

Speech Delivered At the Opening Ceremony of the Second Batch Group B 2,500 Volunteer Corps at the NYSC Camp, Ise-Emure on Tuesday October 11, 2011.

PROTOCOLS

It gives me great pleasure to welcome you all to the opening ceremony of another Volunteers training programme, scheduled to run in this camp for the next ten days.

You will recall that we were here between June 24 and July 3, 2011 for the first batch where 2,500 of our youths were engaged. This event would have been held before now but for the need for us to allow our Muslim brothers and sisters to observe the holy month of Ramadan.

Permit me to congratulate the volunteers, their Director General, Board and the Management of the State Job Creation and Employment Agency for being part of this “Rescue Mission”.

The data available about the unemployed phenomenon in Nigeria is scary. The statistician General of the Federation, Mr. Yemi Kale put the number of Nigerians out of job at 32.5 million.

Corroborating his assertion on the menace of unemployment, the Governor of Central Bank of Nigeria, Mallam Sanusi Lamido Sanusi put the youth unemployment rate in Nigeria at 41 percent of the population. You will agree with me that we are sitting on a keg of gun powder if something drastic is not done to stem this tide. We have to combat unemployment especially when we all realize that there is a potent synergy between unemployment and poverty. We must therefore tackle decisively, this menace of unemployment.

It is heart warming to note that all the first batch volunteers have been engaged in different sectors of the state economy. Many were deployed to Ministries/Parastatals, some as Community Development Agents (CDA) and others as pioneer staffs of the State Transport Management Agency.

The agrarian potentials of the state will be revolutionized to accommodate many of our unemployed youths and underemployed adults. Skill upgrading through collaboration with the private sector, NGOs and international organizations will be explored to bring life more abundant to our people.
