Earthwise A Guide To Hopeful Creation Care:

Earthwise Calvin B. DeWitt, 2011 Earthwise is about living in harmony with the natural world around us and sharing the joy of this living Sadly our ways of life in today's global economy have led to increasing land and habitat destruction pollution species extinction buildup of greenhouse gases and other degradations of the earth But rather than grovel and wring our hands in despair lifelong creation care scientist Calvin B DeWitt suggests we discover a joyful positive attitude about working together for good in this world Looking forward in hope we can make changes and take positive lasting action that is more in harmony with the way the world works and is meant to be This book now in its third edition helps to provide us and our friends neighbors coworkers and fellow citizens with practical information and ideas to become truly earthwise The Oxford Handbook of the Bible in America Paul C. Gutjahr, 2017 Early Americans have long been considered A People of the Book Because the nickname was coined primarily to invoke close associations between Americans and the Bible it is easy to overlook the central fact that it was a book not a geographic location a monarch or even a shared language that has served as a cornerstone in countless investigations into the formation and fragmentation of early American culture Few books can lay claim to such powers of civilization altering influence Among those which can are sacred books and for Americans principal among such books stands the Bible This Handbook is designed to address a noticeable void in resources focused on analyzing the Bible in America in various historical moments and in relationship to specific institutions and cultural expressions It takes seriously the fact that the Bible is both a physical object that has exercised considerable totemic power as well as a text with a powerful intellectual design that has inspired everything from national religious and educational practices to a wide spectrum of artistic endeavors to our nation's politics and foreign policy This Handbook brings together a number of established scholars as well as younger scholars on the rise to provide a scholarly overview rich with bibliographic resources to those interested in the Bible's role in American cultural formation Environmental and Sustainability

Education in Teacher Education Douglas D. Karrow, Maurice DiGiuseppe, 2020-01-01 This book was inspired by the inaugural National Roundtable on Environmental and Sustainability Education in Canadian Faculties of Education Roundtable 2016 which took place June 14-16 2016 at Trent University in Peterborough Ontario Roundtable 2016 brought together over seventy participants from across Canada including educators researchers policy makers consultants and community organizations Over the course of three days participants took part in keynote addresses research colloquia networking socials and collaborative inquiry activities focused on Environmental Sustainability Education in Teacher Education ESE TE Roundtable 2016 resulted in the publication of a National Action Plan containing action oriented recommendations for enhancing ESE TE and a position statement titled The Otonabee Declaration where delegates articulated their views regarding environmental degradation the critical need for enhancing ESE TE and the role educators children youth educational institutions policy makers and Indigenous communities play in enhancing ESE TE in Canada This volume concludes with a discussion placing current Canadian ESE TE theory and practice within an international context

Creation Care and the Gospel LAUSANNE MOVEMENT, 2016-06-02 How should Christians react to environmental crisis Historically evangelicals have ignored this aspect of living for Christ so this book aims to reinvigorate and empower Christians across the globe to care for creation This book collects the work of biblical scholars theologians biologists environmental researchers and community organizers who met at The Global Consultation on Creation Care and the Gospel in Jamaica in 2012 Participants from 23 countries as diverse as Argentina Bangladesh Benin and Canada gathered for five days to pray talk and reflect on the state of the planet the home in which we live and on the role and ministry of the church in caring for God's creation The book contains biblical and theological affirmations from well respected scholars and teachers reminding us that caring for creation is central to the evangelical faith It is an integral part of our mission an expression of our worship of God and a matter of great joy and hope

Creation Care Discipleship Steven Bouma-Prediger, 2023-10-17 Although our planet faces numerous ecological crises including climate change many Christians continue to view their faith as primarily a spiritual matter that has little relationship to the world in which we live But Steven Bouma-Prediger contends that protecting and restoring our planet is part and parcel of what it means to be a Christian Making his case from Scripture theology and ethics and including insights from the global church Bouma-Prediger explains why Christians must acknowledge their identity as earthkeepers and therefore embrace their calling to serve and protect their home planet and fellow creatures To help readers put an earthkeeping faith into practice he also suggests numerous practical steps that concerned believers can take to care for the planet Bouma-Prediger unfolds a biblical vision of earthkeeping and challenges Christians to view care for the earth as an integral part of Christian discipleship

Hope for Creation Matthew Sleeth, Matthew Sleeth, M.D., 2010-04-12 In this interactive companion to the Hope for Creation DVD Dr Matthew Sleeth provides personal questions practical applications and additional content to help Christ's followers dig deeper into the creation care lessons of Sessions 1-6

For the Beauty of the Earth Steven Bouma-Prediger, 2010-04 This substantially revised and updated edition provides the most thorough evangelical treatment available on a theology of creation care

John Stott on Creation Care R.J. (Sam) Berry, Laura Yoder, 2021-10-21 Discover John Stott's writings on creation care brought together for the first time in this definitive collection for the global church Compiled by R.J. Sam Berry and Laura Yoder this brilliant anthology demonstrates both Stott's passion for the environment and its place in Christian discipleship Showcasing his unique way of explaining the Bible simply and clearly John Stott on Creation Care traces Stott's own process of coming to embrace creation care as a vital part of the Christian life and in turn shows us how creation care must have an integral place in our own discipleship Commentary by noted scientist R.J. Sam Berry connects Stott's writings together and illuminates how his wisdom still speaks to us today Alongside reflections from others that Stott inspired and disciplined John Stott on Creation Care is the perfect resource for every Christian looking to understand biblical teaching on the environment and how creation care should form part of their discipleship. It is also an ideal biblical and theological resource for those involved in creation care ministry. Published as part of the John Stott Centenary celebrations, proceeds from John Stott on Creation Care will go to A Rocha International, a charity that carries community-based conservation projects in response to biodiversity loss around the world. John Stott viewed creation care as an inevitable implication of the biblical message and as a grounding for Christian engagement in environmental commitments. This collection will give you a deeper, more thorough understanding of his writings and how his views developed and will leave you motivated and inspired to look again at your discipleship and how you approach creation care.

Hope for Humanity Matthew Sleeth, Matthew Sleeth, M.D., 2010-04-12
In this interactive companion to the Hope for Humanity DVD, Dr. Matthew Sleeth provides personal questions, practical applications, and additional content to help Christ's followers dig deeper into the creation care actions highlighted in Sessions 7-12.

Our Father's World Edward R. Brown, 2008-03-24
What does the Bible have to say about creation care and the responsibility of Christians? Edward Brown offers a biblical framework for creation care as well as practical steps that ordinary Christians can take to exercise good ecological stewardship.

A Christian's Guide to Planet Earth Betsy Painter, 2022-04-05
From conservation to protecting endangered species to sustainable living, A Christian's Guide to Planet Earth offers a faith-based framework for viewing our responsibility to the natural world as well as practical biblical ways we can care for the magnificent creation around us. Drawing on science and Scripture, this hope-filled and reader-friendly guide helps us navigate questions about caring for and respecting God's world. With a focus on real-life solutions, this book explores answers to questions such as: What does the Bible say about food shortages, forests, and pollution? How can we make ethical choices about what we eat and what we wear? Why is reducing our carbon footprint a way of loving others? What do animals tell us about God's design for the earth? What simple choices can we make to help recover God's beauty in creation? Four color infographics throughout highlight the inherent grandeur of the natural world, stirring our hearts to care about the wild and wondrous things God has made. Each chapter concludes with practical tips on how to become better stewards of the Earth, including how to support efforts that make a positive difference in the world. A Christian's Guide to Planet Earth is ideal for anyone who wants to make a difference for the planet but doesn't know where to start. Readers interested in how stewardship of the water, air, land, and gardens relates to serving God and our neighbor, Bible studies, and church small groups, homeschooling families, and networks. Anyone who loves God's beauty in nature. Readers with questions about how changes to our earth affect the planet and our lives. Equal parts philosophical and practical, this guide provides us a deeper understanding of God's love for His creation and the delightful God given privilege we have to enjoy it and care for it well.

Hope for God's Creation Andrew J. Spencer, 2023-09-15
As our society asks new questions about the physical world, Christians need to give answers that are contextualized and effectively transpose the unchanging truths of Scriptures into ever changing contexts Hope for God's Creation gives readers the resources to answer contemporary questions about environmental ethics from an orthodox Christian theological perspective Living Green, Loving God Faith

Skinner, 2025-03-14 Why does creation care matter Because protecting our planet isn't just good it's a sacred responsibility The Bible calls us to nurture and protect God's world and this book provides fun practical ways for your family to answer that call together Creation Care And The Gospel Dennis Tan, Lam Kuo Yung, Leow Wen Pin, Creation Care and the Gospel concisely explains to the reader why creation care should be an essential part of Christian discipleship from a biblical perspective and then provides practical guidance on how to live out creation care as an individual Christian and together in the local church This is a much needed book in light of the ever advancing modern existential threats of pollution climate change deforestation habitat destruction and more A Hopeful Earth Sally Bishop Dyck, 2010-10-01 The environment is

God's creation and Christians should be at the front of the crowd when it comes to taking care of it Yet we find ourselves in a creation crisis A Hopeful Earth a unique study draws together the Christian faith of Bishop Sally Dyck and the scientific world of her niece Sally Ehrman to address this crisis As these two dialogue readers will find that these sometimes differing worldviews are both crucial to making lasting changes They'll also discover how the church can reach out to the younger generation by joining them in the race to save the planet A Hopeful Earth will bridge the gap between Jesus and the environment and guide readers in understanding that living as good stewards of God's creation is a significant component of what it means to follow Jesus Creation Care in Christian Mission Kapya J. Kaoma, 2016 As the world comes to terms with the human caused destruction of God's sacred creation whether Global Christianity will celebrate a bi centennial Edinburgh 2110 becomes a real question Yet as Creation Care in Christian Mission shows the mounting and life threatening ecological crisis is at the heart of the mission of God The volume's contributing authors represent a wide range of Christian traditions and geographical regions on which they draw to initiate dialogue on creation care within the wider global Christian community They explore hard questions relative to climate change population growth pollution poverty sustainability economic justice deforestation gender and land issues Written with academics missionary and development agencies and ordinary Christians in mind this work presents a global unified spiritual and ethical voice on Creation care The diversity of contributors from established scholars and religious leaders makes this work a unique and critical resource for understanding human responsibility toward God's creation The book offers hope to all Christians for Christian mission can positively aid ecological responsibilities and actions This book is a singular contribution to examining the broader contributions of Christianity in response to our growing environmental challenges Rather than looking inward this volume looks outward to relate the Christian missionary tradition to Earth care through the multiple perspectives of theology ethics and ritual It will be an invaluable resource for years to come Mary Evelyn Tucker Yale Forum on Religion and Ecology and cowriter of Journey of the Universe Religion's most important present responsibility is to face the environmental crisis and this includes much self examination as well as moral instruction This important collection with many leading voices contributes to the profoundly important ecological transformation of faith and of the faithful Highly recommended Roger S Gottlieb author of A Greener Faith Religious Environmentalism and our Planet s Future and Spirituality What it is and Why it Matters With the publication of the first papal encyclical on care for the planet this volume brings together in a very timely fashion a set of excellent and highly informative papers on the engagement of the world church in mission to the creatures and habitats of the planet and its deep interconnection with the mission of the church to the peoples of the earth Michael Northcott Professor at New College University of Edinburgh Kapya J Kaoma is Visiting Researcher at Boston University s Center for Global Christianity and Mission and adjunct Professor at St John s University College Zambia He holds degrees from Theological College of Central Africa now Evangelical University College Zambia Trinity College England Episcopal Divinity School and Boston University in the United States He is author of The Creator s Symphony African Christianity and the Plight of Earth and the Poor 2015 and Raised Hopes Shattered Dreams Democracy the Oppressed and the Church in Africa 2015

Earthkeeping and Character Steven Bouma-Prediger, 2019-11-19 Addressing a topic of growing and vital concern this book asks us to reconsider how we think about the natural world and our place in it Steven Bouma Prediger brings ecotheology into conversation with the emerging field of environmental virtue ethics exploring the character traits and virtues required for Christians to be responsible keepers of the earth and to flourish in the challenging decades to come He shows how virtue ethics can enrich Christian environmentalism helping readers think and act in ways that rightly value creation
