A Full-er Gospel?: Pentecostal Proclamation in New Zealand 1990-2008 Linda Flett,2015 This book draws on the belief statements and official publications of Elim and AOG denominations in New Zealand from 1990 to 2008 in order to test the extent to which this conviction was adhered to A statement that In order to reach New Zealand our methods need to change but not our message provides a framing device inviting the reader to explore their responsiveness to aspects of social change within New Zealand before gauging interest in new methodologies known to have impacted Pentecostal churches in New Zealand during this period Actual changes to evangelistic methodology and salvation terminology is presented from the findings of a quantitative study before the salvation message is re examined It will be evident that not only were new methodologies embraced but views on salvation broadened becoming increasingly holistic dynamic and relational

The Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions, Volume V Mark P. Hutchinson,2018-10-17 The five volume Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions series is governed by a motif of migration out of England It first traces organized church traditions that arose in Britain and Ireland as Dissenters distanced themselves from a state church defined by diocesan episcopacy the Book of Common Prayer the Thirty Nine Articles and Royal Supremacy but then follows those traditions as they spread beyond Britain and Ireland and also analyses newer traditions that emerged downstream in other parts of the world from earlier forms of Dissent Secondly it does the same for the doctrines church practices stances toward state and society attitudes toward Scripture and characteristic patterns of organization that also originated in earlier British and Irish dissent but that have often defined a trajectory of influence independent of ecclesiastical organizations The Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions Volume V follows the spatial cultural and intellectual changes in dissenting identity and practice in the twentieth century as these once European traditions globalized While in Europe dissent was often against the religious state dissent in a globalizing world could redefine itself against colonialism or other secular and religious monopolies The contributors trace the encounters of dissenting Protestant traditions with modernity and globalization changing imperial politics challenges to biblical denominational and pastoral authority local cultures and languages and some of the century s major themes such as race and gender new technologies and organizational change In so doing they identify a vast array of local and globalizing illustrations which will enliven conversations about the role of religion and in particular Christianity

Fourth Dimensional Spiritual School David Yonggi Cho,2008-09 A Bible study based upon Cho s 4th Dimensional teachings

The Fourth Dimension Robert Lee Bell,2013-08 Dr Robert Lee Bell s book The Fourth Dimension Truth or Deception is a very well researched and balanced study on the teachings of Yonggi Cho It is indeed a need in this age to explore the dangers of the man centered theology that Apostle Paul warned against in II Timothy 3 1 9 Dr Bell has compared Cho s theology with the Scriptures and it is very clear that Cho s theology is a synthesis of Christianity shamanism and occult practices a deceptive mixture of error and truth which appears Christian Cho takes Scripture out of context and twists it to conform to a preunderstood paradigm
