Wages Against Artwork Leigh Claire La Berge, 2019-08-23 The last twenty years have seen a rise in the production circulation and criticism of new forms of socially engaged art aimed at achieving social justice and economic equality In Wages Against Artwork Leigh Claire La Berge shows how socially engaged art responds to and critiques what she calls decommodified labor the slow diminishment of wages alongside an increase in the demands of work Outlining the ways in which socially engaged artists relate to work labor and wages La Berge examines how artists and organizers create institutions to address their own and others financial precarity why the increasing role of animals and children in contemporary art points to the turn away from paid labor and how the expansion of MFA programs and student debt helps create the conditions for decommodified labor In showing how socially engaged art operates within and against the need to be paid for work La Berge offers a new theorization of the relationship between art and contemporary capitalism The Art Museum Redefined Johanna K. Taylor, 2019-10-04 This book presents a critical analysis of the power and opportunity created in the implementation of community engaged practices within art museums by looking at the networks connecting art museums to community organizations artists and residents The Art Museum Redefined places the interaction of art museums and urban neighbourhoods as the central focus of the study to investigate how museums and artists collaborate with residents and local community groups Rather than defining the community solely from the perspective of a museum looking out at its audience the research examines the larger networks of art organizing and creative activism connected to the museum that are active across the neighbourhood Taylor s research encompasses the grassroots efforts of local groups and their collaboration with museums and other art institutions that are extending their reach outside their physical walls and into the community This focus on social engagement speaks to recent emphasis in cultural policy on cultural equity and inclusion creative place making and community engagement at neighbourhood and city levels and will be of interest to students scholars and policy makers alike Who Runs the Artworld Brad Buckley, John Conomos, 2017-09-01 Who Runs the Artworld Money Power and Ethics examines the economics and mythologies of today s global artworld It unmask the complex web of relationships that now exist among high profile curators collectors museum trustees and corporate sponsors and the historic and ongoing complicity between the art and money markets The book examines alternative models being deployed by curators and artists influenced by the 2008 global financial crisis and the international socio political Occupy movement with a particular focus on a renewed activism by artists This activism is coupled with an institutional and social critique led by groups such as Liberate Tate the Precarious Workers Brigade and Strike Debt Who Runs the Artworld Money Power and Ethics brings together a diverse range of thinkers who draw on the disciplines of art theory social sciences and cultural economics and curatorship and the lived experience of artists The contributors to this book are in their respective contexts working at the forefront of these compelling issues Popular Mechanics , 2000-01 Popular Mechanics inspires
