European Intellectual History From Rousseau To Nietzsche:

European Intellectual History from Rousseau to Nietzsche Frank Miller Turner, 2014-01-01 Turner's lectures distilled modern European history from the Enlightenment to the dawn of twentieth century and conveyed the turbulence of a rapidly changing era in European history through its ideas and leading figures Dust jacket European Intellectual History from Rousseau to Nietzsche Frank M. Turner, 2015-02-12 One of the most distinguished cultural and intellectual historians of our time Frank Turner taught a landmark Yale University lecture course on European intellectual history that drew scores of students over many years His lectures lucid accessible beautifully written and delivered with a notable lack of jargon distilled modern European history from the Enlightenment to the dawn of the twentieth century and conveyed the turbulence of a rapidly changing era in European history through its ideas and leading figures Richard A Lofthouse one of Turner's former students has now edited the lectures into a single volume that outlines the thoughts of a great historian on the forging of modern European ideas Moreover it offers a fine example of how intellectual history should be taught rooted firmly in historical and biographical evidence Cytherica Josef Chytrý, 2005 Cytherica boldly introduces a new faculty of thought called cytherics to contemporary academic discursivities It defines cytherics as the sighting and siting of an aesthetic erotic or aphrodisian environment Building on the furthest extensions of aesthetics since the eighteenth century cytherics develops both the aesthetic political and aesthetic erotic dimensions of the aesthetic tradition to formulate exciting new responses to the pressing issues of contemporary societies While drawing richly on the background of German and European Hellenism this book provides valuable new insights for those working in the areas of the aesthetic political critical theory postmodernist discursivities and dialectical speculation European Intellectual History Since 1789 Roland N. Stromberg, 1990

European Intellectual History Since Darwin and Marx W. Warren Wagar, 1967 For the European intellectual historian the period since 1870 falls into four phases the positivist generation of the Seventies and Eighties when the work of Darwin and Marx had reached full fruition the anti intellectualist generation of 1890 1914 in which Dilthey and Freud are representative figures the age of the World Wars which shattered faith in progress and the contemporary period since 1945 a kind of ice age of the spirit when even iconoclasm is d mod and fresh departures are rare Without exhausting the rich variety of thought during the past hundred years each of the essays presented here takes a broad synoptic view of a major trend in the history of ideas seen in the context of the times Author Modern European Intellectual History Dominick LaCapra, Steven L. Kaplan, 1982 A Companion to Intellectual History Richard Whatmore, Brian Young, 2015-10-27 A Companion to Intellectual History provides an in depth survey of the practice of intellectual history as a discipline Forty newly commissioned chapters showcase leading global research with broad coverage of every aspect of intellectual history as it is currently practiced Presents an in depth survey of recent research and practice of intellectual history Written in a clear and accessible manner designed for an international audience Surveys the various methodologies that have arisen and the main historiographical debates that concern intellectual historians Pays special attention to contemporary controversies providing readers with the most current overview of the field Demonstrates the ways in which intellectual historians have contributed to the history of science and medicine literary studies art history and the history of political thought Named Outstanding Academic Title of 2016 by Choice Magazine a publication of the American Library Association

The Intellectual History of Europe Friedrich Heer, 1966 Hayden White Herman Paul, 2013-04-29 This new book offers a clear and accessible exposition of Hayden White's thought In an engaging and wide ranging analysis Herman Paul discusses White's core ideas and traces the development of these ideas from the mid 1950s to the present Starting with White's medievalist research and youthful fascination for French existentialism Paul shows how White became increasingly convinced that historical writing is a moral activity He goes on to argue that the critical concepts that have secured White's fame trope plot discourse figural realism all stem from his desire to explicate the moral claims and perceptions underlying historical writing White emerges as a passionate thinker a restless rebel against scientism and a defender of existentialist humanist values This innovative introduction will appeal to students and scholars across the humanities and help develop a critical understanding of an increasingly important thinker University of North Carolina Studies in the Germanic Languages and Literatures James C. O'Flaherty, Timothy F. Sellner, Robert Meredith Helm, 1976 Rethinking Modern European Intellectual History Darrin M. McMahon, Samuel Moyn, 2013-12-13 Modern European intellectual history is thriving as never before It has recovered from an era in which other trends like social and cultural history threatened to marginalize it But in spite of enjoying a contemporary renaissance the field has lost touch with the tradition of debating why and how to study ideas and thus lacks both a well articulated set of purposes and a range of arguments for exactly what it means to pursue those purposes This volume revives that tradition Recalling past attempts to showcase the diversity and differentiation of modern European intellectual history this volume also documents how much has changed in recent decades Some authors are much readier to defend a history of ideas practiced over the long term once the defining sin of the field Others go so far as to insist on how ideas are always open to reappropriation and reevaluation beyond their original contexts suggesting that it is an error to reduce the ideas to those contexts Others still argue that under threat from trends like social history intellectual historians have forsaken any attempt to resolve for themselves how ideas are socially embodied The volume also registers old and new trends in history that have affected the study of ideas including the history of science the history of academic disciplines the history of psychology and self international and global history and women's and gender history

Intellectual Movements in Modern European History Franklin Le Van Baumer, 1965 Each volume in this series focuses on a topic of major importance in European history from about 1500 up to the present Reflecting the latest scholarship in the field each book reprints definitive articles by leading scholars in history and allied disciplines that illuminate the topic from various perspectives An editorial introduction accompanies each volume This not only provides continuity and background to the readings but offers a synthesis of information on the theme which is generally not available elsewhere in the scholarly literature Publisher Catalog University of Colorado Boulder,2009 Cultural History After Foucault John Neubauer, Both as historian and maker of culture Foucault infused numerous disciplines of study with a new conceptual vocabulary and an agenda for future research His ideas have called central assumptions in Western culture into question and altered the ways in which scholars and social scientists approach such issues as discourse theory theory of knowledge Eros technologies of the Self and Other punishment and prisons and asylums and madness The contributors to this volume indicate Foucault s achievements and the suggestive power of his work as well as his methodological weaknesses historical inaccuracies and ambiguities Above all they attempt to show how one can use Foucault to go beyond him in opening new approaches to cultural history Though comprehensiveness was not attempted their essays broach the major controversial aspects of Foucauldian cultural history the position of the subject the fusion of power and knowledge sexuality the historical structures and changes and they explicitly analyze them with respect to antiquity the Renaissance and the nineteenth century In this collection Neubauer presents analyses by historians literary scholars and philosophers of the entire transdisciplinary range of Foucault s oeuvre emphasizing the rich suggestiveness of its agenda The breadth of the undertaking makes it suitable for seminars and graduate courses in numerous departments The Intellectual History of Europe Frederick Binkerd Artz,1941 Denver Quarterly ,1978 Beyond Nihilism Nimrod Aloni,1991-11 In this work the author presents Nietzsche as a counter nihilistic philosopher educator who aimed very much like Plato and Rousseau to set forth a healing education for western man in a characteristically decadent era The principal pedagogical or edifying dimension of his philosophy it is argued consists of a redefinition of the educational aim of modern humanity formulated in medical and cultural terms as the recovery of health and worth The work considers Nietzsche s investigations of noble and nihilistic forms of life as well as his doctrines of the Dionysian the Will to Power and the Overman as aiming to establish a new wisdom delineating the conditions necessary for the evaluation enhancement and prosperity of man A useful book for courses in philosophy philosophy of education history of education and ethics Europe in the nineteenth century; readings in intellectual and social history. 1815-1870 Eugene Newton Anderson,1961 Bulletin Bowling Green State University,1971 General Catalog -- University of California, Santa Cruz University of California, Santa Cruz,2008
