Except When I Write Reflections Of A Recovering Critic:

Except When I Write Arthur Krystal, 2011-06-01 When cultural critics with such wildly divergent views as Jacques Barzun Christopher Hitchens Joseph Epstein Dana Gioia and Morris Dickstein all agree about the merits of one contemporary essayist shouldn't you find out why I never think except when I sit down to write Attributed to Montaigne by Edgar Allan Poe From Montaigne in the sixteenth century to Orwell Eliot and Trilling in the twentieth the best literary essayists combine a gift for observation with an abiding commitment to books Although it may seem that books are becoming less essential and that a revolution in sensibility is taking place the essays of Arthur Krystal suggest otherwise Companionable without being chummy engaged without being didactic erudite without being stuffy he demonstrates that literature even in the digital age remains the truest expression of the human condition Covering subjects as diverse as aphorisms dueling the night and the 1960s the essays gathered here offer the common reader uncommon pleasure In prose that is both vibrant and elegant Krystal negotiates among myriad subjects from historical writing as exemplified by Jacques Barzun to the art of screenwriting as not so happily represented by F Scott Fitzgerald His cardinal rule as a writer William Hazlitt's Confound it man don't be insipid No fear of that Except When I Write is thoughtful in the most joyful sense brimming with ideas in order to give us the flow and cadence of someone actually thinking Keenly observant and death on pretension Krystal examines the world of books without ever losing sight of the world beyond them Literature may be the bedrock on which these essays rest but as F R Leavis aptly noted One cannot seriously be interested in literature and remain purely literary in interests Except When I Write is a reminder of both the pleasure and the power of a well-tuned essay Artificial Color Catherine Keyser, 2019 This book examines how modern US writers used the changing geographies, regimens and technologies of modern food to reimagine racial classification and to question its relationship to the mutable body By challenging a cultural ideal of purity this literature proposes that racial whiteness is perhaps the most artificial color of them all The Writers Directory, 2013 Autobiographical Biblical Criticism, 2019-05-21 The autobiographical turn in biblical criticism reveals the interpreter's I and reclaims it as an essential critical category issuing a challenge to traditional objective criticism Pioneers in the field have contributed essays both practical and theoretical They offer stimulating autobiographical readings of Hebrew Bible and New Testament texts and address hermeneutical issues that are at stake in this young field of criticism
