Domestique Charly Wegelius, 2013-06-06 Winner Sweetspot Cycling Book of the Year For 11 years I was a professional cyclist competing in the hardest and greatest races on Earth I was in demand from the world's best teams a well paid elite athlete But I never won a race I was the hired help When my mum dropped me off in a small French town aged 17 I was full of determination to be a professional cyclist but I was completely green I went from mowing the team manager's lawn to winning every amateur race I entered Then I turned pro and realised I hated the responsibility and pressure of chasing victory And that's when I became a domestique I learned to take that hurt and give it everything I had to give all for someone else's win When the order came in to ride I pushed out with the hardest rhythm I could dragging the group faster and faster until my whole body screamed with pain There were times I rode myself to a standstill clutching the barrier metres from the line as the lead group shot past But that's what made me so good at my job As my career took off I started looking at the fans lining the route cheering us like heroes The passion for cycling oozed off them but they couldn't know what it was really like They didn't see the terrible hotels the crazy egos or all the shit that goes with great expectations Well this is how it is
