Ecotourism Stephen Wearing, John Neil, 2009 Explores the impact of mainstream tourism and the potential positive social and environmental benefits of ecotourism Ecotourism Third Edition David A. Fennell, 2007-11 Focusing on an array of economic social and ecological inconsistencies that continue to plague ecotourism in theory and practice this book examines ecotourism in reference to other related forms of tourism impacts conservation sustainability education and interpretation policy and governance and the ethical imperative of ecotourism as these apply to the world's greenest form of tourism This revised edition includes new information on the magnitude of the tourism industry nature based tourism and the pros and cons of mass ecotourism revised chapters on development economics marketing policy ecotourism in practice and biodiversity conservation a section on governance models ecotourism programmes operators and guides interpretation certification and ecolodge design a discussion of ecotourism as an ethical or responsible form of tourism approximately 300 new references It includes case studies and considers the perspectives of many adjacent fields including geography economics business philosophy biology and environmental studies Tourism Enterprises and Sustainable Development David Leslie, 2010-03-17 The tourism industry has increasingly recognized and responded to growing environmental concerns In recent years there has been an emergence of a variety of categories of tourism considered more environmentally friendly green eco tourism and sustainable tourism Much of the literature that has addressed these developments has been orientated to the destination locale or specific to a development These texts have not sought to investigate and examine the response of government national tourist organizations to the international sustainability agenda and the responses actions of tourism enterprises to this greening agenda This text aims to address this remarkable gap This indispensable contribution to the field provides a comprehensive state of the art perspective on progress towards the objectives of sustainable development within the tourism sector across the globe by focusing on the environmental performance and adoption of environmental management systems by tourism enterprises Tourism Recreation Research, 2002 Ecotourism Programme Planning David A. Fennell, 2002-01-01 Tourism is the world's largest industry In the past decade it is the natural resource based sector that has experienced the greatest growth In particular adventure cultural and ecotourism ACE tourism for example skiing white water rafting whale watching festivals and fairs This book provides an in depth overview of the different operations of ACE tourism It draws on theory from recreation and leisure studies tourism marketing and environmental management to demonstrate the importance of effective program planning This is especially significant as industry competition becomes more intense in this growth sector Tourism in Destination Communities Shalini Singh, Dallen J. Timothy, Ross Kingston Dowling, 2003 Annotation As a result of the ongoing growth in the tourism industry many destinations around the world are undergoing transformations New destinations are being discovered in regions previously ignored as people search for regions that are yet unspoiled by the ravages of mass tourism At the same time traditional destinations are experiencing rapid environmental socio cultural and economic modifications These changes have the most effect on the destination community the location where tourists spend their time and money and influence development or degradation of the local environment Tourism in Destination Communities describes both the positive and negative effects of tourism on the destination community The chapters are divided into three sections which address the relationship between tourism and the destination community the various impacts of tourism on the destination community and the challenges and opportunities for destination communities Each chapter contains brief case studies and empirical examples Journal of Travel Research ,2004 Bibliographic Index ,2004 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2002 Choice ,2003 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2003 The Ecotourism Boom Elizabeth Boo,Fonds mondial pour la nature. Wildlands and Human Needs Program,World Wildlife Fund,1992 Ecotourism Planning and Management Yaduraj Choudhary,2022 Ecotourism Planning and Management Romila Chawla,2006-01-01 The international ecotourism society in 1990 finally defined ecotourism as responsible travel to natural areas that conserves the environment and improves the well being of local people Ecotourism management and planning establishes strategies programmes and activities for achieving those objectives Aim of this book is to make available to our readers material on different dimensions of ecotourism as well as various aspects which go into its planning and management
