Double Native A Moving Memoir About Living Across Two Cultures:

Double Native Fiona Wirrer-George Oochunyung, 2012 Katie is in trouble with the adults in her life More trouble than she has ever been in before Mosquito Advertising is taking up all her time and school seems boring and irrelevant Who needs school when you're running your own advertising agency Katie promises she'll lift her game but things get complicated when Barry Sharp billionaire owner of international airline Blade Air offers Mosquito Advertising his account Katie and her friends are flown to Sydney where everything seems too good to be true How can Katie keep such big news a secret from her mom And what will she do when a local dog food company needs their help Mosquito Advertising starts to crack under the strain as business gets in the way of friendship Katie needs to work out what really matters if she is to save both A Foreign Affair Gerd Gemünden, 2008-04-01 With six Academy Awards four entries on the American Film Institute's list of 100 greatest American movies and more titles on the National Historic Register of classic films deemed worthy of preservation than any other director Billy Wilder counts as one of the most accomplished filmmakers ever to work in Hollywood Yet how American is Billy Wilder the Jewish migrant from Central Europe This book underscores this complex issue unpacking underlying contradictions where previous commentators routinely smoothed them out Wilder emerges as an artist with roots in sensationalist journalism and the world of entertainment as well as with an awareness of literary culture and the avant garde features that lead to productive and often highly original confrontations between high and low DOUBLE NATIVE. FIONA WIRRER-GEORGE. OOOCHUNYUNG, 2015 The Oxford Handbook of Indigenous American Literature James H. Cox, Daniel Heath Justice, 2014-07-31 Over the course of the last twenty years Native American and Indigenous American literary studies has experienced a dramatic shift from a critical focus on identity and authenticity to the intellectual cultural political historical and tribal nation contexts from which these Indigenous literatures emerge The Oxford Handbook of Indigenous American Literature reflects on these changes and provides a complete overview of the current state of the field The Handbook's forty three essays organized into four sections cover oral traditions poetry drama non fiction fiction and other forms of Indigenous American writing from the seventeenth through the twenty first century Part I attends to literary histories across a range of communities providing for example analyses of Inuit Chicana o Anishinaabe and M tis literary practices Part II draws on earlier disciplinary and historical contexts to focus on specific genres as authors discuss Indigenous non fiction emergent trans Indigenous autobiography Mexicanoh and Spanish poetry Native drama in the U S and Canada and even a new Indigenous children's literature canon The third section delves into contemporary modes of critical inquiry to expound on politics of place comparative Indigenism trans Indigenism Native rhetoric and the power of Indigenous writing to communities of readers A final section thoroughly explores the geographical breadth and expanded definition of Indigenous American through detailed accounts of literature from Indian Territory the Red Atlantic the far North Yucat n Amerika Samoa and Francophone Quebec Together the volume is the most comprehensive and expansive critical handbook of Indigenous American literatures published to date It is the first to fully take into account the last twenty years of recovery and scholarship and the first to most significantly address the diverse range of texts secondary archives writing traditions literary histories geographic and political contexts and critical discourses in the field

The Posen Library of Jewish Culture and Civilization, Volume 7 Israel Bartal, Kenneth B. Moss, 2024-01-05 Volume 7 of the Posen Library captures unprecedented transformations of Jewish culture amid mass migration global capitalism nationalism revolution and the birth of the secular self Between 1880 and 1918 traditions and regimes collapsed around the world migration and imperialism remade the lives of millions nationalism and secularization transformed selves and collectives utopias beckoned and new kinds of social conflict threatened as never before Few communities experienced the pressures and possibilities of the era more profoundly than the world's Jews This volume seventh in The Posen Library of Jewish Culture and Civilization recaptures the vibrant Jewish cultural creativity political striving social experimentation and fractious religious and secular thought that burst forth in the face of these challenges Editors Israel Bartal and Kenneth B Moss capture the full range of Jewish expression in a centrifugal age from mystical visions to unabashedly antitraditional Jewish political thought from cookbooks to literary criticism from modernist poetry to vaudeville They also highlight the most remarkable dimension of the 1880 1918 era an audacious effort by newly secular Jews to replace Judaism itself with a new kind of Jewish culture centering on this worldly aesthetic creativity by a posited Jewish nation and the secular modern and free individuals who composed it This volume is an essential starting point for anyone who wishes to understand the divided Jewish present
