badiou, Giorgio Agamben, Ernesto Laclau, Bruno Latour and Homi Bhabha with works on Whitman, Kant, Martha Nussbaum, Thomas Pogge, Onora O'Neill and Philippe Van Parijs. The book engages in the new dialogue on cosmopolitanism from a variety of outlooks. It advances that dialogue and problematizes it through as yet unexplored paths. Its chapters respond to the intricacies of current discourses on cosmopolitanism and related notions and take into account both affirmative and negative stances to cosmopolitanism and its educational significance. Overall, the book relies on such stances as background material in order to transcend them and offer fresh perspectives on cosmopolitan stakes. It makes use of a recent tendency in political, philosophical and cultural critical debates that opens a possibility of more nuanced approaches to old isms Educating for Civic Dialogue in an Age of Uncivil Discourse Dennis Gunn, 2020 Educating for Civic Dialogue in an Age of Uncivil Discourse addresses an urgent challenge to help students learn the skills of civic engagement by offering a framework for authentic cosmopolitan education As an invitation to ongoing civil dialogue with diverse voices in the classroom the book aims to foster the skills of democratic and global citizenship that allow students to find their voice as local national and global citizens outside of the classroom It suggests practical ways that teachers can promote the skills of attentive listening intelligent questioning reasonable positioning and responsible dialogue in order to encourage authentic civic discourse It also outlines specific pedagogical strategies designed to foster students cosmopolitan competencies as democratic and global citizens
