on Bourdieu's reflexive sociology to move toward a more accurate multidimensional view of racialized peoples' literacy and language practices. To achieve this they first engage in a comprehensive review of literacies, languaging, and a critical sociocultural framework. Then the distinct testimonios of four women underscore this framework in practice followed by action steps for research policy and pedagogy. This book will be of particular interest to literacy and language education researchers.

Resources in Education, 1996-07      Socio-political Aspects of ESL Barbara Burnaby, Alister Cumming, 1992      English in Australia, 1996      English Quarterly, 2003      Writing in a Second Language at the Secondary School Level Rebecca Marie Callahan, 2001      ESL/EFL Teaching Yvonne S. Freeman, David E. Freeman, 1998

As in the original edition the authors provide a readable explanation of second language teaching methodology supported by numerous classroom examples. In addition the new edition includes detailed discussions and examples of EFL teaching as well as many scenarios from ESL classes.

Enhancing English Literacy Skills in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Students Margaret Batten, 1998

Indigenous researchers and researchers from the Australian Council for Educational Research collaborated to report on key aspects arising from the literature review on the teaching of English literacy to Indigenous students includes an annotated bibliography p 206-243

ESL Standards for Pre-K-12 Students Teachers of English to Speakers of Other Languages, 1997

The guide outlines performance standards for each of three broad goals of English as a Second Language teaching in elementary and secondary education. The three goals include use of English to communicate in social settings, use of English to achieve academically in all content areas, and use of English in socially and culturally appropriate ways. Within each of these three goals three more specific performance standards are enumerated. An introductory section explains the rationale, origins, and use of these standards. Subsequent sections, one for each grade group, pre-K, 3, 4, 8, 9, 12, detail appropriate descriptors and progress indicators for each standard for students at that level. In addition, a brief vignette illustrates their use in the classroom and some further discussion follows. A glossary is included and supporting documentation is appended. Contains 57 references.

MSE      ESL Composition Tales Linda Lonon Blanton, Barbara Kroll, 2002

In ESL Composition Tales the leading voices in L2 writing speak openly and honestly about their careers, conveying a sense of collective history, a history of second language teaching and the evolution of ESL. Important insights into teaching and learning are embedded in each story as the authors not only confront the expectations and fears of new teachers but also provoke the assumptions and practices of their more seasoned colleagues. ESL Composition Tales provides real and practical advice and inspiration for writing teachers of all levels of experience. Among the topics in this book are a discussion of the teacher's role as cultural worker and participant in social justice, past and current pedagogical debates in the field, the importance of blending theory and practice, the pursuit and development of a consistently critical and interrogative attitude toward L2 teaching.
