Everyday Practices of Extraordinary Consultants Christine Lambden, Casey Connor, Consulting Stance (Firm), 2008

Cambridge Knights Christine Lambden, 2012-06-24 Today is the first day of the rest of your life Back in the 70 s when Bonnie Pearce was a teenager and perky slogans abounded she thought this was the dumbest one of all Now she s having a day that really does seem like the first day of the rest of her life Fed up with her job and her arrogant boss Bonnie has decided it s time for her to live happily ever after She s chosen the small Texas town of Cambridge as the site of her newly rehabilitated life and with the help of some new friends and her extremely involved family she ll give it her best shot Can a battle hardened veteran of the technology wars slow down to the pace of a small town factory Or will the factory and the town have to change their pace to keep up with her Cambridge Knights in Shining Armor is the tale of what happens when a modern day princess gets a good look at her knight in shining armor and starts to wonder if she was right to let him carry her away on his white horse

Jane Jacobs is still here

Roberto Rocco, 2023-06-06 On the occasion of Jane Jacobs 100 anniversary the chair of Spatial Planning and Strategy of the Delft University of Technology together with the OTB Research Institute for the Built Environment and the Rotterdam Erasmus University College organised a two day conference on Jane Jacob s legacy at TU Delft on 24 25 May 2016 This event was complemented one year later by a Jane Jacobs Year closing event We wished to celebrate the life and accomplishments of one of the most important urban thinkers of our time someone who has influenced generations of designers and planners and others concerned with the built environment the great Jane Jacobs This volume contains a number of papers presented at the celebratory conference held at TU Delft in May 2016 with six tracks coordinated by guest scholars Track 1 Jane Jacobs ethics and the just city Track 2 Jane Jacobs and Street Spaces Streets as public places Track 3 Jane Jacobs and the dynamics of neighbourhoods Track 4 Jane Jacobs and the Reshaping old urban fabrics in Chinese cities Track 5 Jane Jacobs and organised complexity Track 6 Jane Jacobs and safety in public space Opus Dei: A History (1928-2016), Volume Two

José Luis González Gullón, John F Coverdale, 2022-12-19 For almost a century Opus Dei has transmitted to the world a message of encounter with God in ordinary life A first of its kind this book traces the history of the institution from its foundation in 1928 to 2016 It is based on extensive research in previously unexplored documents in Opus Dei's archives and numerous interviews Volume Two covers the five decades that begin with the opening of the Second Vatican Council in 1962 During that period Opus Dei grew from 5 000 to more than 90 000 members and established centers throughout the world Pope St John Paul II made it a personal prelature and canonized its Founder St Josemaría Escrivá British Medical

Journal, 1920 American Ritual Dramas Mary Jo Deegan, 1989-01-20 Deegan attempts a most unlikely synthesis of the cynical theories of Erving Goffman and the community affirming views of Victor Turner Moreover in testing the result in the context of modern American rituals Deegan adds a good measure of Marxist oriented feminism to provide strong structural connections and depth to the analysis The end result of this difficult and rough edged synthesis is not without flaws but it represents a highly creative provocative promising and critical approach to modern American culture All of this makes for fascinating reading and is quite certain to hold the attention of professional sociologists and their students at all levels Choice In a landmark contribution to the sociological literature Mary Jo Deegan examines the underlying social patterns that generate American rituals The first book to employ dramaturgical theory to analyze popular rituals such as football games and the singles bar scene American Ritual Dramas draws upon the pioneering work of Erving Goffman Victor Turner and T R Young to construct a critical framework for examining the social structure of everyday life and its relation to times of celebration or fun The result is a new and important clarification of two aspects of ritual life in America the long term patterns unique to our worldview and material life and the rapid innovation of new rituals that impel modern life In developing her arguments Deegan looks at two major types of ritual participatory rituals and media constructed rituals Through the use of the dramatic metaphor she looks at the roles we play the language we use and the rules we follow in diverse ritual settings ranging from household auctions to the Star Trek television series and the written adventures of The Wizard of Oz Extending the work of earlier theorists Deegan looks for the first time in this context at the issues of sex and class and their relation to bureaucracy and modern uses of time Her critical inquiry reveals that these familiar social rituals and others like them are paradoxically liberating and restricting at the same time The solution lies Deegan concludes in fostering alternative ritual behavior patterns that liberate all members of the community in the democratic experience of playfulness

Phases of Strategy Development and Associated Tools Markus Kutscheid, 2014-02-24 Research Paper postgraduate from the year 2013 in the subject Business economics General grade bestanden Slovak University of Agriculture in Nitra DEPARTMENT OF MANAGEMENT FACULTY ECONOMICS AND MANAGEMENT language English abstract According to the Austrian U S American economist and management consultant Drucker P F strategies help to predict the impact of current decisions and decisions not made on the future of an organization If one decides strategically he has always the problem to set the course without knowing all he would need to know The problem of knowledge deficit can never be solved completely because strategic decisions concern the future The relationships and interdependencies in a globally networked economy are much too complex and they change too fast Nevertheless the managers today have a number of tools that help them to see where the journey is heading Relevant changes and developments should be recognized that have already begun but by superficial observation remain hidden and without appropriate consequences Such changes must be systematically detected and analysed in the strategy process Derived measures must be planned and implemented consistently The main objective of this paper is to describe which tools private and public companies use to develop a strategy successfully and in which sequence of steps they should be used
