European Cosmopolitanism In Question Europe In A Global Context:

European Cosmopolitanism in Question R. Robertson, A. Krossa, 2012-04-26 Including a stellar line up of international scholars this book is an ambitious analysis of cosmopolitanism that will push the debate into new arenas open up new lines of inquiry and have an impact on the study of globalization and global processes for years to come Perceptions of the EU in Eastern Europe and Sub-Saharan Africa V. Bachmann, M. Muller, 2016-01-12 This collection examines how the EU is seen in the two regions that are at the centre of its geopolitical interest Focusing on Eastern Europe and sub Saharan Africa it provides a critical assessment of how their external perceptions relate to EU policy towards them European Identities in Discourse Franco Zappettini, 2019-05-02 Based on empirical research this book closely analyses how European identities are discursively produced It focuses on discourse from members of a civic association active in promoting democracy and attempting participation in the transnational public sphere Unlike previous books that have addressed the question of European identity from top down stances or through methodological nationalism this book engages with the multifaceted concept of transnationalism as a key to the negotiation of global identities Applying a discourse historical approach DHA through a transnational reading it shows how grassroots actors speakers construct their different cultural and political affiliations as both world and European citizens They negotiate institutional identities and historical discourses of nationhood through new forms of mobility cultural diversity and the imagination of Europe as a proxy for a cosmopolitan civil society These discourses are ever more important in a fractured and polarised Europe falling prey to contrary discourses of nationhood and ethnic solidarity Highlighting how transnational narratives of solidarity and the de territorialisation of civic participation can impact on the re imagination of the European community beyond tropes like Fortress Europe or intragovernmental politics this important book shows how identification processes must be read through historical and global as well as localised contexts Handbook on Global Constitutionalism Anthony F. Lang, Jr., Antje Wiener, 2017-10-27 This Handbook introduces scholars and students to the history philosophy and evidence of global constitutionalism Contributors provide their insights from law politics international relations philosophy and history drawing on diverse frameworks and empirical data sets Across them all however is a recognition that the international order cannot be understood without an understanding of constitutional theory The Handbook will define this field of inquiry for the next generation by bringing together some of the leading contemporary scholars Theorizing Society in a Global Context A.

Krossa, 2012-11-29 Using Europe as an example this book readdresses and updates the concept of society exploring society in the context of both globalization and conflict theory to develop a new theory of society for our times Routledge

Handbook of European Politics José Magone, 2014-12-17 Since the Treaty of the European Union was ratified in 1993 the European Union has become an important factor in an ever increasing number of regimes of pooled sovereignty This Handbook seeks to present a valuable guide to this new and unique system in the twenty first century allowing readers to obtain a better understanding of the emerging multilevel European governance system that links national politics to Europe and the global community Adopting a pan European approach this Handbook brings together the work of leading international academics to cover a wide range of topics such as the historical and theoretical background the political systems and institutions of both the EU and its individual member nations political parties and party systems political elites civil society and social movements in European politics the political economy of Europe public administration and policy making external policies of the EU This is an invaluable and comprehensive resource for students scholars researchers and practitioners of the European Union European politics and comparative politics Cosmopolitan Spaces Chris Rumford,2008-06-30 The book advances a provocative critical reading of both globalization theory and contemporary Europe Concerned with questions of space borders and governance Cosmopolitan Spaces challenges conventional notions of cosmopolitanism and its relevance to conceptualizations of space and offers a fresh take on the meaning and implications of globalization The Cosmopolitan Imagination Gerard Delanty,2009-10-08 A fresh assessment of cosmopolitanism in social and political thought which links cosmopolitan theory with critical social theory Cosmopolitanism and Europe Chris Rumford,2007 Europe's ongoing transformation has prompted the emergence of cosmopolitanism as a particularly relevant lens through which to analyze European politics and society As the European Union grows in size its member states are increasingly occupied with responsibilities that extend beyond their narrow national interests This timely book with contributions from Ulrich Beck Daniele Archibugi and Gerard Delanty persuasively argues that cosmopolitan perspectives are vital to the study of contemporary Europe Cosmopolitanism, Theatre, and the Philippines Sir Anril Pineda Tiatco,2018

Bulletin of the Intercollegiate Cosmopolitan Club International House, New York,1926 Theorizing Society in a Global Context A. Krossa,2012-11-29 Using Europe as an example this book readdresses and updates the concept of society exploring society in the context of both globalization and conflict theory to develop a new theory of society for our times

Extending the Horizons of Continental [i.e. Continental] Philosophy Linda Alcoff,Walter Brogan,2000 International Encyclopedia of the Social & Behavioral Sciences Neil J. Smelser,Paul B. Baltes,2001 The largest work ever published in the social and behavioural sciences It contains 4000 signed articles 15 million words of text 90 000 bibliographic references and 150 biographical entries Performing the 'New' Europe Karen Fricker,Milija Gluhovic,2013-05-13 Bringing together the voices of scholars from Europe and North America with those of key contest stakeholders Performing the New Europe Identities Feelings and Politics in the Eurovision Song Contest argues that this popular music competition is a symbolic contact zone between European cultures an arena for European identification in which both national solidarity and participation in a European identity are confirmed and a site where cultural struggles over the meanings frontiers and limits of Europe are enacted This exciting collection explores the ways in which European artists perform disavow and contest their racial national and sexual identities in the Eurovision Song Contest ESC and asks difficult questions about European inclusions and exclusions the contest reflects It suggests the ESC as an ever evolving network of peoples and places transcending both historical and geographical boundaries of Europe that brings into being new understandings of the relationship between culture space and identities New Technologies and Human Rights Thérèse Murphy, 2009 In an era increasingly dominated by new technologies there are many calls for regulation to control their application This timely contribution reviews and develops the role of human rights in the regulation of new technologies discussing how rights are affected by technological development and how they can be used to improve regulation Cosmopolitanisms R. J. Holton, 2009-05-29 Presents fresh perspectives on the meaning scope importance and limitations of cosmopolitanism This book analyzes theoretical approaches and research to give an understanding of the cultural personal moral and legal dimensions of cosmopolitanism It is suitable for students of globalization and sociology European Solidarity Nathalie Karagiannis, 2007 This multidisciplinary volume aims to shed new light on the variety of European uses of a political buzzword solidarity Growing out of the historically complex roots of religion politics and knowledge solidarity has developed a number of meanings that are all but straightforward Is solidarity what holds the group from inside or is it what the group displays towards those whom it represents Is it a political project or a social condition And is it a matter of faith or a rational option in a secular world The passage of the concept into the discourse of the emerging global movements as well as its adoption by official post national discourses has mirrored and magnified these uneasy questions In particular at the European level the answers to these questions have taken so different forms that it is tempting to see in them the expression of multiple solidarities rather than of one common as it were solidarity Setting as their common aim to shed more light on the ambivalent aspects of European solidarity the chapters of this book are written by a number of renowned scholars including Claus Offe Peter Wagner and William Outhwaite Europe and the Other and Europe as the Other Bo Stråth, 2000 This book contributes to the debate on what Europe is by demonstrating the complexities and contradictions inherent in the concept They are seen most clearly when Europe is viewed from a long historical perspective During the closing decades of the twentieth century Europe emerged as one of the main points of reference in both the cultural and the political constructs of the global community An obsession with the concept of European identity is readily identifiable European identity is usually seen in relation to national identity either in an uneasy opposition to it that is as an alternative to the nation or in a situation in which it overlaps with and complements the nation The structure of national identity is projected onto European identity and this projection has an ideological underpinning for no projection is ever non interested or non ideological This process of identity construction provokes searching questions which the book aims to address At the same time the book explores the opportunities offered by the concept of Europe to see how it may be used in the construction of the future The approach is one of both deconstruction and reconstruction The issue of Europe is closely related in the book to more general issues relating to the cultural construction of community The book should therefore be seen as the companion of Myth and

Memory in the Construction of Community which also is published by PIE Peter Lang in the series Multiple Europes

Sociological Abstracts Leo P. Chall, 2004 CSA Sociological Abstracts abstracts and indexes the international literature in sociology and related disciplines in the social and behavioral sciences The database provides abstracts of journal articles and citations to book reviews drawn from over 1 800 serials publications and also provides abstracts of books book chapters dissertations and conference papers
