Disrupting the School-to-Prison Pipeline Sofia Bahena, North Cooc, Rachel Currie-Rubin, Paul Kuttner, Monica Ng, 2012-12-01 A trenchant and wide ranging look at this alarming national trend Disrupting the School to Prison Pipeline is unsparing in its account of the problem while pointing in the direction of meaningful and much needed reforms The school to prison pipeline has received much attention in the education world over the past few years A fast growing and disturbing development it describes a range of circumstances whereby children are funneled out of public schools and into the juvenile and criminal justice systems Scholars educators parents students and organizers across the country have pointed to this shocking trend insisting that it be identified and understood and that it be addressed as an urgent matter by the larger community This new volume from the Harvard Educational Review features essays from scholars educators students and community activists who are working to disrupt reverse and redirect the pipeline Alongside these authors are contributions from the people most affected youth and adults who have been incarcerated or whose lives have been shaped by the school to prison pipeline Through stories essays and poems these individuals add to the book s comprehensive portrait of how our education and justice systems function and how they fail to serve the interests of many young people Restorative

Justice in Urban Schools Anita Wadhwa, 2015-11-19 The school to prison pipeline is often the path for marginalized students particularly black males who are three times as likely to be suspended as White students This volume provides an ethnographic portrait of how educators can implement restorative justice to build positive school cultures and address disciplinary problems in a more corrective and less punitive manner Looking at the school to prison pipeline in a historical context it analyzes current issues facing schools and communities and ways that restorative justice can improve behavior and academic achievement By practicing a critical restorative justice educators can reduce the domino effect between suspension and incarceration and foster a more inclusive school climate Black Lives Matter vs. All Lives Matter Abdul Karim

Bangura, 2021-09-20 In the wake of the murder of George Floyd in Minneapolis the debate between proponents of Black Lives Matter and All Lives Matter has been reignited For proponents of Black Lives Matter the slogan All Lives Matter is not a call for inclusiveness but a criticism of the Black Lives Matter movement On the other hand advocates of All Lives Matter insist their slogan is about diversity and colorblindness The contributors included in Black Lives Matter vs All Lives Matter A Multidisciplinary Primer approach the subject from fields as wide ranging as sociology mathematics linguistics business politics and psychology to name a few This collection adds complexity and international perspectives to the debate allowing these seemingly simple quarrels over phrasing to be unpacked from many angles A refreshing variety of looks at one of the defining social movements of the last decade and the reaction to it this collection will be valuable to those seeking to understand these movements in ways beyond how they are typically framed Realistic Strategies That Eradicate the School to Prison Pipeline MDonnell Tenner, 2017-04-24 Realistic Strategies that Eradicate the School to Prison Pipeline is a data driven and applicable ways to keep Black and Latino children from going from school directly to prison This is a NO holds barred litany of answers to the issue Educational Malpractice and the School-To-Prison Pipeline Brandi Blessett, Byron Price, 2015-01 This sobering treatise documents how a flawed and dysfunctional educational system condones racial bias to support the school to prison pipeline as a feeder for adult prisons Test, Punish and Push Out [electronic Resource] ,2010
