Teaching and Learning the Difficult Past Magdalena H. Gross, Luke Terra, 2018-12-07 Building upon the theoretical foundations for the teaching and learning of difficult histories in social studies classrooms this edited collection offers diverse perspectives on school practices curriculum development and experiences of teaching about traumatic events Considering the relationship between memory history and education this volume advances the discussion of classroom based practices for teaching and learning difficult histories and investigates the role that history education plays in creating and sustaining national and collective identities

Conflicts in History Education in Europe Ander Delgado, Andrew Mycock, 2023-07-01 The heightened resonance of identity driven politics in many states across twenty first century Europe emphasizes the critical role of history in shaping public contestation of the idea of the nation and accordant manifestations of nationalism and national identity How the past is interpreted or what and how is remembered has proven increasingly febrile contentious and divisive Debates about history have gone beyond academia and have permeated and polarised politics and society in many European countries Intense debate and dispute about national history and culture has often focused on the history teaching in schools colleges and universities According to the aforementioned it is evident that the teaching of history in the classroom is a relevant topic within the educational system For this reason it is not surprising that many times the choice of what kind of history to teach becomes a controversial topic The existence in a given society of different visions about the nation or the various responses proposed to face the social challenges existing in it immigration independence nationalisms can turn the teaching of history into a debated and controversial topic Logically depending on the specific political context of each country this debate can acquire different developments and characteristics The school is not an institution isolated from its socio political context In fact both areas constantly interact Therefore this book proposes an approach to this topic that tries to connect the specific political context of different countries with the debates about education and history teaching from 1990 until the present It deals with the extent to which the social and political context affects the history teaching practice developed in the classrooms through the decisions made on the official curricula and textbooks Emphasizing this connection between both aspects is one of the strengths of this book That is the reason why this book proposes an approach to that reality from diverse points of view and show the different materializations observed in this area in the studied cases The chapters of this volume allow us to verify this heterogeneous reality and help enrich our knowledge on this broad and interesting topic

Echoing Events Tina van der Vlies, 2022-12-12 Echoing Events questions the perpetuation actualization and canonization of national narratives in English and Dutch history textbooks wide reaching media that tendentially inspire a sense of meaning memory and thus also identity The longitudinal study begins in the 1920s when the League of Nations launched several initiatives to reduce strong nationalistic visions in textbooks and ends in the new millennium with the revival of national narratives in both countries The analysis shows how and why textbook authors have narrated different histories which vary in terms of context epoch and place as echoing events by using recurring plots and the same combinations of historical analogies This innovative and original study thus investigates from a new angle the resistance of national narratives to change      The Multicultural Dimension Of The National Curriculum Anna King, Michael Reiss, 2020-07-24 Given the National Curriculum Council's failure to issue any formal guidance on the subject multicultural education is becoming increasingly marginalized and left to individual schools This book provides guidance and advice to schools on issues of racial equality and cultural diversity It helps teachers managers and governors implement the requirements and expectations of new educational legislation since the 1988 Education Reform Act and its associated non statutory advice and guidance Within a whole school curriculum framework chapters provide analysis and practical guidance for each subject area of the National Curriculum With responsibility for multicultural education resting largely on individual schools this book sets out to aid schools of all kinds primary secondary grant maintained and LEA to ensure that issues of racial equality and cultural diversity are addressed throughout the whole curriculum It is aimed at teachers at all levels Heads of Education Departments Mentors Governors Advisers INSET course tutors students on PGCE BEd MEd courses and those doing a BA in Education      Problems and Prospects in European Education Francois Orivel, Jürgen Schriewer, Elizabeth S. Swing, 2000-06-30 Written by scholars and professionals from such organizations as the Council of Europe and the European Community this volume provides a comprehensive examination of education throughout Europe The particularities of national educational systems are of necessity within its purview but overall organization of the volume reflects such thematic and regional concerns as the impact of social and economic integration on education the modification of educational structures and curricula following the demise of communism in Eastern Europe degree equivalency the financing of educational change privatization the impact of migration and immigration national concerns intercultural education and multiculturalism The volume's experts discuss European education's common heritage and the distinct national traditions it preserves They deal with the interpretations of European education systems put forward in the shape of educational theories or reform oriented programs policies and ideologies as well as with the social actors forces and movements that have fuelled reform The book's chapters also address the challenges European education has to face as a consequence of processes of change occurring at multiple levels at the levels of cultural values socio political reconstruction intercultural migration supra national integration and ongoing global interconnection      Liberating the National History Curriculum Josna Pankhania, 2017-11-01 Once there were bards who sang the songs which kept the listeners in touch with their past They reminded them of the heroes who once walked among them and whose legacy provided a sense of shared greatness and national identity Later the bards became historians and history teachers and English history became a glorious roll call of those who had gone out and created an Empire and at the same time spread education and enlightenment But recent doubts have raised questions about partiality and perhaps there were losses suffered by the Empire's people Perhaps their heritage should be our heritage and therefore a fit subject for history to deal with Originally published in 1994 this book argues that the curriculum can be legitimately used to teach students the history of oppressed groups It is important to note that Pankhania manages to do this not in a divisive spirit but with the intent to seek unity for the future by understanding and accepting the positive and negative aspects of a collective past      The Local Historian ,1990 Issues for autumn 1961 include the Standing Conference for Local History Bulletin      Challenging Gender Stereotypes in Education Karen Jones,2020-05-04 Gender stereotypes are prevalent in education as is all spheres of society Gender stereotypes squash talent limit educational experiences and achievement and corrode aspirations which in turn can limit professional opportunities and prospects This book supports you to recognise and challenge gender stereotypes in educational settings and in your own practice It includes practical guidance and strategies      Goldmine David Brown,2019-07-23 First published in 1995 this volume uncovered a wealth of low cost good quality material for use in the classroom Author David Brown has been teaching in primary middle and secondary schools for 23 years It was through David s need to resource topics that he uncovered this material Goldmine places these resources into topic areas describes them and tells you where you can get them from Since the first edition in 1985 Goldmine has developed into the country s leading directory of free and sponsored teaching resources providing the wherewithal to obtain over 6000 resources from some 235 suppliers Budget conscious schools will find it saves its purchase price many times over and parents and teachers are safe in the knowledge that all the items described in here are personally recommended by a teacher the compiler himself      Historical Abstracts ,1991      Oral History ,1991      Expansion, Trade and Industry, 1750-1900 John F. Aylett,1993 Examines the major social economic political and cultural themes between 1750 and 1900 Living and working conditions are looked at in detail as is the political development of Britain from the popular protest movements to the extension of the franchise in the Reform Acts of the 19th century      The Software Encyclopedia ,1988      Atlas of World History Patrick Karl O'Brien,Patrick O'Brien,2002 Synthesizing exceptional cartography and impeccable scholarship this edition traces 12 000 years of history with 450 maps and over 200 000 words of text 200 illustrations      Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998      Special Curricula Needs Keith Bovair,Barry Carpenter,Graham Upton,1992 This work offers useful information guidance and advice on special curricular needs      History Computer Review ,1998      The Multimedia and CD-ROM Directory ,1998      The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1996      The CD-ROM Directory 1996 Jim Ayre,Jane Callaghan,Signe Hoffos,1996 This 15th edition of a yearly report provides a guide to all CD ROM and multimedia titles published In addition to a full description of each title the book contains the names and addresses of all the publishers and information providers
