The Elgar Companion to the European Union Samuel B.H. Faure, Christian Lequesne, 2023-01-20 Constituting a major contribution to literature on the EU this comprehensive Companion analyses the structure and value of the EU capturing the normality of its politics alongside crises and political breakdown Exploring the Sociology of Europe Maurice Roche, 2009-09-26 The sociology of Europe is a growing and diverse field This book addresses it in a direct wide ranging and up to date way Exploring the Sociology of Europe clearly maps this new and emerging field challenges and renews the sociological analysis of European modernity provides an understanding of Europe as an historical social and civil complex develops and applies new interpretations of the key sociological themes of globalization citizenship and cosmopolitanism to contemporary European society This is a discerning and relevant book providing an informed analysis of European society which identifies and defines contemporary issues and engages with key social theoretical perspectives Covering the substantive historical sociological aspects of Europe Part 1 the historical and comparative sociology of the nation state Part 2 and the comparative sociology of welfare capitalism Part 3 Maurice Roche sets out a clear and effective framework for understanding the sociology of Europe The book will be of interest to all students researchers and academics involved in studying teaching and researching the expanding field of modern European society

Eurostars and Eurocities Adrian Favell, 2008-02-11 Eurostars and Eurocities Free Movement and Mobility in an Integrating Europe examines intra European Union migration in the cities of Amsterdam London and Brussels Based on sixty in depth interviews of free moving European citizens and more than five years of ethnographic and documentary research it uncovers the rarely studied human dimension of European integration Examines the mobility lifestyle and career opportunities created by the borderless society of the European Union as well as the barriers that still persist Analyses the new migration trends challenges to the welfare state and forms of urban cosmopolitanism linked to processes of European integration The Internal Market Ideal, 2024-01-16 The Internal Market Ideal honours the pathbreaking work of Professor Stephen Weatherill Jacques Delors Professor of European Law at the University of Oxford 1998 2021 For more than three decades Professor Weatherill has been the dominant figure in internal market debates shaping the European Union s Internal Market both at Oxford and internationally Looming large in fields as disparate as consumer protection and sports law his voice has guided how relevant laws and regulations are understood and how their varying virtues and pitfalls are perceived A reference to his seminal work The Internal Market as a Legal Concept OUP 2016 the present volume is not simply a celebration of Weatherill's scholarship but also an examination of the legal issues surrounding the semi integrated market of the European Union Across nineteen essays the collection presents a vision of the European Union not yet achieved that is a Union which benefits from economic growth and pursues non economic objectives whilst carefully balancing respect for Member States autonomy and the European Union's self sufficiency The Internal Market Ideal is an invaluable resource for students researchers practitioners and policy makers in the field of European Law

Migrant Professionals in the City Lars Meier, 2014-07-17 The migration of professionals is widely seen as a paradigmatic representation and a driver of globalization The global elite of highly qualified migrants managers and scientists for example are partly defined by their lives mobility But their everyday lives are based and take place in specific cities The contributors of this book analyze the relevance of locality for a mobile group and provide a new perspective on migrant professionals by considering the relevance of social identities for local encounters in socially unequal cities Contributors explore shifting identities senses of belonging and spatial and social inequalities and encounters between migrant professionals and Others within the cities These qualitative studies widen the understanding of the importance of local aspects for the social identities of those who are in many aspects more privileged than others

Debating European Citizenship Rainer Bauböck, 2018-09-12 This open access book raises crucial questions about the citizenship of the European Union Is it a new citizenship beyond the nation state although it is derived from Member State nationality Who should get it What rights and duties does it entail Should EU citizens living in other Member States be able to vote there in national elections If there are tensions between free movement and social rights which should take priority And should the European Court of Justice determine what European citizenship is about or the legislative institutions of the EU or national parliaments This book collects a wide range of answers to these questions from legal scholars political scientists and political practitioners It is structured as a series of three conversations in which authors respond to each other This exchange of arguments provides unique depth to the debate

The Migration of Highly Educated Turkish Citizens to Europe Zeynep Yanasmayan, 2018-10-29 The increasing global competition of knowledge economies has begun a new era of labour migration as economies chase the best and the brightest the movement of highly skilled workers This book examines the experiences of highly educated migrants subjected to two distinct and incompatible public discourses one that identifies them in terms of nationality and presupposed religion and another that focuses on their education and employment status which suggests that they deserve the best treatment from societies engaged in the global race for talent Presenting new empirical research collected in Amsterdam Barcelona and London amongst highly educated migrants from Turkey the author draws on their narratives to address the question of whether such migrants should be apprehended any differently from their predecessors who moved to Europe as guestworkers in the twentieth century With attention to the reasons for which highly skilled workers choose to migrate and then stay or not in their host countries their connection to their multiple homes and the ways in which they meet the challenges of integration in part by way of their position in relation to other migrants and their acquisition of citizenship in the host country The Migration of Highly Educated Turkish Citizens to Europe offers insights on an under researched trend in the field of migration The author develops three nexuses the mobility migration nexus the mobility citizenship nexus and the mobility dwelling nexus to account for the embedded sense of mobility that underlies these new migrants and offers a holistic picture about their trajectory from arrival to settlement and all that lies in between As such it will appeal to scholars in the fields of sociology and political science with interests in migration and mobility ethnicity and integration Immigration, Integration and Mobility Adrian Favell, 2015-05-08 A compilation of Adrian Favell's innovative and agenda setting essays which since the late 1990s have charted the emergence of new migration patterns and politics in Europe Tackling in turn issues of multiculturalism immigrant integration free movement high skilled mobilities new East West migrations and regional integration the collection offers a comprehensive introduction to the dynamic field of international migration studies At the same time it poses a sharp challenge to current complacencies challenging researchers to escape methodological nationalism and the unreflective reproduction of concepts and assumptions in the field as well as embracing new methodologies and theoretical resources Moving fluidly across intellectual boundaries as much as national borders Favell points the way forward to new thinking in this burgeoning and rapidly evolving interdisciplinary field Amours et désamours entre Européens, 2009-02-01 Les études européennes ont jusqu'ici porté une faible attention la formation effective d'une communauté entre les citoyens européens Diverses méthodes utilisées dans les contributions de ce numéro permettent de saisir l'état actuel de ces sentiments de communauté entre européens Pour l'heure la plupart des ressortissants des pays de l'UE ne se considèrent sans doute plus comme des étrangers mais sont galement loin de se sentir des concitoyens Revista de dialectología y tradiciones populares, 2017 L'immigration et l'intégration des migrants en Europe L'immigration et l'intégration des migrants en Europe, 2022 Politique européenne, 2009 Formation, emploi, 2010 Cadres, classes moyennes Paul Bouffartigue, Charles Gadea, Sophie Pochic, 2011 Banalisation des cadres stress au travail panne de l'ascenseur social crise des classes moyennes les anxiétés sociales se focalisent sur ce vaste ensemble dans lequel une majorité de la population tend désormais se reconnaître Dans quelle mesure sont-elles fondées Reflet de tendances lourdes ou emballement médiatique voire rhétoriques politiques Une quarantaine de sociologues et de spécialistes en sciences de gestion apportent une réponse nuancée Multipliant les angles d'observation combinant de grandes enquêtes quantitatives et des enquêtes localisées faisant place à l'étude de catégories de salariés proches des cadres donnant une large place aux différences liées au genre et aux générations l'ouvrage sonde l'évolution des frontières entre cadres et non cadres Il analyse les carrières le rapport au travail et les conditions de travail des cadres mais aussi leur mode de vie leurs pratiques culturelles et leurs comportements politiques Cadres non dirigeants et professions intermédiaires

Immigration, Integration and Mobility Adrian Favell, 2015-01-16 A compilation of Adrian Favell s innovative and agenda setting essays which since the late 1990s have charted the emergence of new migration patterns and politics in Europe Tackling in turn issues of multiculturalism immigrant integration free movement high skilled mobilities new East West migrations and regional integration the collection offers a comprehensive introduction to the dynamic field of international migration studies At the same time it poses a sharp challenge to current complacencies challenging researchers to escape methodological nationalism and the unreflective reproduction of concepts and assumptions in the field as well as embracing new methodologies and theoretical resources Moving fluidly across intellectual boundaries as much as national borders Favell points the way forward to new thinking in this burgeoning and rapidly evolving interdisciplinary field Migration studies is an increasingly vital but also increasingly crowded field where the cacophony of voices threatens to drown out any clear message The exception is found in this volume of beautifully written essays which puts Adrian Favell s trademark iconoclasm crackling wit and deep learning on clear display Spanning the field and engaging with the controversies stirring scholarly waters on both sides of the Atlantic Immigration Integration and Mobility both reviews and sets the agendas for migration researchers A volume that students and scholars will ponder and savour Roger Waldinger Distinguished Professor Sociology Department University of California Los Angeles Adrian Favell is not only the sharpest critic of European migration studies but also a pioneer who takes transnationalism and transdisciplinarity seriously in his own work The ten essays in this book are a best of selection representative of Favell s interventions A critical mirror for a booming research field still struggling to understand its topic Indispensable reading Rainer Baubock Professor of Social and Political Theory European University Institute Florence This book takes us through several decades of migration debates while remembering that at the heart of questions of migration are issues of differences in wealth power opportunity and futures Provides much needed critical perspectives on mainstream migration scholarship that has consistently failed to shed the blinkers of methodological nationalism Nina Glick Schiller Professor Emeritus of Anthropology University of Manchester Adrian Favell is a maverick His work is always interesting pushing the boundaries of normal social science and expanding our knowledge of human mobility in all its dimensions A collection of his most provocative essays sure to top the reading list of every serious scholar of migration James F Hollifield Professor of Political Science Southern Methodist University Dallas

Mobile Europe Ettore Recchi, 2015-03-09 With a particular focus on their integration paths political participation and identifications this book draws on large cross national surveys of this specific population carried out between 2004 and 2012 as well as in depth interviews and aggregate statistical data from a plethora of sources     Between Mobility and Migration Peter Scholten, Mark van Ostaijen, 2018-07-20 This open access book offers a critical perspective on intra European mobility and migration by using new empirical data and theoretical discussions It develops a theoretical and empirical analysis of the consequences of intra European movement for sending and receiving urban regions in The Netherlands Sweden Austria Turkey Poland and Czech Republic The book conceptualizes Central and Eastern European CEE migration by distinguishing between different types of CEE migrants and consequences This involves a mapping of migration corridors within Europe a unique empirical analysis of consequences for urban regions and an analysis of governance responses Next to the European and country perspectives on this phenomenon the book focuses on the local perspective of urban regions where most mobile citizens settle either permanently or temporarily This way the book puts the analysis of intra European movement in the perspective of broader theoretical debates in migration studies and beyond     Eurostars and Eurocities Adrian Favell, University of California, San Diego. Center for Comparative Immigration Studies, University of California, Los Angeles, 2003     Europe Beyond Mobility Vincent Kaufmann, Ander Audikana, Guillaume Drevon, 2021-11-29 Mobility which has represented a critical scientific category and political driver is currently under strong public scrutiny has mobility lost its potential for social cohesion and political integration Europe Beyond Mobility Mobilities Social Cohesion and Political Integration assesses this question by focusing on the European integration process conceptualized as a political project for the promotion of different flows of mobility Mobility has been a fundamental tool for territorial strength and political integration among European countries Based on a realistic understanding of the potentials and limits of mobility this book pleads for a resonant mobility in the interest of a renovated European integration process It examines how in opposition to those advocating for national borders and mobility restrictions the EU needs to explore new regulatory models which limit mobility's adverse social economic and environmental impacts and make accessible the benefits of alternative flow models It also provides an analytical framework for the study of current trends of mobility limitation migration restriction and re bordering and offers a complementary and innovative framework for the study of globalization Europe Beyond Mobility will be of interest to academics and students as well as policy makers and practitioners internationally in the fields of mobility migration and border studies
