Semitic Papyrology in Context Lawrence H. Schiffman, 2003-01-01 This volume brings together studies which relate to the interpenetration of Semitic and Greco Roman traditions of papyrus writing in the antique Middle East The Gospel According to St. John: The Papyri W. J. Elliott, David C. Parker, 1995 This first stage of the IGNTP John provides the evidence of the 23 papyri The material is presented in three ways The first section provides transcriptions of the witnesses with notes recording difficulties and differences from earlier transcriptions The second provides a complete apparatus criticus For each verse there is a record of the extent of the papyri available for it and a list of all divergences from the collating base The third section provides a complete set of plates of all the papyri except p66 and p 75 There is a detailed introduction and there are sections on dating and the comparative extent of the papyri Bringing all this material together for the first time this edition presents a number of new features in the editing of New Testament witnesses Settlement and Urbanization in Early Islamic Palestine, 7th-11th Centuries Hagit Nul, 2022-03-31 This volume follows the changes that occurred in central Palestine during the longue duree between the 7th to the 11th centuries That region offers a unique micro history of the Islamicate world providing the opportunity for intensive archaeological research and rich primary sources Through a careful comparison between the archaeological records and the textual evidence a new history of Palestine and the Islamicate world emerges one that is different than that woven from Arabic geographies and chronicles alone The book highlights the importance of using a variety of sources when possible and examining each type of source in its own context The volume spans ancient technologies and daily life ancient agriculture and the perception of place by ancient authors It also explores the shift of settlements and harbors in central Palestine as well as the gradual development of a new metropolis al Ramla Settlement and Urbanization in Early Islamic Palestine will be of particular interest to students and scholars of the history of Islam or the history of Palestine or anyone working more generally in the methodology of historical research and integrating texts and archaeology Library Journal ,1958 Projecting a New Empire Eugenio Garosi, 2022-04-04 Seventh and eighth century papyri inscriptions and coins constitute the main evidence for the rise of Arabic as a hegemonic language emerging from the complex fabric of Graeco Roman Iranian Late Antiquity This volume examines these sources in order to gauge the social ecology of Arabic writing within the broader late antique continuum Starting from the functional interplay of Arabic with other languages in multilingual archives as well as the mediality of practices of public Arabic writing the study correlates the rise of Arabic as an imperial language to social interactions the negotiation between the Arab Muslim imperial elite and non Arabicized regional elites of the early Islamic empire Using layout formulae and technical terminology to trace common patterns and disruptions across sources from the Atlantic to Central Asia the volume illuminates the distinctive formal varieties of official Umayyad and early Abbasid imperial documents compared to informal Arabic writings as well as to neighboring scribal traditions in other languages The volume connects documentary practices to broader imperial policies opening an unprecedented window into the strategies of governance that lay at the core of the early Islamic empire The New Testament in Greek IV. The Gospel According to St. John
