With film studies taking the centre stage and becoming a significant paper within the discipline Journalism and Mass communication there is a rising demand and need for a comprehensive book that will deal with basic concepts of film theories and production. Keeping this need in mind, the book is an edited volume which will introduce the basic concepts of film production and theories to the beginners. The highlight of this book is a detailed overview of key foreign film movements and important landmarks in the journey of Indian films with special reference to notable directors and their contributions. The book attempts to throw light on the basic technical aspects of film making as well. A section of the book has also been devoted to emerging concepts in the discipline like focus on film marketing and new technologies, convergence, and the rise of OTT. This book will serve as an introductory guide for any student of media studies interested in film.

Sample Text Clarence Brown Gwenda Young, 2018-11-23

Greta Garbo proclaimed him as her favorite director. Actors, actresses, and even child stars were so at ease under his direction that they were able to deliver inspired and powerful performances. Academy Award-nominated director Clarence Brown (1890-1987) worked with some of Hollywood's greatest stars such as Clark Gable, Joan Crawford, Mickey Rooney, Katharine Hepburn, and Spencer Tracy. Known as the star maker, he helped guide the acting career of child sensation Elizabeth Taylor, of whom he once said she has a face that is an act of God, and discovered Academy Award-winning child star Claude Jarman Jr. for The Yearling (1946). He directed more than fifty films, including Possessed (1931), Anna Karenina (1935), National Velvet (1944), and Intruder in the Dust (1949), winning his audiences over with glamorous star vehicles tales of families communities and slices of Americana as well as hard hitting dramas Although Brown was admired by peers like Jean Renoir Frank Capra and John Ford his illuminating work and contributions to classic cinema are rarely mentioned in the same breath as those of Hollywood's great directors In this first full length account of the life and career of the pioneering filmmaker Gwenda Young discusses Brown's background to show how his hardworking parents and resilient grandparents inspired his entrepreneurial spirit She reveals how the one time engineer and World War I aviator established a thriving car dealership the Brown Motor Car Company in Alabama only to give it all up to follow his dream of making movies He would not only become a brilliant director but also a craftsman who was known for his innovative use of lighting and composition In a career spanning five decades Brown was nominated for five Academy Awards and directed ten different actors in Oscar nominated performances Despite his achievements and influence however Brown has been largely overlooked by film scholars Clarence Brown Hollywood's Forgotten Master explores the forces that shaped a complex man part dreamer part pragmatist who left an indelible mark on cinema
