Business Today , 2009 Understanding SOA with Web Services Eric Newcomer, Greg Lomow, 2005 Where most SOA books focus on integration and architecture basics Lomow and Newcomer fearlessly dive into these more advanced yet critical topics and provide a depth of treatment unavailable anywhere else Jason Bloomberg Senior Analyst ZapThink LLC This book provides a wealth of content on Web Services and SOA not found elsewhere Although the book is technical in nature it is surprisingly easy to read and digest Managers who would like to keep up with the most effective technical strategies will find this book required reading Hari Mailvaganam University of British Columbia Vancouver I have been teaching companies and lecturing on SOA and XML Web Services for years and sort of felt at home with these technologies I didn't think anyone else could teach me anything more significant about either of them. This book surprised me. If a person teaching SOA and Web Services can learn something from this book, you can too. This book is a must read for all architects, senior developers, and concerned CTOs. Sayed Y. Encyclopedia of E-business Development and Management in the Global Economy In Lee, 2010. As globalization and competition pose new opportunities and challenges, firms strive to discover effective and efficient e-business models and applications to contribute to their sustainability, growth, and innovation. The Encyclopedia of E-Business Development and Management in the Global Economy creates a repository for educators, researchers, and industry professionals to collaborate and discuss their research ideas, theories, practical experiences, challenges, and opportunities while presenting tools and techniques in all aspects of e-business development and management in the digital economy. As the first and most comprehensive book to present aspects from the research, industry, managerial, and technical sides of e-business, this collection appeals to policy makers, e-business application developers, market researchers, managers, researchers, professors, and undergraduate/graduate students in various academic disciplines.
