Elizabeth Gaskell A Portrait In Letters:

Elizabeth Gaskell J. A. V. Chapple, 2007      Elizabeth Gaskell J. A. V. Chapple, 1997-03 This absorbing study of Elizabeth Gaskell's early life up to her marriage in 1832 is based almost entirely on new evidence marriage settlements property transfers wills record office documents letters journals and private papers John Chapple has recreated the background of one of the nineteenth century's greatest novelists The widely differing lives of her father brother and the aunt who raised her are illuminated at length from original documents Chapple has discovered a number of letters written by close relations that shed new light on her upbringing and he analyses three hitherto unknown travel journals by her Knutsford cousins which prove that she grew up in a literary milieu The careers of the more important figures in her early life have been re-traced the Turners of Newcastle the Robberds of Manchester and the Byerley sisters The relationship with Katharine Thomson nee Byerley herself a prolific novelist has been fleshed out to reveal how she provided a model of literary production during the younger writer's teens and early twenties      Elizabeth Gaskell Elizabeth Cleghorn Gaskell, J. A. V. Chapple, John Geoffrey Sharps, 1980 John Chapple links the passages of Mrs Gaskell's letters with a commentary to form a biography largely in her own words The story is told chronologically including some newly discovered letters are also devoted to various themes These include her travels her involvement with charities and her life as an author who was also a wife and mother in a period when Victorian society and culture were undergoing major changes      Elizabeth Gaskell, 2nd Edition J. A. V. Chapple, 2007 Taking his evidence from parish records marriage settlements property transfers wills record office documents letters journals and private papers Chapple recreates the background of one of the 19th century's greatest novelists      The Letters of Mrs. Gaskell Elizabeth Cleghorn Gaskell, 1997 These letters covering such subjects as scarlet fever the Lancashire cotton famine and the American Civil War bring history alive They also throw light on Gaskell's own writings especially her biography of Charlotte Brontë      The Letters of Robert Browning and Elizabeth Barrett Barrett, 1845-1846 Robert Browning, Elizabeth Barrett Browning, 1906      Letters and Recollections of Sir Walter Scott Mary Ann Watts Hughes, William Hastings Hughes, 1904      British Women Writers, 1700-1850 Barbara Joan Horwitz, 1997 A guide to British women authors their works and the writing about them      Dickens's Secular Gospel Chris Louttit, 2009-05-07 The first full length study on the subject of Dickens and work this book argues that rather than engaging with work as an abstract quasi religious and entirely benign value Dickens's writings demonstrate the varied ways in which it shapes gender identity and personality      The Norton Anthology of Literature by Women Sandra M. Gilbert, Susan Gubar, 2007 Long the standard teaching anthology the landmark Norton Anthology of Literature by Women has introduced generations of readers to the rich variety of women's writing in English      The Brontës Life and Letters Clement King Shorter, 2013-09-19 First published in 1908 this two volume collection documents through correspondence the remarkable careers of Charlotte Emily and Anne Brontë      Victorian Contagion Chung-jen Chen, 2019-08-29 Victorian Contagion Risk and Social Control in the Victorian Literary Imagination examines the literary and cultural production of contagion in the Victorian era and the way that production participated in a moral economy of surveillance and control In this book I attempt to make sense of how the discursive practice of contagion governed the interactions and correlations between medical science literary creation and cultural imagination Victorians dealt with the menace of contagion by theorizing a working motto in claiming the goodness and godliness in cleanliness which was theorized realized and radicalized both through practice and imagination The Victorian discourse around cleanliness and contagion including all its treatments and preventions developed into a culture of medicalization a perception of surveillance a politics of health an economy of morality and a way of thinking This book is an attempt to understand the literary and cultural elements which contributed to fear and anticipation of contagion and to explain why and how these elements still matter to us today Biographies of British Women Patricia E. Sweeney, 1993

Further Letters of Mrs. Gaskell John Chapple, Alan Shelston, 2003 The reputation of Elizabeth Gaskell is undergoing a renaissance as we enter the new millennium The variety of her work and the range of her acquaintance makes her one of the most interesting literary figures of her century This new collection of her letters illustrates the richness and diversity of her involvement in a remarkable range of social and literary activities Out of the 270 letters included in this volume only 40 have been previously published Selected Letters of Charlotte Brontë Charlotte Brontë, 2007-09-13 These letters give an insight into the life of a writer whose novels continue to be bestsellers They reveal much about Charlotte Brontë's personal life her family relationships and the society in which she lived Many of her early letters are written with vigour vivacity and an engaging aptitude for self mockery In contrast her letters to her master the Belgian schoolteacher Constantin Heger reveal her intense obsessive longing for some response from him Other letters are deeply moving when Charlotte endures the agony of her brother's and sisters untimely deaths We learn also of the progress of her writing including the astonishing success of Jane Eyre and of her contacts with her publishers including the young George Smith and we recognize in her letters the life experiences which are transmuted into the art of her novels Contemporary society is brilliantly described in her letters from London when she writes of her encounters with famous writers and with critics of her novels We hear too of her visits to art galleries operas and the Great Exhibition of 1851 at the Crystal Palace Dramatic letters written in December 1852 convey the turbulence of feeling in the Haworth curate Arthur Nicholls's proposal of marriage to her and in Mr Brontë's violent reaction to it and we subsequently hear of her secret correspondence with her suitor her father's eventual consent and her tragically brief happy marriage cut short by her death in March 1855 British Short-fiction Writers, 1800-1880 John R. Greenfield, 1996 Biographical information on British authors who published short fiction during the 19th century The Athenaeum, 1907 A Woman of Wit and Wisdom Alice Cecilia Caroline Gaussen, 1906 Letters of Charles Eliot Norton Charles Eliot Norton, Sara Norton, 1913 Memoir of Sir Henry Keppel, G.C.B., Admiral of the Fleet Sir Algernon West, 1905
