Evangelical Zen is part Augustine's Confessions and part Robert Pirsig's Zen and the Art of Motorcycle Maintenance Here Paul Louis Metzger an Evangelical Christian reflects on his spiritual journey an inner pilgrimage of sorts that weaves through a physical forty day journey with his family to Japan The experiences of that journey the beauties of Japan its culture and its religion become for him a lens on a deeper quest here he is searching for and he believes finding a global humanity in conversation with Kyogen his Buddhist friend The Dialogical Spirit II Amos

Yong, 2024-09-05 The Dialogical Spirit II is a second collection of essays that demonstrates the dialectical contours of Amos Yong's critical pentecostal theology It is a montage of constructive engagements with various thinkers and ideas in the promotion of theological plurality for the third millennium With essays on Hegelian dialectics Buddhist Christian dialogue pneumatic missiology etc voice is generated for the renewal of relationality and the revival of imagination Free from the imposition of traditional boundaries Yong makes his way across differing landscapes of truth in a global environment gleaned from the activities of reflection and understanding therein Providing snapshots of Yong's theological development over decades of work The Dialogical Spirit II further evidences the vitality of pentecostal theology to emerging conversations in constructive and comparative venues Evangelical Theologies of Liberation and Justice Mae Elise Cannon, Andrea

Smith, 2019-09-10 Despite the current evangelical focus on justice work evangelical theologians have not adequately developed a theological foundation for this activism In this insightful resource evangelical academics activists and pastors come together to survey the history and outlines of liberation theology opening a conversation for developing a specifically evangelical view of liberation that speaks to the critical justice issues of our time A Charitable Orthopathy John W.

Morehead, Brandon C. Benziger, 2020-04-07 Evangelicals and other conservative Christians of the twenty first century face enormous challenges in the pluralistic public square not least with Muslims and atheists Contrary to biblical injunctions to keep in step with the Spirit Gal 5 25b and to love our neighbors as ourselves e.g. Matt 22 37 40 Luke 10 25 37 both of which involve not only behavioral but also important affective elements we often harbor deep seated antipathies toward atheists and adherents of other religions While such feelings are at times justified and help us cope with conflict related tragedies they are also often baseless misconstrued and counterproductive priming us to avoid religious others support discriminatory policies against them and even confront them in verbal or physical ways The purpose of this volume is to offer an academically informed yet practically oriented collection of essays that challenges and encourages Christians to engage their religious neighbors in a much more loving compassionate hopeful and courageous indeed orthopathic manner whether in the realm of politics in debate and conference venues on the mission field or in their own homes schools churches and neighborhoods As such a set of reflection and discussion questions is included to facilitate individual and or group study

Interreligious Reflections, Six Volume Set Alon Goshen-Gottstein, 2018-08-08 This set includes all six volumes of Interreligious Reflections ABOUT VOLUME ONE Friendship is an outcome of as well as a condition for advancing interfaith relations However for friendship to advance there must be legitimation from within and a theory of how interreligious relations can be justified from the resources of different faith traditions Friendship Across Religions explores these very issues seeking to develop a robust theory of interreligious friendship from the resources of each of the participating traditions It also features individual cases as models and precedents for such relations in particular the friendship of Gandhi and Charlie Andrews his closest personal friend Contributors Balwant Singh Dhillon Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Maria Reis Habito Ruben L F Habito Ryan McAnnally Linz Stephen Butler Murray Eleanor Nesbitt Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sender Johann M Vento and Miroslav Volf ABOUT VOLUME TWO This book tackles the core problem of how painful historical memories between diverse religious communities continue to impact even poison present day relations Its operative notion is the healing of memory developed by John Paul II Chapters explore how painful memories of yesteryear can be healed and so address some of the root causes Strategies from six different faith traditions are brought together in what is in some ways a cross religious brainstorming session that identifies tools to improve present day relations At the other pole of the conceptual axis of this book is the notion of hope If memory informs our past hope sets the horizon for our future How does the healing of memory open new horizons for the future And what is the notion of hope in each of our traditions that could lead to a common vision of good Between memory and hope this book seeks to offer a vision of healing that can serve as a resource in contemporary interfaith relations Contributors Rahuldeep Singh Gill Alon Goshen Gottstein Maria Reis Habito Flora A Keshgegian Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sender Muhammad Suheyl Umar and Michael von Br ck

ABOUT VOLUME THREE The essays collected here prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy explore the challenges associated with sharing wisdom learning teachings messages for good living How should religions go about sharing their wisdom These chapters representing six faith tradition Jewish Christian Muslim Hindu Sikh and Buddhist explore what wisdom means in each of these traditions why and how it should be shared internally and externally and the role of love and forgiveness in sharing This book offers a theory that can enrich ongoing encounters between members of faith traditions by suggesting a tradition based practice of sharing wisdom while preserving the integrity of the teaching and respecting the identity of anyone with whom wisdom is shared Contributors Pal Ahluwalia Timothy Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Sallie B King Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sender Miroslav Volf

ABOUT VOLUME FOUR All the world s religions are experiencing rapid change due to a confluence of social and economic global forces Factors such as the pervasive intrusion of globalizing political and economic developments polarized and morally equivalent presentations seen in the media and the sense of surety demanded in and promised by a culture dominated by science are some of the factors that have placed extreme pressure on all religious traditions This has stimulated unprecedented responses by religious groups ranging from fundamentalism to the syncretistic search for meaning As religion takes on new forms the balance between individual and community is disrupted and reconfigured Religions often lose the capacity to recall their ultimate purpose or lead their adherents toward it This is the situation we call the crisis of the holy It is a confluence of threats challenges and opportunities for all religions This volume explores the contours of pressures changes and transformations and reflects on how all our religions are changing By identifying commonalities across religions as they respond to these pressures The Crisis of the Holy recommends ways religious traditions might cope with these changes and how they might join forces in doing so Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Sidney H Griffith Maria Reis Habito B Barry Levy Deepak Sarma Michael von Br ck

ABOUT VOLUME FIVE The chapters collected in this book prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy address the subject of religious leadership The subject is of broad relevance in the training of religious leaders and in the practice of religious leadership As such it is also germane to religious thought where reflections on religious leadership occupy an important place What does it mean to be a religious leader in today s world To what degree are the challenges that confront religious leadership today the same perennial challenges that have arrested the attention of the faithful and their leaders for generations and to what degree do we encounter challenges today that are unique to our day and age One dimension is surely unique and that is the very ability to explore these issues from an interreligious perspective and to consider challenges opportunities and strategies across religious traditions Studying the theme across six faith traditions Christianity Islam Judaism Sikhism Hinduism and Buddhism The Future of Religious Leadership World Religions in Conversation recognizes the common challenges to present day religious leadership Contributors Awet Andemicael Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Anantanand Rambachan Maria Reis Habito Meir Sendor Balwant Singh Dhillon Miroslav Volf VOLUME SIX One of the biggest challenges for relations between religions is the view of the religious Other The question touches the roots of our theological views The Religious Other Hostility Hospitality and the Hope of Human Flourishing explores the views of multiple religious traditions on how to regard otherness How does one move from hostility to hospitality How can hospitality be understood not simply as social hospitality but as theological hospitality making room for the religious Other on theological grounds What is our vision for the flourishing of the Other while respecting his otherness This volume is an exercise in constructive interreligious theology By including Abrahamic and non Abrahamic traditions it approaches these challenges from multiple perspectives highlighting commonalities in approach and ways in which one tradition might inspire another Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Richard P Hayes Lord Rabbi Jonathan Sacks Deepak Sarma Stephen W Sykes Dharma Master Hsin Tao Ashok Vohra The Shift Hanitra N.

Ralaiarisedy,2020-01-06 Know thyself is a leitmotiv throughout all great wisdom traditions Inheriting from this principle postmodern theories regard self knowledge as the prerequisite to self actualization and social transformations While such a view is undeniably important it cannot fully represent God s justice and equity Indeed it is not given to everyone to know or just to desire to know oneself This book proposes a Christian alternative to human flourishing Shifting the paradigm of the ancient wisdom that humanistic psychologists and postmodern tools continue to rely on Christ puts the existential quest of who we are aside Instead he leads the faithful towards the actualization of their gifts transforming uncreated energies into co creative opportunities for the betterment of their communities organizations and countries regardless of who they are and how well they know themselves Christ offers the path to the kingdom of God on earth proposed in this book as the nothing from which creation emerges and in which everyone has a role to play with no exception Christ claims The kingdom of God is here choose life and self knowledge follows Do not be afraid I am with you Quakers World Wide Herbert M. Constantino,Susana José,1983 The Complete Guide to Buddhist America Don Morreale,1998 This completely revised and vastly expanded edition of the author s Buddhist America Centers Retreats and Practices contains more than twice the number of listings and articles in the original edition The book serves not only as the most comprehensive directory of Buddhist activity in North America but also as a highly readable introduction to Buddhist practice in general America and the Challenges of Religious Diversity Robert Wuthnow,2011-07-01 Muslims Hindus Buddhists and adherents of other non Western religions have become a significant presence in the United States in recent years Yet many Americans continue to regard the United States as a Christian society How are we adapting to the new diversity Do we casually announce that we respect the faiths of non Christians without understanding much about those faiths Are we willing to do the hard work required to achieve genuine religious pluralism Award winning author Robert Wuthnow tackles these and other difficult questions surrounding religious diversity and does so with his characteristic rigor and style America and the Challenges of Religious Diversity looks not only at how we have adapted to diversity in the past but at the ways rank and file Americans clergy and other community leaders are responding today Drawing from a new national survey and hundreds of in depth qualitative interviews this book is the first systematic effort to assess how well the nation is meeting the current challenges of religious and cultural diversity The results Wuthnow argues are both encouraging and sobering encouraging because most Americans do recognize the right of diverse groups to worship freely but sobering because few Americans have bothered to learn much about religions other than their own or to engage in constructive interreligious dialogue Wuthnow contends that responses to religious diversity are fundamentally deeper than polite discussions about civil liberties and tolerance would suggest Rather he writes religious diversity strikes us at the very core of our personal and national theologies Only by understanding this important dimension of our culture will we be able to move toward a more reflective approach to religious pluralism National Directory of Churches, Synagogues, and Other Houses of Worship ,1994 World Guide to Religious and Spiritual Organizations Union of International Associations,1996 Friends Journal ,1976 One Love, One Life, One Creation Michael Wright,1999 Sufi ,1999 Holy People of the World Phyllis G.
