Easy Women Easy Women:

Easy Women Debra A. Castillo, 1998 Addresses the topic of prostitution and easy women in Mexican literature The figure of the prostitute or sexually liberated woman not only permeates Mexican folk songs and popular movies but stands at the crossroads of its national literary culture In Easy Women Debra A Castillo focuses on the prostitute or the woman perceived as such in order to ask why this character exerts such a hold on the Mexican imagination Combining early twentieth century novels current best selling pulp fiction and testimonial narratives Castillo explores how Mexican writers have positioned the easy woman in their works In each example the transgressive woman marked by an active sexuality serves a crucial narrative function one that both promotes and challenges myths about women on the continuum of sexual promiscuity Ending with a discussion based on a series of in depth interviews with sex workers in Tijuana Castillo highlights the complexities and ambiguities of these women s professional and personal lives Bridging Latin American literary and cultural criticism gender studies and studies of Mexican society Easy Women provides a sophisticated and groundbreaking examination of the place of the sexually liberated woman in contemporary Mexican culture

Chelsea Matinee - Memoirs of an Easy Woman B.K.

Smith, 2014-07-03 For our first special date I chose a dress that would be special The texture was crisp but not solid as taffeta or poplin it was capable of floating It was fine cotton unusual for an evening dress but the color was graphite with a slight flair like lakes in soft pencil on cartridge paper The top was fitted to my narrow frame not too low but with unfussy chemise shoulders The waist was slightly dropped so that my long torso was straight like a pencil from there the skirt cut on a bias flowed and floated over stiff netting On the shoulder I had pinned my mother s gold brooch a rose On one of its petals shone a diamond dewdrop It was seven o clock Then eight o clock Then nine I waited I hardly knew him and already he was late probably already bored with me they all get bored eventually I knew why It was vanity I didn t feel attractive or alluring or desired I quickly dismissed any notion of giving him a piece of my mind I pulled up my skirt and undid my garters and carefully rolled down my sheer black silk stockings I folded the stockings up together and put them on the table next to a vase of gladioli After that I painted my toenails Polynesian Pink to match my fingernails I wiggled my toes while I waited for my toenails to dry and then I unfolded the stockings and rolled them back up my legs When I had done up my garters I put on my shoes all done and I waited some more I was just another woman at his disposal which made me disposable The fact that I aspired to be a great painter meant nothing to him What happens when you fall in love with a man with no conscience When you have been seduced and abandoned and left for dead How do you reconcile your life your truth your fiction and your memories You spend the better part of your life trying to forget and then you remember it one last time You write the story from a safe distance of more than thirty years You write it from memory where the true essence of the affair resides and you release it into the cosmos finally forever May he rest in pieces
