The African American Experience in Cyberspace Abdul Alkalimat, 2003-12-20 The World Wide Web is the greatest source of information used by students and teachers media and library professionals as well as the general public There is so great a flow of information that it is necessary to have a tool for guiding one to the best and most reliable sources This important new guide to the African American experience in cyberspace fills this need for people in all areas of Black Studies and Multiculturalism There is no search engine list that can match the quality of sites to be found in this book Alkalimat provides an easy to use directory to the very best websites that deal with the African American Experience The first section covers every aspect of African American history while a second section deals with a diverse set of topics covering society and culture Each chapter has a brief essay extensively annotation on the five best sites for each topic and then a group of good sites and a short bibliography This book is designed for a course at the high school or college level This book should be kept near every home computer that people use to surf the web for Black content Most people have found out that the major corporations and governments have been the dominant uploaders of information into cyberspace This volume is different because it is a serious introduction to the full democratic use of the web These websites will introduce people to the people who are serious about ending the digital divide because they are busy uploading information about the most excluded and marginalized people the African American community Many of these sites are being established by Black Studies academic programmes as well as community based organizations and institutions Nigeria's 2019 Democratic Experience Egodi Uchendu, Olawari D. J.

Egbe, 2022-06-06 Nigeria's democratisation efforts since attaining political independence from Britain have been tumultuous and have spanned over three successive republics A persistent bug decimating Nigeria's democracy and repeatedly leading to military coups has been brazen electoral violence perpetrated by the nation's political elite Nigeria's 2019 Democratic Experience analyses and explains what went wrong in Nigeria's experiment with democracy Nigeria Africa's most populous nation and the world's seventh most populous nation also contributes 70% of West Africa's population She is sub-Saharan Africa's largest oil producer and has remained Africa's largest economy by GDP since 2014 The country has hundreds of diverse ethnic nationalities and languages grouped into 36 states or federating units and an independent federal capital territory Though recognized as Africa's largest democracy her democratisation process since the 1960s has remained tumultuous with massive electoral violence and political intolerance This repeatedly compelled the military to intervene in the nation's political history in the years 1966 1983 and 1985 It is these developments that provided the motivation for this volume to capture for posterity the conduct of the 2019 General Elections in Nigeria The Routledge History Handbook of Gender and the Urban Experience Deborah Simonton, 2017-02-03 Play thrills danger and excitement Arab-Islamic Education Systems in the Experience of Migrants and Refugees in Europe Sara Mazzei, 2025-03-15 In the last decade Europe has welcomed numerous migrants and refugees from Arab countries Their scholastic inclusion has been challenging and the teaching staff had to sometimes deal with unfamiliar realities The issue has been addressed by various perspectives from sociology to psychology insights from which are gathered in intercultural education In it there are scarcity of studies that delve into pupils cultural backgrounds and countries of origin's history is seldom regarded as a decisive factor in the formation of identity Among Arabic speaking communities the Moroccan and Syrian ones are the most significant and Morocco and Syria have interesting histories and education systems Using Nussbaum's 2010 multifactorial analysis this research aims to better understand the educational universe where Arabic speaking pupils come from focusing on humanities and religious education in the experience of pupils especially from Morocco and Syria Methodology comprehends qualitative empirical research conducted in Europe Results show the differences experienced by pupils in their educational paths among diverse Arab and European countries and the more sensitive topics they encounter in their education in Europe in relation to their identity Culture, Precepts, and Social Change in Southeastern Nigeria Apollos O. Nwauwa, Ogechi E.

Anyanwu, 2019-10-24 This book provides a unique insight into understanding the Igbo social economic and political world through comprehensive analyses of indigenous and foreign religious practices issues surrounding women literature language sexism in musical lyrics films and community development and government It also explores thought provoking cultural practices relating to marriage and divorce reincarnation naming and masquerade dance The themes covered in the book help readers appreciate the often neglected multifaceted local and external forces that continue to shape the Igbo experience in southeastern Nigeria
