

The background of the cover is a romantic photograph of a man and a woman. The woman, on the left, has long, wavy brown hair and is wearing a red top. The man, on the right, has short dark hair and is wearing a light-colored suit jacket over a white shirt and a patterned tie. They are both looking down and slightly towards each other, creating an intimate and tender atmosphere. The lighting is soft and warm, typical of a studio portrait.

Relational Christianity Wesley M. Pinkham, 2022-06-21 This work begins with a transformative idea human existence is fundamentally relational Relational Christianity explores how the nature of the Trinity must define the Church and the Christian spiritual life Utilizing Scripture Christian spiritual tradition and philosophy Pinkham and Gruenberg paint the picture of a Trinitarian Jesus centered Christianity led by the Father and explored in interpersonal oneness In this view God's intimate unifying love is the theological river that runs through the landscape of biblical revelation and through God's movement in history This work of Trinitarian practical theology suggests that the relation between Father Son and Spirit should shape and guide all Christian interactions with God with others and with self In the paradigm of relational Christianity the formation of genuine personhood and identity are based upon relational connections first with the Trinity and second with God's family The shape of the new covenant community must reflect the Father's nature Church culture must prioritize relationship in the same way the Trinity does
