Europe Co Operative Wohnbund E V:

Contemporary Co-housing in Europe Pernilla Hagbert, Henrik Gutzon Larsen, Håkan Thörn, Cathrin Wasshede, 2019-11-18 This book investigates co housing as an alternative housing form in relation to sustainable urban development Co housing is often lauded as a more sustainable way of living The primary aim of this book is to critically explore co housing in the context of wider social economic political and environmental developments This volume fills a gap in the literature by contextualising co housing and related housing forms With focus on Denmark Sweden Hamburg and Barcelona the book presents general analyses of co housing in these contexts and provides specific discussions of co housing in relation to local government urban activism family life spatial logics and socio ecology This book will be of interest to students and researchers in a broad range of social scientific fields concerned with housing urban development and sustainability as well as to planners decision makers and activists

Irish Housing Design 1950 - 1980 Brian Ward, Michael Pike, Gary Boyd, 2019-12-11 This book examines the architectural design of housing projects in Ireland from the mid twentieth century This period represented a high point in the construction of the Welfare State project where the idea that architecture could and should shape and define community and social life was not yet considered problematic Exploring a period when Ireland embraced the free market and the end of economic protectionism the book is a series of case studies supported by critical narratives Little known but of high quality the schemes presented in this volume are by architects whose designs helped determine future architectural thinking in Ireland and elsewhere Aimed at academics students and researchers the book is accompanied by new drawings and over 100 full colour images with the example studies demonstrating rich architectural responses to a shifting landscape

The re-emergence of co-housing in Europe Lidewij Tummers, 2017-10-02 Across Europe the number of co housing initiatives is growing and they are increasingly receiving attention from administrators and professionals who hold high expectations for urban liveability Is co housing a marginal idealist phenomenon or the urban middle class answer to the current housing crisis And has the development of theoretical insight and research kept up with the actual expansion of co housing as a practice These questions were raised during the first European conference on co housing research which took place in Tours France in March 2012 Both the conference and this book aim to move beyond case studies and to look more particularly at the implications and wider perspective of the current co housing trend Using the specific vocabulary of different disciplines and geographic regions the contributions to this book analyse the underlying thinking behind and the expectations projected on diverse models of collaborative housing The authors are aware of the qualities of contemporary co housing but they go beyond advocacy to investigate the conditions under which co housing can be successful as a strategy for housing provision can offer solutions for sustainable urban development or indeed can contribute to involuntary or intentional gentrification This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Urban Research and Practice

Kooperation Bau und Raum

Ulrike Sturm, Melanie Lienhard, Interdisziplinärer Schwerpunkt Kooperation Bau und Raum, Hochschule Luzern, 2018-09-01

Das Teilen von knapper werdenden Ressourcen ist eine der grossen gesellschaftlichen Herausforderungen der kommenden Jahrzehnte. Im Interdisziplinären Schwerpunkt Kooperation Bau und Raum der Hochschule Luzern untersuchten verschiedene Projekte zwischen 2014 und 2018, wie die gemeinsame Nutzung von Ressourcen durch kooperative Netzwerke in Gang gesetzt und optimiert werden kann. Bei der Einbeziehung der jeweiligen baulichen, technischen, räumlichen, ökonomischen, sozialen und kulturellen Komponenten sollten die Projekte einen geteilten Mehrwert für die Nutzenden schaffen. Der vorliegende Herausgeberband stellt die Ergebnisse dieser Forschung und Entwicklung vor. Beschrieben werden Projekte, die aus dem Interdisziplinären Schwerpunkt Kooperation Bau und Raum heraus entstanden sind, sowie weitere Projekte, die unabhängig zu einem der Themenfelder des Interdisziplinären Schwerpunkts gearbeitet haben. Die drei Kapitel des Bandes sind entlang dieser Themenfelder strukturiert: KAPITEL 1: Neue Planungsprozesse in Städten und Gemeinden; KAPITEL 2: Kooperative Gebäudesanierung und Energieplanung; KAPITEL 3: Sozialer Wandel und Lebensgestaltung.

Europa Wohnbund, 2015

Providing sufficient affordable living space especially in European conglomerations is one of the great challenges of the future requiring new solutions. In the face of demographic change, changing family structures and a growing environmental awareness, completely new residential forms have evolved in Europe: cross-generational residences, residential cooperatives, housing projects for senior citizens, ecological estates, integrative residences or district neighborhoods. The significance of communal living in particular will change in light of social traditions and framework conditions such as housing policy and the housing market. This book provides an insight into communal living in eleven European countries: Austria, the Netherlands, France, Great Britain, the Czech Republic, Denmark, Sweden, Norway, Finland and Germany, and presents a range of exemplary residential projects with their architectural and social concepts as well as their different funding schemes.

The Co-operative Alternative in Europe Gregory Andrusz, 2019-05-23

First published in 1999, this book attempts to understand housing co-operatives in terms of their development over time and their relationships to other types of housing tenure. The book considers them within the framework of the broader co-operative movement and its role in society's overall system of production and exchange. There is an examination of the role of a form of ownership which is neither private nor state. In six countries and in some cases the fortunes of housing co-operatives seem closely to correlate with periods of political liberalization and crises heralding a shift in ideological orientation.
