

VERKLÄRTER HERBST

Gewaltig endet so das Jahr
Mit goldnem Wein und Frucht der Gärten.
Rund schweigen Wälder wunderbar
Und sind des Einsamen Gefährten.

Da sagt der Landmann: Es ist gut.
Ihr Abendglocken lang und leise
Gebt noch zum Ende frohen Mut.
Ein Vogelzug grüßt auf der Reise.

Es ist der Liebe milde Zeit.
Im Kahn den blauen Fluß hinunter
Wie schön sich Bild an Bildchen reiht —
Das geht in Ruh und Schweigen unter.

Gedichte German Georg Trakl

Georg Trakl

Gedichte German Georg Trakl:

Poems and prose Georg Trakl, 2001 An undeniable aura surrounds the name of Georg Trakl a poet of intense inner vision and originality whose work stands alongside that of Yeats Valery and T S Eliot The distinctive tone of Trakl's work especially admired by his patron Ludwig Wittgenstein is autumnal and melancholy Trakl was writing at a time of spiritual and social disintegration on the eve of the First World War when personal values and perceptions tended to be subsumed in a more generalized anguish and exaltation Winter Night Georg Trakl, 1979 Discusses the making of the movie trilogy based on J R R Tolkien's The Lord of the Rings covering topics including filming locations special effects costumes battle scenes characters and music Georg Trakl's Poetry Richard Detsch, 1991-01-18 The chaotic mixture of elements in Trakl's poems is more apparent than real this book argues thus challenging the Orphic view of Walther Killy and his followers A dream of unity one of the most ancient dreams in human history is in fact reflected in all of Trakl's work The recurring themes in Trakl's poetry are brought into focus through Dr Detsch's literary psychological and philosophical analysis the union of male and female in incest from the Jungian standpoint the union of life and death from the Heideggerian standpoint and that of German Romanticism as represented by Novalis the union of good and evil from the Dostoyevskian or Nietzschean standpoint the mixture of images from the Goethean definition of symbolism Trakl 1887-1914 is presented as a poet whose lyric voice sounded a cry of hope in its deepest despair As Dr Detsch's generous quotations from the poet's work in the original German make clear Georg Trakl sought poetic expression for a union of opposites Song of the West Georg Trakl, 1988 The influential German poet presents forty-seven poems characterized by an intensely personal point of view and a deeply psychological nature and presented in both English and German The Poet's Madness Francis Michael Sharp, 1981 German Culture in the Libraries of Melbourne Susan Radvansky, Leslie Bodi, 1967 Complex Pleasure Stanley Corngold, 1998 Complex Pleasure deals with questions of literary feeling in eight major German writers Lessing Kant Holderlin Nietzsche Musil Kafka Trakl and Benjamin On the basis of close readings of these authors Stanley Corngold makes vivid the following ideas that where there is literature there is complex pleasure that this pleasure is complex because it involves the impression of a disclosure that this thought is foremost in the minds of a number of canonical writers that important literary works in the German tradition fiction poetry critique can be illuminated through their treatment of literary feeling and finally that the conceptual terms for these forms of feeling continually vary The types of feeling treated in Complex Pleasure include wit the startling perception of likeness and the disinterested pleasure of aesthetic judgment Holderlin's swift conceptual grasp in which the tempo of the process of thought is stressed artistic imagination mood sadistic enjoyment rapturous distraction homonymic dissonance and courage as a mode of literary experience At the same time through the deftness range and surprise of its execution the book itself conveys complex pleasure The reader will also find fascinating hitherto untranslated material by Nietzsche On Moods and Kafka important sections from his journals and from his unfinished novel The Boy Who Sank Out of Sight The Gentle Apocalypse Richard Millington, 2020 Like much German language poetry of the years preceding the First World War the poems of Georg Trakl 1887-1914 are imbued with a sense of historical crisis but what sets his work apart is the mildness and restraint of his images of universal disintegration Trakl typically couched his vision of the end of days in images of migrating birds abandoned houses and closing eyelids making his poetry at once apocalyptic rustic and intimate The argument made in this study is that this vision amounts to a unitary worldview with tightly interwoven affective ethical social historical and cosmological dimensions Often termed hermetic and obscure Trakl's poems become more accessible when viewed in relation to the evolution of his methods and concerns across different phases and the idiosyncrasies of his strangely beautiful later works make sense as elements of a sophisticated system of expression committed to truth as a transcendental order Through close readings of poems covering the span of his lyric output this study traces the evolution of Trakl's distinctive style and themes while attending closely to biographical and cultural contexts Richard Millington is Senior Lecturer in German at Victoria University of Wellington Aotearoa New Zealand He is the author of Snow from Broken Eyes Cocaine in the Lives and Works of Three Expressionist Poets 2012 Modern German Poetry Harold Bloom, 1989 The Poems of Georg Trakl Georg Trakl, 2007 The essential Trakl as published by the great poet in his lifetime gracefully and sensitively rendered Autumn Sonata Georg Trakl, 1989 Georg Trakl's poems are considered some of the most difficult for any translator to tackle his German is dense and sometimes almost impenetrable Daniel Simko's collection Autumn Sonata has been lauded for the simplicity and directness of its translations accomplished without sacrificing the drama of Trakl's rich imagery Suffering from manic depressive episodes and haunted by his experiences tending the wounded and dying during World War One Trakl's poems reflect a sense of lostness nightmare visions and disembodied voices provide an often eccentric perspective of reality Though he yearns for deliverance there poems do not anticipate it Instead they map the interior landscape of a brilliant though troubled spirit An Introduction to German Poetry Ronald D. Gray, 1965 Traces the main historical trends of German poetry Introductions to German Literature: Twentieth century German literature, by A. Closs, H. M. Waidson, and I. Keys August Closs, 1969

Franz Fühmann: Innovation and Authenticity Dennis Tate, 2023-12-18 This is the first full length study of the life and works of Franz Fühmann 1922-1984 to be published in English It provides a complete reassessment of his importance as a prose writer informed by the extensive corpus of Fühmann's writing which has only appeared posthumously or is now accessible in the archives of the Akademie der Künste in East Berlin Dennis Tate argues that from the middle 1950s onwards Fühmann's prose writing is both stylistically innovative and committed to the authentic representation of his experience thereby challenging the conventional wisdom that little writing of international significance could be produced in the ideological context of the GDR until Honecker introduced his no taboos cultural policy in 1971 Fühmann's widely praised later texts ranging from the autobiographical Zweiundzwanzig Tage oder Die Hölle des Lebens and Vor Feuerschlünden to mythical and satirical short stories such as Marsyas and Drei nackte Männer can now be seen as the culmination of an impressive creative development rather than as the result of a late conversion to literary truthfulness. The volume will be of interest to students and teachers of post 1945 German literature as well as to general readers aware of the vitality of Central European culture throughout the period of East-West ideological division.
