Exegeting City Church Planting Metrospiritual:

Exegeting the City Sean Benesh, 2015-12-11 As the tide has turned and a wave of church planters have washed up on the shorelines of city centers many are learning to navigate the intricacies of urban life for the first time Many of today's North American church planters are migrating in from the suburbs smaller cities and rural towns as they are confronted with a culture lifestyle and built environment that is more foreign than they thought or would admit What do church planters need to know about the city in order to be effective Exegeting the City was written for you the church planter to expand your understanding of the city This will aid you in the process of contextualization as you discern how to embody teach and proclaim the Gospel in the city Besides your city needs you to do this Throughout the book you will be exposed to different trends that are reshaping the city both in culture and urban form This in turn influences how people experience and live in the city which then has direct bearing in how you plant a church Exegeting the city today is of critical importance

Metrospiritual Sean Benesh, 2011-02-24 Metrospiritual The Geography of Church Planting is about church planting in the city There is an outpouring of new expressions of church being started throughout metro areas across North America Where are these new churches being started Maybe a more subterranean question is Why Why are churches being started where they are and why is there is a bias towards one part of the city and an overall neglect of other parts Metrospiritual explores these questions and more as it builds off of recent research and surveys of hundreds of church planters in seven large cities in the United States and Canada There is a deeper look at pivotal issues such as gentrification the Creative Class community transformation urban renewal and the role new churches play in all of these The Multi-Nucleated Church Sean Benesh, 2015-01-18 For too long church planting literature and training has been primarily focused on starting churches in low density parts of our cities predicated upon auto based commuting patterns However the reality of the global city is that millions upon millions of people worldwide do not live that kind of lifestyle Rather life revolves around getting from Point A to Point B via on foot bicycle or public transportation What would church planting then look like with those common transportation realities Instead of basing strategies and methodologies on a car based lifestyle The Multi Nucleated Church reduces the scale to walkable neighborhoods districts city centers and central cities The common denominator is truly high density urban contexts The Multi Nucleated Church explores the theoretical framework of constructing an ecclesiology that finds its home in the multi nucleated high density mega global city Urban Church Planting Stephen M.

Davis, 2019-11-12 For the last couple decades urban church planting has been all the rage This has been a blessing for the city This has also been a curse for many who sensed a call saw a need and left for a life of adventure only to leave the city after a short time Many left behind no church and live with memories of failure and frustration They were eager well supported not a little naive and unprepared for life and ministry in the city Urban church planting is not for everyone It is not more important than church planting elsewhere But if you believe God has called you to urban ministry read this book before you go It is written by a city guy freed from the romanticism often associated with planting churches in the city If after reading this you still believe God is calling you to the city then by all means go If not know that God can use you elsewhere

City Shaped Churches Linda Bergquist, Michael D Crane, 2018-09-04 Yes there certainly are many obstacles to urban church planting The challenge of refraining from insisting on suburban models for urban settings the soaring cost of living expenses in global urban settings the challenges inherent in diverse over homogenous contexts the continual shifting of people moving in and out of cities the multiplicity of global religions and worldviews these things can sometimes seem formidable However God who loves cities and the promise of Kingdom come are truly worth the struggle Our urban church planting work will be more effective if it is intentional about being both responsive to what is going on around us and in the world and proactive to the possibilities God has placed before us It is Linda and Michael s hope that this book will help its readers become more willing to experiment and more willing to be hopeful about the possibility for starting thousands and thousands of vibrant urban churches

Urban Ministry Manuel Ortiz, Harvie M. Conn, 2025-06-06 No 3 in the Academy of Parish Clergy Top Ten Books of the Year The city presents serious challenges that cry out for answers poverty racism human exploitation and government corruption How can the church move ahead in the midst of these demands with the gospel of hope Here in one comprehensive volume Harvie Conn and Manuel Ortiz two noted scholars and proven practitioners of urban ministry address the vital work of the church in the city Their dual goal to understand the city and God's work in it Through four great waves of development Conn and Ortiz trace the history of the city around the world Then they tackle the critical issue of a biblical basis for urban mission How does the Bible view the city Are we closer to God in the country than the city Does the Bible have an anti urban bias These questions are given a thorough analysis that unveils God's urban mandate as reflected in both Old and New Testaments From this foundation the authors unpack the multifaceted nature of the city as place as process as center as power and as a place of change and stability They move us beyond fragmented stereotypes to a new way of seeing that is holistic enough for a fully biblical ministry to develop In addition Conn and Ortiz lay out what the social sciences have to offer urban mission including ethnographic and demographic studies and they focus on the particular issues and needs of urban leadership including a plan for developing and mentoring leaders while equipping the laity for ministry in the city This is the essential text for bringing God's kingdom to the city through the people of God

Aaron B. Coe, 2012 This thesis looks at the missiological implications of church planting in global cities Chapter 1 introduces the main argument for this thesis that all evangelism strategies should hold church planting as the end goal and that the most strategic places to implement these strategies are our global cities as evidenced by what has happened in New York City The chapter will begin with a look at the significant movement that has happened in Manhattan over a twenty year period 1990 2010 with the evangelical population of the city growing from less than one percent evangelical to now more than three percent An introduction to the definition of global cities will segue into a look at the imperative for church planting initiatives in these cities Chapter 2 will offer a deeper study of the characteristics of a global city and the missiological significance of such cities It will explore world urbanization in light of the fact that over 50 percent of the world now lives in cities The strategic nature of the cities will be analyzed given the influence that global cities have on the culture of the rest of the world Finally New York City will be shown as a global city and its significance on the missiological landscape will be highlighted Chapter 3 provides a history of some of the major New York City church planting initiatives Specifically it will review the church planting history of Concerts of Prayer and the Church Multiplication Alliance Timothy Keller and Redeemer Presbyterian
