The Stop Nick Saul, Andrea Curtis, 2013-03-19 FINALIST 2014 Heritage Toronto Award It began as a food bank It turned into a movement In 1998 when Nick Saul became executive director of The Stop the little urban food bank was like thousands of other cramped dreary makeshift spaces a last hope refuge where desperate people could stave off hunger for one more day with a hamper full of canned salt sugar and fat The produce was wilted and the packaged foods were food industry castoffs mislabelled products and misguided experiments that no one wanted to buy For users of the food bank knowing that this was their best bet for a meal was a humiliating experience Since that time The Stop has undergone a radical reinvention Participation has overcome embarrassment and the isolation of poverty has been replaced with a vibrant community that uses food to build hope and skills and to reach out to those who need a meal a hand and a voice It is now a thriving internationally respected Community Food Centre with gardens kitchens a greenhouse farmers markets and a mission to revolutionize our food system Celebrities and benefactors have embraced the vision because they have never seen anything like The Stop Best of all fourteen years after his journey started Nick Saul is introducing this neighbourhood success story to the world In telling the remarkable story of The Stop s transformation Saul and Curtis argue that we need a new politics of food one in which everyone has a dignified healthy place at the table By turns funny sad and raw The Stop is a timely story about overcoming obstacles challenging sacred cows and creating lasting change
