Fixing the Musical

Douglas L. Reside, 2023 Thousands of shows have opened on Broadway Why do we remember some and not others The musical theatre repertory is not composed of titles popular in the theatre but by those with successful cast recordings movie versions or even illegal bootlegs on YouTube The shows audiences know and the texts and music they expect to hear when they attend a production are defined by media consumed at home more than by memories of performances witnessed in the theatre For example author Doug Reside shows that it is no accident that the serious book musical with a fixed score developed in the 1940s when commercially pressed and marketed record albums made it possible to record most of the score of a new musical in a fixed medium And Hamilton a musical with dense lyrics and revolutionary musical style would not have been as easily accessible to world audiences if most hadn't already had the opportunity to learn the score by listening to free digital streams of the original cast recording. The technologies that made these media possible developed concurrently with and shaped the American musical as an art form. Reside uncovers how the affordances and limitations of these technologies established a repertory of titles that are most frequently performed and defined by the texts used in these performances. Fixing the Musical argues that the musicals we most remember are those which most effectively used their era's best recording and distribution technologies to document and share the work with those who would never see the original production on Broadway.

The Complete Book of 1980s Broadway Musicals Dan Dietz, 2016-02-18 For Broadway audiences of the 1980s the decade was perhaps most notable for the so-called British invasion. While concept musicals such as Nine and Stephen Sondheim's Sunday in the Park with George continued to be produced, several London hits came to New York. In addition to shows like Chess, Me and My Girl, and Les Misérables, the decade's most successful composer, Andrew Lloyd Webber, was also well represented by Cats, The Phantom of the Opera, Song + Dance, and Starlight Express. There were also many revivals such as Show Boat and Gypsy, surprise hits The Pirates of Penzance, huge hits 42nd Street, and notorious flops Into the Light, Carrie, and Annie 2. Miss Hannigan's Revenge. In The Complete Book of 1980s Broadway Musicals, Dan Dietz examines in detail every musical that opened on Broadway during the 1980s. In addition to including every hit and flop that debuted during the decade, this book highlights revivals and personal appearance revues with such performers as Sid Caesar, Barry Manilow, Jackie Mason, and Shirley MacLaine. Each entry includes the following information: Opening and closing dates, Plot summaries, Cast members, Number of performances, Names of all important personnel including writers, composers, directors, choreographers, producers, and musical directors, Musical numbers, and the names of performers who introduced the songs, Production data including information about tryouts, Source material, Critical commentary, Tony awards and nominations, Details about London and other foreign productions. Besides separate entries for each production, the book offers numerous appendixes including a discography, filmography, and published scripts, as well as lists of Gilbert and Sullivan operettas, black-themed shows, and Jewish-themed productions. A treasure trove of information, The Complete Book of 1980s Broadway Musicals provides readers with a comprehensive view of each show. This significant resource will be of use to scholars, historians, and casual fans of one of the greatest decades in musical theatre history.

The Complete Book of 1970s Broadway Musicals Dan Dietz, 2015-09-03 The 1970s was an exciting decade for musical theatre. Besides shows from legends Stephen Sondheim, Company, Follies, A Little Night Music, and Sweeney Todd, and Andrew Lloyd Webber's Jesus Christ Superstar and Evita, old-fashioned musicals like Annie and major revivals like No, No, Nanette became hits. In addition to underappreciated shows like Over Here and cult musicals such as The Grass Harp and Mack and Mabel, Broadway audiences were entertained by black musicals on the order of The Wiz and Raisin. In The Complete Book of 1970s Broadway Musicals, Dan Dietz examines in detail every musical that opened on Broadway during the 1970s. In addition to including every hit and flop that debuted during the decade this book highlights revivals and personal appearance revues with such performers as Tony Bennett Lena Horne Bette Midler and Gilda Radner Each entry includes the following information Opening and closing dates Plot summaries Cast members Number of performances Names of all important personnel including writers composers directors choreographers producers and musical directors Musical numbers and the names of performers who introduced the songs Production data including information about tryouts Source material Critical commentary Tony awards and nominations Details about London and other foreign productions Besides separate entries for each production the book offers numerous appendixes including a discography filmography and published scripts as well as lists of Gilbert and Sullivan operettas black themed shows and Jewish themed productions A treasure trove of information The Complete Book of 1970s Broadway Musicals provides readers with a comprehensive view of each show This significant resource will be of use to scholars historians and casual fans of one of the greatest decades in musical theatre history A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum Titus Maccius Plautus, 1991 Applause Libretto Library Book by Burt Shevelove and Larry Gelbart Introduction by Larry Gelbart This brazenly retro Broadway musical inspired by Plautus is as timeless as comedy itself Vincent Canby The New York Times The most urbane and literate musical comedy text ever conceived John Simon New York magazine
