Banished & Embraced Elaine Zorbas, 2015 Chinese from southeast China flocked to towns and encampments in the Sierra Nevada foothills during the Gold Rush to search for gold In the communities they established in Fiddletown and Amador County Chinese immigrants found support and strength despite prevailing anti Chinese prejudice This book gives an insight into their experience as they faced pressures from the greater society while maintaining their customs and connections with each other and with China The story of the Fiddletown Chinese community is told through the lives of the people who lived in its still existing Chinese herb store the Chew Kee Store especially Jimmie Chow the last Chinese person in Fiddletown

Unbounded Dolly Daou, DJ Huppatz, Dinh Quoc Phuong, 2015-06-18 In interior design the definition and popular perception of the interior has long been concerned with bounded spaces and with the relationship between private and public realms However two issues have challenged traditional boundaries between interior and exterior and private and public first the emergence of new technological practices and second a broader understanding of diverse cultures Popular perceptions of public and private space are currently being revised and the interior

Traditional Chinese Toggles Margaret Duda, 2011 This volume is a much needed reference guide to the historical and cultural significance of Chinese toggles or zhuizi carved pieces of jade ivory bone wood shell and semi precious stones used by the Chinese in ancient times as counterweights to secure personal effects like tobacco pipes and money pouches to their belts Over time toggles became treasured objects of identity and expression believed to bring the bearer good luck happiness fertility longevity and health The book explains how toggles were used in daily and ceremonial life and interprets the designs that are fundamental to understanding these artefacts Accompanied by stunning photography and detailed descriptions Traditional Chinese Toggles Counterweights and Charms will be the definitive illustrative guide to this little known Chinese art form Discovering World Religions at 24 Frames Per Second Julien R. Fielding, 2008-09-26 Traditionally university students have gained access to world religions by reading primary texts Discovering World Religions at 24 Frames Per Second takes students beyond the written page offering an exploration of the same religious traditions through the study of feature films The many definitions of religion are examined along with its various components including doctrine myth ethics ritual and symbol Specific religious traditions including Hinduism Sikhism Zoroastrianism Buddhism Confucianism Daoism popular religion and Shinto are examined Biographical sketches of directors whose films tend to focus on a particular religious tradition are also included such as Zhang Yimou Hayao Miyazaki Deepa Mehta and Akira Kurosawa Discovering World Religions at 24 Frames Per Second is unique in the area of religion and film studies in that it isn't just a collection of essays Instead it provides the introductory student with the necessary background information on the various religions before looking at how their ideas can be understood not through texts but through the cinematic medium To keep the conversation fresh most of the films used in the book were made within the last decade Furthermore examples range from popular mainstream fare such as Star Wars and the Lord of the Rings trilogy to lesser known foreign films such as The Wooden Man's Bride and The Great Yokai War Several films with a cult like following are also discussed including Fight Club Princess Mononoke Spirited Away and Jacob's Ladder This book is also unique in that instead of drawing upon the Judeo Christian tradition it draws from Eastern traditions The Beasts, the Graves, and the Ghosts Hann Tzuu Joey Tan, 2020-05-31 At the heart of the gospel is the message of the incarnation God translating himself into the context of human culture and language so we might know him Far from coming to an end with Christ's life on earth this process of contextualization is ongoing reoccurring every time the gospel encounters the particularities of society and culture In this book Hann Tzuu Tan explores the significance of contextualized preaching within the Chinese context Against the backdrop of three major festivals the Spring Festival the Qing Ming Festival and the Hungry Ghost Festival Tan examines the practices of six experienced Chinese preachers in order to demonstrate the theological and practical importance of contextualized preaching As a result of his research Tan suggests six main principles for contextual preaching principles that are rooted within a Chinese context yet applicable to anyone seeking to express the gospel's relevance within a particular cultural setting Combining insights from biblical studies applied theology and ethnography this interdisciplinary study will enrich one's understanding of Chinese culture the gospel and the important and necessary work of contextualization ID, 2003

How, 2003 Power Dressing Chris Hall, Asian Civilisations Museum (Singapore), 2006 The weaving of textiles is an activity that is found in most societies but the domestication of the silkworm and the reeling of the worms filament were undoubtedly of Chinese origin and represents one of the oldest discoveries in the science of textiles The evolution of the Chinese wardrobe especially the wearing of silk is associated with the definition of rank and social status in early Chinese society Drawing on the private collection of Chinese textiles from Chris Hall resident of Hong Kong this publication held in conjunction with an exhibition of the same name showcases the aesthetic sensibilities and sartorial tastes of Chinese fashion across the centuries This lavishly illustrated book includes contributions from experts in the history of silk in China discussion of symbols and motifs in textiles insights into Imperial Court textiles and Buddhist dress as well as a consideration on the preservation of textile collections Straits Chinese Porcelain Ming-Yuet Kee (Datin Seri.),2004
