Existential and Spiritual Issues in Death Attitudes Adrian Tomer, Grafton Eliason, Paul T. P. Wong, 2008 In this new volume death is treated both as a threat to meaning and as an opportunity to create meaning Existential and Spiritual Issues in Death Attitudes Adrian Tomer, Grafton T. Eliason, Paul T. P. Wong, 2007-06-12 Existential and Spiritual Issues in Death Attitudes provides an in depth examination of death attitudes existentialism and spirituality and their relationships a review of the major theoretical models clinical applications of these models to issues such as infertility bereavement anxiety and suicide and an introduction to meaning management theory and how it can be applied to grief counseling In this new volume death is treated both as a threat to meaning and as an opportunity to create meaning The first section introduces theory and methodology to connect the latest empirical research on death attitudes to the philosophical psychological existential and spirituality literature Part II presents the latest empirical research on subjects such as end of life decisions and living with HIV The final section considers therapeutic applications to issues including suicide infertility bereavement and anxiety The concluding chapter highlights the book s common themes and provides questions to encourage further investigation of the most critical topics Psychologists counselors social workers physicians nurses and religious leaders as well as academics in the fields of psychology gerontology philosophy religion counseling social work sociology and medicine will value this new resource Main points summarize important ideas of each chapter making it an appropriate text in courses on death and dying and or and spirituality Its clinical applications will appeal to practicing professionals Death Attitudes and the Older Adult Adrian Tomer, 2018-10-24 This innovative and informative new text bridges the fields of gerontology and thanatology Aging in America, 2010 The Dying Soul Mark Cobb, 2001 Holistic models of palliative care frequently refer to spirituality as an important element But what is meant by spirituality and how do we provide spiritual care This work looks at how it is experienced and expressed in terminal care Death, Mourning and Caring Robert L. Marrone, 1997 This text while strongly academic comprehensive practical and contemporary offers an exceptionally warm and personalized writing style appropriate to the subject matter It offers both a multi disciplinary approach and a cross cultural perspective Unique Caring Insight feature supplies practical helpful tips for the reader Chapter 12 Resources is a comprehensive guide to organizations periodicals books and Web sites The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2009 Death Anxiety and Religious Belief Jonathan Jong, Jamin Halberstadt, 2016-08-25 There are no atheists in foxholes or so we hear The thought that the fear of death motivates religious belief has been around since the earliest speculations about the origins of religion There are hints of this idea in the ancient world but the theory achieves prominence in the works of Enlightenment critics and Victorian theorists of religion and has been further developed by contemporary cognitive scientists Why do people believe in gods Because they fear death Yet despite the abiding appeal of this simple hypothesis there has not been a systematic attempt to evaluate its central claims and the assumptions underlying them Do human beings fear death If so who fears death more religious or nonreligious people Do reminders of our mortality really motivate religious belief Do religious beliefs actually provide comfort against the inevitability of death In Death Anxiety and Religious Belief Jonathan Jong and Jamin Halberstadt begin to answer these questions drawing on the extensive literature on the psychology of death anxiety and religious belief from childhood to the point of death as well as their own experimental research on conscious and unconscious fear and faith In the course of their investigations they consider the history of ideas about religion s origins challenges of psychological measurement and the very nature of emotion and belief

Spiritual, Ethical, and Pastoral Aspects of Death and Bereavement Gerry R. Cox, Ronald J. Fundis, 1992 Addresses a range of topics relevant to the debates regarding dying and death and the subtleties nuances and complexities accompanying these phenomena This work contains chapters that offer a substantial contribution in assisting care givers in arriving at acceptable ethical positions in their pastoral counseling medical and mortician roles Bibliographic Index, 2010

Negotiating Death in Contemporary Health and Social Care Margaret Holloway, 2007 This book brings together perspectives from social science health care and pastoral theology looking at the way death is handled in contemporary society and the sensitive ethical and practical dilemmas facing nurses social workers doctors and chaplains The Science of Religion, Spirituality, and Existentialism Kenneth E. Vail III, Clay Routledge, 2020-04-04 The Science of Religion Spirituality and Existentialism presents in depth analysis of the core issues in existential psychology their connections to religion and spirituality e g religious concepts beliefs identities and practices and their diverse outcomes e g psychological social cultural and health Leading scholars from around the world cover research exploring how fundamental existential issues are both cause and consequence of religion and spirituality informed by research data spanning multiple levels of analysis such as evolution cognition and neuroscience emotion and motivation personality and individual differences social and cultural forces physical and mental health among many others The Science of Religion Spirituality and Existentialism explores known contours and emerging frontiers addressing the big question of why religious belief remains such a central feature of the human experience Discusses both abstract concepts of mortality and concrete near death experiences Covers the struggles and triumphs associated with freedom self regulation and authenticity Examines the roles of social exclusion experiential isolation attachment and the construction of social identity Considers the problems of uncertainty the effort to discern truth and reality and the challenge to find meaning in life Discusses how the mind developed to handle existential topics how the brain and mind implement the relevant processes and the many variations and individual differences that alter those processes Delves into the psychological functions of religion and science the influence on pro and antisocial behavior politics and public policy and looks at the role of spiritual concerns in understanding the human body and maintaining physical health Social Work Practice with the Terminally Ill Joan K. Parry, 1990 Dying, Death, and Bereavement George E. Dickinson, Michael R. Leming, 2006-03 Provides access to articles selected from the public press This book includes an annotated listing of selected World Wide Web sites an annotated table of contents a topic guide a general introduction overviews for each section a topical index and an instructor s resource guide with testing materials HIV/AIDS at Year 2000 Vincent J. Lynch,2000 The author proposes that In order to practice competently all social workers need to have a grounding in HIV issues so they can serve those populations at risk This book provides that grounding Offering cutting edge information about HIV AIDS it shows how the disease affects communities and how social workers work within those communities and with those affected with HIV AIDS It brings together the latest medical psychosocial and values and ethics issues around HIV through vignettes that illustrate the problems and challenges social workers face Dr Lynch and a number of contributors are recognized national leaders in HIV AIDS in social work The book begins by discussing the key medical psychosocial and ethical contexts within which social work with HIV AIDS clients takes place then looks at who in the U S today is most impacted by the disease Taking an ecosystem perspective it examines in particular how the epidemic has ravaged poor communities and communities of color Finally the various roles of the social worker are presented including prevention social advocacy and policy issues treatment mental health issues bereavement and spirituality For social workers related professionals and community leaders working with populations at risk American Book Publishing Record ,2007

The Top Books of the Year Existential And Spiritual Issues In Death Attitudes The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Existential And Spiritual Issues In Death Attitudes : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
