Appetites Lisa Maree Heldke, 2003 Exotic Appetites is a far reaching exploration of what Lisa Heldke calls food adventuring the passion fashion and pursuit of experimentation with ethnic foods The aim of Heldke s critique is to expose and explore the colonialist attitudes embedded in our everyday relationship and approach to foreign foods Exotic Appetites brings to the table the critical literatures in postcolonialism critical race theory and feminism in a provocative and lively discussion of eating and ethnic cuisine Chapters look closely at the meanings and implications involved in the quest for unusual restaurants and exotic dishes related restaurant reviews and dining guides and ethnic cookbooks Shooting the Family

Patricia Pisters, Wim Staat, 2005 Shooting the Family a collection of essays on the contemporary media landscape explores ever changing representations of family life on a global scale The contributors argue that new recording technologies allows families an unusual kind of freedom until now unknown to define and respond to their own lives and memories Recently released videos made by young migr s as they discover new homelands and resolve conflicts with their parents for example reverberate alongside the dark portrayals of family life in the formal filmmaking of Ang Lee This book will be a boon to scholars of film theory and media studies as well as to anyone interested in the construction of the family in a postmodern world The SAGE Encyclopedia of Food Issues Ken Albala, 2015 The SAGE Encyclopedia of Food Issues explores the topic of food across multiple disciplines within the social sciences and related areas including business consumerism marketing and environmentalism In contrast to the existing reference works on the topic of food that tend to fall into the categories of cultural perspectives this carefully balanced academic encyclopedia focuses on social and policy aspects of food production safety regulation labeling marketing distribution and consumption A sampling of general topic areas covered includes Agriculture Labor Food Processing Marketing and Advertising Trade and Distribution Retail and Shopping Consumption Food Ideologies Food in Popular Media Food Safety Environment Health Government Policy and Hunger and Poverty This encyclopedia introduces students to the fascinating and at times contentious and ever so vital field involving food issues

Turning the Tables Andrew P. Haley, 2011-05-30 In the nineteenth century restaurants served French food to upper class Americans with aristocratic pretensions but by the turn of the century even the best restaurants cooked ethnic and American foods for middle class urbanites In Turning the Tables Andrew P Haley examines how the transformation of public dining that established the middle class as the arbiter of American culture was forged through battles over French language menus scientific eating cosmopolitan cuisines unescorted women un American tips and servantless restaurants

Eating Culture Gillian Crowther, 2013-01-01 Humans have an appetite for food and anthropology as the study of human beings their culture and society has an interest in the role of food From ingredients and recipes to meals and menus across time and space Eating Culture is a highly engaging overview that illustrates the important role that anthropology and anthropologists have played in understanding food Organized around the sometimes elusive concept of cuisine and the public discourse on gastronomy nutrition sustainability and culinary skills that surrounds it this practical guide to anthropological method and theory brings order and insight to our changing relationship with food pub desc

The Still Life in the Fiction of A. S. Byatt Elizabeth Hicks, 2010 This book explores the ways in which English writer A S Byatt TM s visual still lifes descriptions of real or imagined artworks and what are termed oververbal still lifes scenes such as laid tables rooms and market stalls are informed by her veneration of both realism and writing It examines Byatt TM s adoption of the Barthesian concept of textual pleasure showing how her ekphrastic descriptions involve consumption and take time to unfold for the reader thereby highlighting the limitations of painting It also investigates the ways in which Byatt TM s still lifes demonstrate her debts to English modernist author Virginia Woolf French writer Marcel Proust and the Pre Raphaelite Brotherhood of nineteenth century Britain A number of Byatt TM s verbal still lifes are read as semiotic markers of her characters particularly with regard to economic status and class Further her descriptions uniting food and sexuality are perceived as part of her overall representation of pleasure Finally Byatt TM s employment of vanitas iconography in many of her portrayals of death is discussed showing how her recurring motif of Keats TM s Ode on a Grecian Urn teases out the still life TM s inherent tension between living passion and oecold artwork
