Expect More Demanding Better Libraries For Todays Complex World:

Expect More R. David Lankes, 2015-12-28 Libraries have existed for millennia but today many question their necessity In an ever more digital and connected world do we still need places of books in our towns colleges or schools If libraries aren't about books what are they about In Expect More David Lankes winner of the 2012 ABC CLIO Greenwood Award for the Best Book in Library Literature walks you through what to expect out of your library Lankes argues that communities need libraries that go beyond bricks and mortar and beyond books We need to expect more out of our libraries They should be places of learning and advocates for our communities in terms of learning privacy intellectual property and economic development Expect More is a rallying call to communities to raise the bar and their expectations for great libraries The New Librarianship Field Guide R. David Lankes, 2016-05-13 How librarians can be radical positive change agents in their communities dedicated to learning and making a difference This book offers a guide for librarians who see their profession as a chance to make a positive difference in their communities librarians who recognize that it is no longer enough to stand behind a desk waiting to serve R David Lankes author of The Atlas of New Librarianship reminds librarians of their mission to improve society by facilitating knowledge creation in their communities In this book he provides tools arguments resources and ideas for fulfilling this mission Librarians will be prepared to become radical positive change agents in their communities and other readers will learn to understand libraries in a new way The librarians of Ferguson Missouri famously became positive change agents in August 2014 when they opened library doors when schools were closed because of civil unrest after the shooting of an unarmed teen by police Working with other local organizations they provided children and their parents a space for learning lunch and peace But other libraries serve other communities students faculty scholars law firms in other ways All libraries are about community writes Lankes that is just librarianship In concise chapters Lankes addresses the mission of libraries and explains what constitutes a library He offers practical advice for librarian training provides teaching notes for each chapter and answers Frequently Argued Questions about the new librarianship Better Library and Learning Space Les Watson, 2013-10-12 What are the most important things a 21st century library should do with its space Each chapter in this cutting edge text addresses this critical question capturing the insights and practical ideas of leading international librarians educators and designers to offer you a creative resource bank that will help to transform your library and learning spaces This is an innovative and practical toolkit introducing concepts drawing together opinions and encouraging new ways of thinking about library learning spaces for the future The book is structured in three parts Part 1 Projects and trends describes features of library space around the world through a selection of focused case studies painting a global picture identifying common directions and ideas as well as highlighting country and regional diversity Part 2 Trends and ideas looks at the why and how of library space covering topics such as contextual factors current ideas in library space development and the creative design of new spaces It examines how library spaces are adapting to new forms of learning digital literacies and technological fluency Finally Part 3 Ideas and futures looks to the future of libraries and their learning spaces inviting future scanning contributions from a diverse range of authors including librarians learning specialists academics architects an interior designer a furniture designer and a management specialist Readership This is a must have text for those involved in designing and developing library and learning spaces from library and university management to designers and architects It s also a useful guide for students taking courses in library and information science to get to grips with the importance of library design Information Ethics, Globalization and Citizenship Toni Samek, Lynette Shultz, 2017-04-10 The boundaries of citizenship have been blurred by global information systems while the public and private spheres have been reshaped through globalization and colonialism and capitalism This collection of new essays explores information and citizenship in the digital age from a range of perspectives presenting cautionary tales along with possibilities for decolonizing digital information and literacy Topics include Wikileaks and the dissolution of information ethical issues for teachers policy makers and librarians and creating safe spaces through ethical librarianship
