Global Inequalities Beyond Occidentalism Manuela Boatcă, 2016-04-22 Based on theoretical developments in research on world systems analysis transnational migration postcolonial and decolonial perspectives whilst considering continuities of inequality patterns in the context of colonial and postcolonial realities Global Inequalities Beyond Occidentalism proposes an original framework for the study of the long term reproduction of inequalities under global capitalism With attention to the critical assessment of both Marxist and Weberian perspectives this book examines the wider implications of transferring classical approaches to inequality to a twenty first century context calling for a reconceptualisation of inequality that is both theoretically informed and methodologically consistent and able to cater for the implications of shifts from national and Western structures to global structures Engaging with approaches to the study of class gender racial and ethnic inequalities at the global level this innovative work adopts a relational perspective in the study of social inequalities that is able to reveal how historical interdependencies between world regions have translated as processes of inequality production and reproduction As such it will be of interest to scholars of sociology political and social theory and anthropology concerned with questions of globalisation and inequality Beyond Classical Concepts of Social Inequality Manuela Boatca, 2014-06-28

Based on theoretical developments in research on world systems analysis transnational migration postcolonial and decolonial perspectives whilst considering continuities of inequality patterns in the context of colonial and postcolonial realities Global Inequalities Beyond Occidentalism proposes an original framework for the study of the long term reproduction of inequalities under global capitalism With attention to the critical assessment of both Marxist and Weberian perspectives this book examines the wider implications of transferring classical approaches to inequality to a twenty first century context calling for a reconceptualization of inequality that is both theoretically informed and methodologically consistent and able to cater for the implications of shifts from national and Western structures to global structures Global Culture: Consciousness and Connectivity Roland Robertson, Didem Buhari-Gulmez, 2017-05-15 The current discourse of globalization is overwhelmingly centred upon the interconnectedness or connectivity of the contemporary world to the great neglect of the issues of global culture and global consciousness With contemporary worldwide culture increasingly characterized by such themes as astronomy cosmology space travel and exploration there is an increasing disjuncture between academic concern with connectivity on the one hand and culture and consciousness of the place of planet earth in the cosmos as a whole on the other This book addresses this deficiency from a variety of closely related perspectives presenting studies of religion science sport international organizations global resistance movements and migrations and developments in East Asia It brings together the latest theoretical empirical work from scholars in the US UK Australia Japan China and Israel on the significance of culture and global consciousness As such Global Culture Consciousness and Connectivity will be of great interest to scholars across and beyond the social sciences working in the areas of global studies cultural studies social theory

The Socio-Political Practice of Human Rights Kiran Kaur

Grewal, 2016-06-23 This book examines discourses of rights and practices of resistance in post conflict societies exploring the interaction between the international human rights framework and different actors seeking political and social change Presenting detailed new case studies from Sierra Leone Sri Lanka and Kosovo it reveals the necessity of social scientific interventions in the field of human rights The author shows how a shift away from the realm of normative political or legal theory towards a more sociological analysis promises a better understanding of both the limits of current human rights approaches and possible sites of potential Considering the diverse ways in which human rights are enacted and mobilised The Socio Political Practice of Human Rights engages with major sites of tension and debate examining the question of whether human rights are universal or culturally relative their relationship to forms of economic and political domination the role of law as a mechanism for social change and the ways in which the language of human rights facilitates or closes sites of radical resistance By situating these debates in specific contexts this book concludes by proposing new ways of theorizing human rights Empirically grounded and offering an alternate framework for understanding the fluid and ambiguous operation of power within the theory and practice of human rights this volume will appeal to scholars of sociology law and politics with interests in gender resistance international law human rights and socio legal discourse

Eurocentrism at the Margins Lutfi Sunar, 2016-05-05

Eurocentrism remains a prevailing feature of Western dominated social scientific perspectives tending to ignore alternative views originating outside the West and thus maintaining a form of scholarly hegemony As such there is an urgent need to reconsider Eurocentrism in social science to ask whether it constitutes an obstacle to understanding social problems and whether it is possible to go beyond Eurocentrism in the construction of reliable more universal knowledge At the same time certain questions persist particularly with regard to the extent to which recent revisionist challenges have really contributed to the surmounting of Eurocentric domination and whether the constant repetition of the concept serves to reinforce it This book engages with the central problems of Eurocentrism in the social sciences bringing together the work of scholars from around the world to offer a critique of this perspective from both European and non European positions thus shedding light on the binaries that often come into being in debates in this field Thematically organised and addressing a range of questions including Eurocentrism in historical studies in the understanding of religion and civilisation and in the study of international relations as well as in the institutionalisation and professionalisation of research and discourses on modernisation in the Middle East Eurocentrism at the Margins will appeal to scholars with interests in knowledge production and circulation and Eurocentrism and post colonialism in the social sciences

Mobile and Entangled America(s) Maryemma Graham, Wilfried Raussert, 2016-05-12 A superb combination of focused case studies and high level conceptual thinking this volume is an important monument in the ongoing development of Inter American studies The articles gathered here closely examine a wide variety of cultural phenomena implicated in the entanglements which have defined the history of the Americas From religious networks to music and dance and across a range of literary and artistic works the mobility of people objects and ideas in the Americas is expertly mapped At the same time the book represents a serious enterprise of theory building Drawing on the histories of postcolonial thought mobility studies and work on human migration Mobile and Entangled America s clearly establishes a new interdisciplinary field attentive both to the complexities of cultural form and the pervasiveness of power relations Each article stands as a significant piece of scholarship on its own but all are in dialogue with each other The result is a richly satisfying and important volume of cultural scholarship
