Eva Hesse Vanessa Corby,2010-06-22 Here is an important new examination of the work of American German Jewish artist Eva Hesse one of the most significant figures in twentieth century art Using exciting new feminist approaches and taking as her starting point two key works Corby reveals the way in which Hesse has been constructed as a woman artist and explores the overlooked legacy of the Holocaust and refugee life in her art practice Considering creativity and the feminine trauma and historiography and providing a reassessment of Hesse s relationship with her mother and its impact on her work the book also confirms the importance of drawing practice within Hesse s wider oeuvre Transformative Objects and the Aesthetics of Play Lynn M. Somers,2024-12-26 This book considers the sculpture of Louise Bourgeois 1911 2010 in light of psychoanalyst D W Winnicott s 1896 1971 radical ideas regarding transitional objects potential space and play offering a model for exploring the complex and psychologically evocative work Bourgeois produced from 1947 to 2000 Critical concepts from British object relational theories destruction reparation integration relationality and play drawn from the writings of Winnicott Melanie Klein Marion Milner and Christopher Bollas among others bear upon the decades long study of psychoanalysis Bourgeois brought to her sculptural production that was symbolic metaphorical and most importantly useful The book demonstrates how Bourgeois s transformative sculptural objects and environments are invested in object relations both psychical and tangible and explores Bourgeois s contention that the observer physically engage with the intricate sculptural objects and architectural spaces she produced Each chapter focuses on a key body of work Femme Maison Personages Lairs Janus and Cells examining how these imaginative and playful objects are staged as embodied encounters in space and time to invoke the mutuality reciprocity and ambivalence of our object relationships Weaving a tapestry of aesthetic cultural and psychological encounters Transformative Objects and the Aesthetics of Play addresses critical relationships among Bourgeois s work and that of other artists from Pieter Brueghel to Eva Hesse It brings together practical archival and theoretical material offering close examinations of historically situated objects and analyses of their complex affects and spatiality Gathering critical perspectives from psychoanalysis cultural analysis feminist queer literary and affect studies the book extends its specific art historical scope to investigate the crucial roles that art and cultural experience assume in everyday life Post-Traumatic Art in the City Isabelle de le Court,2020-11-26 Post Traumatic Art in the City comprises an original analysis of the nexus of war art and urban society in two specific contexts late 20th century Beirut and Sarajevo With an emphasis on conceptions of the post traumatic De le Court explores how cities and art are mutually formative in war and post war contexts providing unique insight into the politically and psychologically driven art scenes from within the works of art themselves Grounded in close analyses and new research the book makes an important contribution to the fields of art history and trauma studies Eva Hesse Vanessa Corby,Eva Hesse,2010-06-22 In the ten years between 1960 and 1970 German born American artist Eva Hesse produced one of the most compelling art practices of the twentieth century Her death in 1970 has been a profound loss for contemporary art but the creative legacies of her practice continue to impact upon today's artists In this book Vanessa Corby presents a fascinating new analysis that starts from the position of a painter the book develops a novel art historical method to consider the manner in which artistic protocols and processes negotiate and transform culturally mediated historical experience Hesse's encounters with the work of Rico Lebrun the growing cultural significance of The Diary of Anne Frank and the capture and trial of Adolf Eichmann are each situated in relation to the artist's processes of picturing in order to supplement and shift current understanding of Hesse's art practice Corby aims to show that the artist's work emerged in parallel with the recognition of the event now
