The Karamazov Brothers Fyodor Dostoevsky, 2008-06-12 Dostoevsky's last and greatest novel The Karamazov Brothers 1880 is both a brilliantly told crime story and a passionate philosophical debate. The dissolute landowner Fyodor Pavlovich Karamazov is murdered; his sons, the atheist intellectual Ivan, the hot-blooded Dmitry, and the saintly novice Alyosha, are all at some level involved. Bound up with this intense family drama is Dostoevsky's exploration of many deeply felt ideas about the existence of God, the question of human freedom, the collective nature of guilt, the disastrous consequences of rationalism. The novel is also richly comic: the Russian Orthodox Church, the legal system, and even the author's most cherished causes and beliefs are presented with a note of irreverence, so that orthodoxy and radicalism, sanity and madness, love and hatred, right and wrong are no longer mutually exclusive. Rebecca West considered it the allegory for the world's maturity, but with children to the fore. This new translation does full justice to Dostoevsky's genius, particularly in the use of the spoken word, which ranges over every mode of human expression.

The Brothers Karamazov Fyodor Dostoyevsky, 2024-11-23 The Brothers Karamazov is the final novel by the Russian author Fyodor Dostoyevsky. Dostoyevsky spent nearly two years writing The Brothers Karamazov, which was published as a serial in The Russian Messenger and completed in November 1880. Dostoyevsky intended it to be the first part in an epic story titled The Life of a Great Sinner, but he died less than four months after its publication. The Brothers Karamazov is a passionate philosophical novel set in 19th-century Russia that enters deeply into the ethical debates of God, free will, and morality. It is a spiritual drama of moral struggles concerning faith, doubt, and reason, set against a modernizing Russia. Dostoyevsky composed much of the novel in Staraya Russa, which inspired the main setting Since its publication it has been acclaimed as one of the supreme achievements in literature Although written in the 19th century The Brothers Karamazov displays a number of modern elements Dostoyevsky composed the book with a variety of literary techniques Though privy to many of the thoughts and feelings of the protagonists the narrator is a self proclaimed writer he discusses his own mannerisms and personal perceptions so often in the novel that he becomes a character Through his descriptions the narrator's voice merges imperceptibly into the tone of the people he is describing often extending into the characters most personal thoughts There is no voice of authority in the story see Mikhail Bakhtin's Problems of Dostoyevsky's Poetics for more on the relationship between Dostoyevsky and his characters In addition to the principal narrator there are several sections narrated by other characters entirely such as the story of the Grand Inquisitor and Zosima's confessions This technique enhances the theme of truth making many aspects of the tale completely subjective Dostoyevsky uses individual styles of speech to express the inner personality of each person For example the attorney Fetyukovich based on Vladimir Spasovich is characterized by malapropisms e.g. robbed for stolen and at one point declares possible suspects in the murder irresponsible rather than innocent Several plot digressions provide insight into other apparently minor characters For example the narrative in Book Six is almost entirely devoted to Zosima's biography which contains a confession from a man whom he met many years before Dostoyevsky does not rely on a single source or a group of major characters to convey the themes of this book but uses a variety of viewpoints narratives and characters throughout Major characters Fyodor Karamazov is the father a 55 year old sponger and buffoon who sires three sons during his two marriages He is rumored to have fathered an illegitimate son Pavel Fyodorovich Smerdyakov whom he employs as his servant Fyodor takes no interest in any of his sons who are as a result raised apart from each other and their father The relationship between Fyodor and his adult sons drives much of the plot in the novel Dmitri Fyodorovich Karamazov aka Mitya Mitka Mitenka Mitri is Fyodor Karamazov's eldest son and the only offspring of his first marriage with Adelaida Ivanovna Miusov Dmitri is considered to be a sensualist much like his father spending large amounts of money on nights filled with champagne women and whatever entertainment and stimulation money can buy Dmitri is brought into contact with his family when he finds himself in need of his inheritance which he believes is being withheld by his father He was engaged to be married to Katerina Ivanovna but breaks that off after falling in love with Grushenka Dmitri's relationship with his father is the most volatile of the brothers escalating to violence as he and his father begin fighting over the same woman Grushenka While he maintains a good relationship with Ivan he is closest to his younger brother Alyosha referring to him as his cherub
