Erotic Attunement Parenthood And The Ethics Of Sensuality Between Unequals:

Sensual Mother Christina Traina, 1998-11 Parenting as Spiritual Practice and Source for Theology Claire Bischoff, Elizabeth O'Donnell Gandolfo, Annie Hardison-Moody, 2017-12-13 This volume investigates how mothers can understand parenting as spiritual practice and what this practice means for theological scholarship An intergenerational and intercultural group of mother scholars explores these questions that arise at the intersection of motherhood studies religious practice pastoral care and theology through engaging and accessible essays Essays include both narrative and theological elements as authors draw on personal reflection interviews and or sociological studies to write about the theological implications of parenting practice rethink key concepts in theology and contribute to a more robust account of parenting as spiritual practice from various theological perspectives The volume both challenges oppressive religious images of self sacrificing motherhood and considers the spiritual dimensions of mothering that contribute to women s empowerment and well being It also deepens practical and systematic theologies to include concern for the embodied and everyday challenges and joys of motherhood as it is experienced and practiced in diverse contexts of privilege and marginalization Touching the Unreachable Fusako Innami, 2025-09-30 Fusako Innami offers the first comprehensive study of touch and skinship relationality with the other through the skin in modern Japanese writing The concept of the unreachable that is the lack of characters complete ability to touch what they try to reach for provides a critical intervention on the issue of intimacy Touch has been philosophically addressed in France but literature is an effective or possibly the most productive venue for exploring touch in Japan as literary texts depict what the characters may be concerned with but may not necessarily say out loud Such a moment of capturing the gap between the felt and the said the interaction between the body and language can be effectively analyzed by paying attention to layers of verbalization or indeed translation by characters utterances authors depictions and readers interpretations Each of the writers discussed in this book starting with Nobel prize winner Kawabata Yasunari Tanizaki Jun ichir Yoshiyuki Junnosuke and Matsuura Rieko presents a particular obsession with objects or relationality to the other constructed via the desire for touch In Touching the Unreachable phenomenological and psychoanalytical approaches are cross culturally interrogated in engaging with literary touch to constantly challenge what may seem like the limit of transferability regarding concepts words and practices The book thereby not only bridges cultural gaps beyond geographic and linguistic constraints but also aims to decentralize a Eurocentric hegemony in its production and use of theories and brings Japanese cultural and literary analyses into further productive and stimulating intellectual dialogues Through close readings of the authors treatment of touch Innami develops a theoretical framework with which to examine intersensorial bodies interacting with objects and the environment through touch Theologies of Failure Roberto Sirvent, Duncan B. Reyburn, 2019-03-26 What does failure mean for theology In the Bible we find some unsettling answers to this question We find lastness usurping firstness and foolishness undoing wisdom We discover too a weakness more potent than strength and a loss of life that is essential to finding life Jesus himself offers an array of paradoxes and puzzles through his life and teachings He even submits himself to humiliation and death to show the cosmos the true meaning of victory As David Bentley Hart observes most of us would find Christians truly cast in the New Testament mold fairly obnoxious civically reprobate ideologically unsound economically destructive politically irresponsible socially discreditable and really just a bit indecent By incorporating the work of scholars working with a range of frameworks within the Christian tradition Theologies of Failure aims to offer a unique and important contribution to understanding and embracing failure as a pivotal theological category As the various contributors highlight it is a category with a powerful capacity for illuminating our theological concerns and perspectives It is a category that frees us to see old ideas in a brand new light and helps to foster an awareness of ideas that certain modes of analysis may have obscured from our vision In short this book invites readers to consider how both theology and failure can help us ask new questions discover new possibilities and refuse the ways of the world

Feeling Animal Death ,2019-06-20 The emotional exchange between so called humans and more than human creatures is an overlooked phenomenon in societies characterized by the ubiquitous deaths of animals This text offers examples of people across diverse disciplines and perspectives from biomedical research to black theology to art learning and performing emotions expanding their desires discovering new ways to behave and altering their sense of self purpose and community because of passionate but not romanticized attachments to animals By articulating the emotional ties that bind them to specific animals lives and deaths these authors play host to creaturely ghosts who reorient their world vision and work in the world offering examples of affect and feeling needed to enliven multi species ethics Professional Sexual Ethics Patricia Beattie Jung,Darryl W. Stephens,2013-12-01 Sexual health is an essential part of maintaining professional relationships in ministry Focusing on implications for the practice of ministry this book engages all dimensions of theological education and academic disciplines Each chapter includes an analysis of common ministry situations discussion questions practical guidelines and resources for further study The volume is ideal for use in courses on professional ethics for ministry advanced leadership training and continuing education for clergy New Books on Women, Gender and Feminism ,2014 La mercantilización del sexo: una perspectiva de los márgenes. Concilium 357 (2014) Traina, Cristina,2014-09-01 En la historia documentada el sexo ha tenido siempre una dimensión económica El sexo mercantilizado no es relacional convierte a las personas en bienes intercambiables y explota a quienes tienen menos poder Se necesita afrontar tanto el desafío personal como el estructural Los males sistémicos especialmente los salarios mínimos nos hacen a todos cómplices de la mercantilización de la sexualidad Además las voces y las necesidades de las víctimas de esta mercantilización deben tener prioridad en la lucha contra ella Las víctimas y las potenciales víctimas son aliados capaces de su propia protección
