Existential Family Therapy Using The Concepts Of Victor Frankl:

Existential Family Therapy James E. Lantz, 1993-08 Existential Family Therapy shows that the function of the therapist is to help the family bring covered and clouded meanings and potential meanings into consciousness and then to help the family make use of what has been discovered in order to enrich family life Theoretical Perspectives for Direct Social Work Practice Nick Coady, 2008 Print CourseSmart Psychosocial Aspects of Disability Irmo Marini, Noreen M. Graf, Michael Millington, 2011-07-27 What a marvelous and amazing textbook Drs Marini Glover Graf and Millington have done a remarkable job in the design of this highly unique book that comprehensively and very thoughtfully addresses the psychosocial aspects of the disability experience These highly respected scholars have produced a major work that will be a central text in rehabilitation education for years to come From the Foreword by Michael J Leahy Ph D LPC CRC Office of Rehabilitation and Disability Studies Michigan State University This is an excellent book but the best parts are the stories of the disabled which give readers insights into their struggles and triumphs Score 94 4 Stars Doody's Medical Reviews What are the differences between individuals with disabilities who flourish as opposed to those who never really adjust after a trauma How are those born with a disability different from individuals who acquire one later in life This is the first textbook about the psychosocial aspects of disability to provide students and practitioners of rehabilitation counseling with vivid insight into the experience of living with a disability It features the first person narratives of 16 people living with a variety of disabling conditions which are integrated with sociological and societal perspectives toward disability and strategies for counseling persons with disabilities Using a minority model perspective to address disability the book focuses on historical perspectives cultural variants regarding disability myths and misconceptions the attitudes of special interest and occupational groups the psychology of disability with a focus on positive psychology and adjustments to disability by the individual and family A wealth of counseling guidelines and useful strategies are geared specifically to individual disabilities Key Features Contains narratives of people living with blindness hearing impairments spinal cord injuries muscular dystrophy polio mental illness and other disabilities Provides counseling guidelines and strategies specifically geared toward specific disabilities including dos and don'ts Includes psychological and sociological research relating to individual disabilities Discusses ongoing treatment issues and ethical dilemmas for rehabilitation counselors Presents thought provoking discussion questions in each chapter Authored by prominent professor and researcher who became disabled as a young adult Spiritual Diversity in Social Work Practice Edward R. Canda, Leola Dyrud Furman, 2010 Weaving together interdisciplinary theory and research as well as the results from a national survey of practitioners the authors describe a spiritually oriented model for practice that places clients challenges and goals within the context of their deepest meanings and highest aspirations Using richly detailed case examples and thought provoking activities this highly accessible text illustrates the professional values and ethical principles that guide spiritually sensitive practice It presents definitions and conceptual models of spirituality and religion draws connections between spiritual diversity and cultural gender and sexual orientation diversity and offers insights from Buddhism Christianity Confucianism Hinduism Indigenous religions Islam Judaism Existentialism and Transpersonal theory Eminently practical it guides professionals in understanding and assessing spiritual development and related mental health issues and outlines techniques that support transformation and resilience such as meditation mindfulness ritual forgiveness and engagement of individual and community based spiritual support systems
