Europe 1890 1945 Crisis And Conflict:

Europe, 1890-1945 Robin W. Winks, Ralph James Q. Adams, 2003 The first half of the twentieth century was one of the most turbulent periods in Europe's history. While social theorists challenged orthodox ways of thinking about the establishment of a good society, scientists offered up new visions of the workings of the universe. Women fought for increased power within the altered social landscape, and change and controversy reigned in the worlds of art and culture. The chaos of world politics ushered in the two great wars which would forever alter Europe's position in the world. Europe 1890 1945 offers a concise, accessible overview of this tumultuous time period. It provides a clear outline of the political events that shaped the age and offers a discussion of the seismic shifts in social and cultural landscapes. Topics covered include the rise of modernism in the arts, Social Darwinism and its effects on theories of race, the making of national identities, the origins of the modern ecology movement, and the changing roles of women in an era of war and violence. The authors thoroughly analyze the causes and effects of the two great wars while reaching beyond Europe to discuss the events in the United States, Africa, and Asia that contributed to the evolving face of world politics. With nine maps for easy reference, chapter summaries to aid in reader comprehension, a detailed chronology, and twenty-four photographs, Europe 1890 1945 is an ideal text for undergraduate courses that explore the crisis and conflict that governed the early twentieth-century European world.

Empires at War Robert Gerwarth, Erez Manela, 2014-07-03 Empires at War 1911-1923 offers a new perspective on the history of the Great War. It expands the story of the war both in time and space to include the violent conflicts that preceded and followed the First World War, from the 1911 Italian invasion of Libya to the massive violence that followed the collapse of the Ottoman, Russian, and Austrian empires until 1923. It also presents the war as a global war of empires rather than a European war between nation-states. This volume tells the story of the millions of imperial subjects called upon to defend their imperial governments' interest, the theatres of war that lay far beyond Europe, and the wartime roles and experiences of innumerable peoples from outside the European continent. Empires at War covers the broad global mobilizations that saw African soldiers and Chinese labourers in the trenches of the Western Front, Indian troops in Jerusalem, and the Japanese military occupying Chinese territory. Finally, the volume shows how the war set the stage for the collapse not only of specific empires but of the imperial world order writ large.

Cyprus and the First World War Hubert Faustmann, Georgios Kazamias, 2025-05-22 Shedding light on a forgotten aspect of Cypriot history this book explores the involvement of Cyprus during the Great War and the impact it left on British colonial rule It examines the political economic social and military aspects of the war effort Cyprus and the First World War reflects on how Cyprus as a British colony not in control of its own affairs had a very specific and uncommon experience of the First World War decisions were made elsewhere communities were forced into a struggle that was not their own and their future status and ownership of the island was likely to be affected by the outcome Bringing together contributors from various disciplines this volume considers numerous facets of Cyprus part in and contribution to the First World War and the war s effects on the island It also highlights the fact that while the island saw hardly any military action it played an important role as a rear area for recovery and training purposes as well as a provider of supplies while Cypriots from all communities participated in the war in particular at the Macedonian Front a key theatre where conflict raged for much of the war

Defining International Terrorism Stella Margariti, 2017-08-01 This book is an attempt to approach the issue of defining international terrorism proposing that the most workable way to do so is to achieve due balance between the two principal driving forces of international law developments State sovereignty interests and cosmopolitan ideals All those who aspire to the promotion of international criminal justice and the fight against impunity agree that the formulation of a universal definition of international terrorism will further enhance the fight against terrorism and offer a universally acceptable legal framework within which this fight can be conducted Discussed in an in depth manner are for instance the UN Charter Provisions the Rome Statute and the principle of complementarity the Kampala amendments on the crime of aggression the paradigms of aggression and terrorism and prominent anti terrorist Security Council Resolutions such as Resolution 1368 and Resolution 1373 The volume broadens the reader s understanding on how State sovereignty interests and priorities as well as ideals of cosmopolitanism have influenced the development of international law in general and international criminal law in particular Furthermore it simplifies the complicated picture of defining international crimes by explaining how the State sovereignty and Cosmopolitanism dynamics have also been of relevance throughout the drafting process of the definition of the crime of aggression for the purposes of the Rome Statute for the International Criminal Court In addition it equips the reader with an understanding of the reasons behind the lack of an international definition for terrorism and suggests an appropriate context within which such a definition can take shape It intends to appeal to academics and students with an interest in international criminal law and the international criminal justice system international law and security but also to anyone with an interest in transnational crime and counter terrorism Stella Margariti has recently graduated from the University of Dundee where she attained the title of Doctor from the School of Law
