Charlotte Fiell, Peter Fiell

Domus Geramica In Italie Monthly Magazine Of Architecture Design Art:

Domus, monthly review of architecture interiors design art, 2008 Gio Ponti Lisa Licitra Ponti, Gio Ponti, 1990

This is the first complete survey and thematic profile of one of the most prolific and accomplished Italian architects of the century. From the Richard Ginori chinaware and the founding of Domus magazine in the 1920s and 30s to the Pirelli tower erected in Milan in the 1950s to the facade architecture of the 70s Gio Ponti has been a major force in the shaping of twentieth century Italian design. The Complete Work presents a fully illustrated decade by decade account of Ponti's vast output in interior and industrial design, decorative arts and architecture. It describes his powerful influence on generations of Italian designers, his contributions to Italy's urban culture and his role as a propagandist and editor. Gio Ponti was not only an architect but a poet, painter, polemicist and designer of exhibitions, theater costumes, Venini glassware, Arthur Krupp tableware, Cassina furniture, lighting fixtures and ocean liner interiors. He is perhaps best known as the architect of Milan's Pirelli tower at one time the tallest building in Europe and for his Super leggera chair which was first manufactured in the 50s and has become classic because of its almost universal use in Italian restaurants. Above all, Ponti was responsible for the renewal of Italian architecture and decorative arts. Drawing upon the legacy of the Viennese Secession and the Wiener Werkstatte, he transformed classical language into a rationalist vocabulary. The entire photographic archive of Ponti's studio together with his unpublished writings were made available for the first time for the preparation of this book. There are many new photographs of his work and a broad selection of his letters, diaries and essays. A biographical profile, bibliography and chronologies of works, exhibitions and sales round out this stunning book. Lisa Licitra Ponti is curator of the Ponti Archives. She is also a well-known art and architecture critic. She collaborated with her father from 1940 until his death in 1979.
